Henry, 1872

Exceptional Child Education Resources, 1987 Human Resources for School Leaders Douglas R. Davis, Denver J. Fowler, 2020-08-15 Human Resources for School Leaders contains comprehensive and systematic coverage of all aspects of public school human resource management Unlike other books focused on this topic the authors ground their text on student learning and outline strategies designed to enhance school climate and culture The early chapters focus on relevant theories and research supporting current human resource methods required learning in any educational leadership preparation program The following chapters take a more practitioner approach as main topics include recruiting hiring orientation mentoring leading and professional growth of teachers The differentiating factors between this text by Davis 2 the focus on building level HRD systems and 3 the thorough descriptions of available technology tools that can be utilized to improve HRD systems and heighten quality control through efficient data based decisions thereby impacting instructional capacity and student learning The case studies are relevant and relatable and offer practical strategies and techniques that can be easily implemented at the building or district level By Strength, We Are Still Here Crystal Gail Fraser, 2024-12-13 The first comprehensive study of Indian residential schools in the North In this ground breaking book Crystal Gail Fraser draws on Dinjii Zhuh Gwich in concepts of individual and collective strength to illuminate student experiences in northern residential schools revealing the many ways Indigenous communities resisted the institutionalization of their children After 1945 federal bureaucrats and politicians increasingly sought to assimilate Indigenous northerners who had remained comparatively outside of their control into broader Canadian society through policies that were designed to destroy Indigenous ways of life Foremost among these was an aggressive new schooling policy that mandated the construction of Grollier and Stringer Halls massive residential schools that opened in Inuvik in 1959 eleven years after a special joint committee of the House of Commons and the Senate recommended that all residential schools in Canada be closed By Strength We Are Still Here shares the lived experiences of Indigenous northerners from 1959 until 1982 when the territorial government published a comprehensive plan for educational reform Led by Survivor testimony Fraser shows the roles both students and their families played in disrupting state agendas including questioning and changing the system to protect their cultures and communities Centring the expertise of Knowledge Keepers By Strength We Are Still Here makes a crucial contribution to Indigenous research methodologies and to understandings of Canadian and Indigenous histories during the second half of the twentieth century Annual Report of the Commissioner of Education United States.
