Visual Research and Indonesian Ethnography Karl Heider, 2021-09-28 This book focuses on how visual records, mainly on film or video, can provide data for research and presents a variety of visual projects drawn from ethnographic fieldwork in Indonesia. Karl Heider argues for the expansion of visual anthropology or anthropology with a camera beyond descriptive ethnographic film into actual use of the camera as a research tool. The chapters explore several ways in which camera-generated materials can complement and support what anthropologists already do in their research. Heider includes samples from fieldwork in Indonesia conducted over a number of years, particularly in New Guinea and Sumatra, with groups including the Dani and Minangkabau. His studies combine visual and psychological anthropology and provides insight into the analysis of emotions in particular. Intended to inspire new approaches to the ethnographic enterprise, the book is valuable for scholars of visual anthropology and Southeast Asia.

Teaching and Learning (Im)Politeness Barbara Pizziconi, Miriam A. Locher, 2015-11-13 This collection combines research from the field of (im)politeness studies with research on language pedagogy and language learning. It aims to engender a useful dialogue between (im)politeness theorists, language teachers, and SLA researchers and also to broaden the enquiry to naturalistic contexts other than L2 acquisition classrooms by formulating teaching and learning as processes of socialization, cultural transmission, and adaptation.

Narratives in Educational Research Eeva Kaisa Hyry-Beihammer, Outi Ylitapio-Mäntylä, Minna Uitto, 2024-09-24 This edited volume focuses on narratives and diverse narrative approaches in the field of education. It discusses the concept of narrative and its boundaries as well as illustrates in detail the many ways of producing and analyzing diverse narrative research materials. Its chapters provide rich examples of oral, written, and visual narratives produced in peer interviews and group discussions as well as via creative writing and photographs. Various narrative ways of analyses are applied. The book reflects on research ethics, the position of the researcher, and collaboration between participants and researchers as well as between researchers also cross culturally By exploring and illustrating innovative ways to conduct research on and with narratives in the educational field the book is a great resource for researchers and students in the field of education social sciences and humanities Comparative Education Research Mark Bray,Bob Adamson,Mark Mason,2014-06-09 Approaches and methods in comparative education are of obvious importance but do not always receive adequate attention This second edition of a well received book containing thoroughly updated and additional material contributes new insights within the longstanding traditions of the field A particular feature is the focus on different units of analysis Individual chapters compare places systems times cultures values policies curricula and other units These chapters are contextualised within broader analytical frameworks which identify the purposes and strengths of the field The book includes a focus on intra national as well as cross national comparisons and highlights the value of approaching themes from different angles As already demonstrated by the first edition of the book the work will be of great value not only to producers of comparative education research but also to users who wish to understand more thoroughly the parameters and value of the field
