making love with Marion Cotillard who is playacting the role Miranda Tate But if we look at the history of cinema and consider contemporary reviews from the early days of the medium we see that people thought precisely in this way about early film They spoke of film as no more than documentary recordings of actors performing on set In an innovative combination of philosophical aesthetics and new cinema history Mario Sluga investigates how our default imaginative engagement with film changed over the first two decades of cinema It addresses not only the importance of imagination for the understanding of early cinema but also contributes to our understanding of what it means for a representational medium to produce fictions Specifically Sluga argues that cinema provides a better model for understanding fiction than literature

John Russell, 2000 Nonfiction novels have usually been associated with the new journalism writers of the 1960s such as Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer and Truman Capote Yet this form has long commanded a key position in the literary canon as John Russell now reveals Russell identifies eleven major works not usually thought of as nonfiction novels such as Isak Dinesen's Out of Africa and E. E. Cummings's The Enormous Room to create a new definition of the genre He shows that journalistic writing is characterized by a reporter's proprietary stance which undermines reciprocity with subjects while true nonfiction novels feature greater reciprocity and also employ such techniques as circular narrative and bricolage Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel contributes to ongoing explorations of literary forms and offers wise commentary on how writing about real life can become art
