New Ethnicities Old Racisms:

New Ethnicities, Old Racisms Phil Cohen, 1999 A critique of essentialist definitions of race nation and ethnicity across key areas of cultural policy and practice It discusses ways of tackling popular cultures of racism the histories of previously marginalized racisms and sexism and the impact of changing patterns of migration New Ethnicities And Urban Cult Les Back, Theories of Race and Racism Les Back, John Solomos, 2000 20 Lola Young IMPERIAL CULTURE Theories of Race and Ethnicity Karim Murji, John Solomos, 2015-01-08 An authoritative and cutting edge collection of theoretically grounded and empirically informed essays exploring the contemporary terrain of race and racism Europe's New Racism Evens Foundation, 2002-06 Europe has seen a tremendous rise in popularity of new rightist political parties in the last two decades or so claiming cultural supremacy of the so called native Europeans over foreign immigrants In this volume European scholars from Russia to Britain have come together to examine the media and social and legal policies in an effort to determine the causes of this resurgence of rightist and anti democratic ideologies They furthermore suggest actions that might help combat racism more effectively Europe's new racism? : causes, manifestations and solutions, 2002 Key Concepts in Race and Ethnicity Nasar Meer, 2014-07-28 A conceptually power packed volume that is at once erudite and accessible expansive and focused true to sociological traditions yet stimulatingly exploratory Scholars and students will be served very well by this absorbing far reaching enquiry into ethnicity and race Raymond Taras Tulane University This concise profound and beautifully written book offers a tour de force across the landscape of race and ethnicity by a young author who masters them all Per Mouritsen Aarhus University This book offers an accessible discussion of both foundational and novel concepts in the study of race and ethnicity Each account will help readers become familiar with how long standing and contemporary arguments within race and ethnicity studies contribute to our understanding of social and political life more broadly Providing an excellent starting point with which to understand the contemporary relevance of these concepts Nasar Meer offers an up to date and engaging consideration of everyday examples from around the world This is an indispensable guide for both students and established researchers interested in the study of race and ethnicity Racialization Karim Murji, John Solomos, 2005 Racialization has become one of the central concepts in the study of race and racism This volume brings together international scholars to address key facets of the concept in a wide range of social and political arenas including gender relations policing urban communities youth cultures immigration and political life Crash Cinema Will Godfrey, Jill Good, Mark Goodall, 2009-10-02 Crash Cinema Representation in Film is a collection of essays that emerged from Crash Cinema an annual symposium that is an integral part of the Bradford Film Festival at the National Media Museum UK The symposium was created by academics and curators who share the common aim of promoting the importance of film both as an academic study and for critical public appreciation Films can be enjoyed as entertainment they can educate and inform and they can excite and disturb Films are powerful pieces of culture The films that we now consume do more than simply amuse or horrify Cinema not only thrills us but also communicates to us about ourselves and in the twentieth and twenty first century moving images have become the dominant form of this communication Bombarded by images we inhabit a media intensive world in which every aspect of life is pervaded by visual signs In these circumstances it becomes increasingly significant to engage with the politics of representation Through this vital process we can acknowledge that all cultural forms whether in high art or the mass media are in the broadest sense political We can also appreciate that it is a complex agenda of interests that shapes specific ideological meanings Fulsomely equipped we can apply this essential tool to the exciting task of decoding the political social and cultural meanings articulated through the making promotion and consumption of film This book aims to offer an arena for the analysis of these representations Representations cannot depict the truth and the essays in this book do not claim to search for the truth We ask whose truth is being represented how is it represented and why is it represented like that We also ask how do representations tell us something about the culture within which they are created Yet the essays in this volume are not stuck in the representational concerns of the past and try instead to uncover the power of cinema to shock and surprise whether that be through visceral impact subversive content experiments with identity or the exploration of the taboo Representation as defined by the eleven essays in this book is a fluid and dynamic approach to the study of film The study of film to which this book contributes some unique case studies is as popular as ever and has withstood growing challenge from the new media such as CG Animations the internet and computer console and online gaming This is because the pleasure of film is still the most humanistic and because the sophistication of the representations offered by cinematic expression remain ever more complex and pleasurable to decipher This book can therefore be read by any student academic writer or filmmaker hooked on these delights The Politics of Multiculturalism B. Pitcher, 2009-04-08 Taking as a case study the racial politics of the British state under New Labour this book advances an idea of multiculturalism as the only conceptual framework that is capable of making sense of the contradictions of contemporary race practice where racism is simultaneously rejected and reproduced
