Ripper Notes How The Newspapers Covered The Jack:

Ripper Notes Dan Norder, Wolf Vanderlinden, Stewart P. Evans, 2005 Ripper Notes How the Newspapers Covered the Jack the Ripper Murders is a collection of essays about press reports of the notorious Whitechapel serial killer as well as other related topics When the People Were in Terror by Norman Hastings republishes for the first time a comprehensive series of early 20th century articles about the impact the Whitechapel murders had on society from the police investigation of the crimes to the fear that gripped the public The Murder in Cartin s Court by Don Souden looks at how the early newspaper reports seriously bungled the facts of the death of Mary Jane Kelly the fifth and last of the canonical five Ripper victims The London Police The View from the Irish Press by Alan Sharp examines how journalists reacted to the police investigation concentrating on reports printed in Ireland Other contents include Stewart P Evans with new information on the legends that psychic Robert Lees solved the case Wolf Vanderlinden looking for the meaning behind several contemporary newspaper reports and several other short pieces Ripper Notes is a nonfiction anthology series covering all aspects of the Jack the Ripper case

The Mammoth Book of Jack the Ripper Maxim Jakubowski, 2008-04-24 Updated and expanded edition of the fullest ever collective investigation into Jack the Ripper and the Whitechapel Murders This volume collects not just all the key factual evidence but also 20 different arguments as to the identity of Jack the Ripper such as that advanced by Patricia Cornwell Contributions are from the world s leading Ripperologists including William Beadle Melvyn Fairclough Martin Fido Shirley Harrison James Tully and Colin Wilson The identity of Jack the Ripper has plagued professional historians criminologists writers and amateur enthusiasts The many suspects include Montague John Druitt Walter Sickert Aaron Kosminski Michael Ostrog William Henry Bury Dr Tumblety and James Maybrick The only certainty is that Ripperologist have not found an individual on whom they can all agree The essays are supported by a detailed chronology extensive bibliography and filmography

Jack the Ripper? Philip Jones, 2023-01-06 Readers are transported to Victorian London and introduced to Inspector Doyle a modern day detective with eternal life who discovers that he has been wrongly named as Jack the Ripper the Victorian serial killer Nobody wants that label at any time in history so with the aid of time travel he returns to the year 1888 in an attempt to clear his name Another complication for Inspector Doyle is that his modern day daughter Flora who he has left behind to travel back several centuries is becoming increasingly suspicious of her father s identity This is after making her way into his Shrewsbury study that she is forbidden to enter The only good thing about returning to 1888 is that Inspector Doyle is able to rekindle his relationship with daughter Alice and wife Eleanor who he had to leave behind all those centuries ago Alice can then only but marvel at her father s abilities to answer a question that only he knows the answer to because he has travelled into the future and back The story references many Victorian objects that have been meticulously researched and then used to tell a story that is only possible through time travel and a rather clever inventor who may or may not be still alive Many elements of the original Jack the Ripper case are also detailed as are the horrors of Whitechapel

Find out whether Inspector Doyle manages to clear his name by discovering who the real Jack the Ripper is and expect a twist at the end that involves both daughters and a Victorian book that unlike the rest of Inspector Doyle's objects is unable to exist in parallel between the two time zones

Shadow Pasts William D. Rubinstein, 2014-09-11 For many intelligent people the stuff of history does not consist of the kind of dry as dust investigations of diplomatic economic or political history that most university historians research and write about but the famous topics of history's mysteries who was Jack the Ripper Was there a conspiracy to kill President Kennedy Did Richard III murder the Princes in the Tower What are the mysteries of the ancient Pyramids Not only have a great many books and articles been written on these and similar topics by so called amateur historians but they have generated societies conferences newsletters and television programmes Many people who are not academic historians take a keen interest in these topics and have in some cases made themselves real experts on them with interesting theories of their own Despite all of this however these topics are virtually ignored by academic historians and can be treated with contempt In Shadow Pasts William D Rubinstein a well known and widely published history professor examines seven of the most famous and interesting topics which have been discussed debated examined and written about by amateur historians Each of these mysteries and the theories surrounding them are examined in detail with Professor Rubinstein presenting his own original and sometimes surprising conclusions about what really happened

Secret Commissions Stephen Donovan, Matthew Rubery, 2012-09-12 Lurid controversial and vulnerable to accusations of titillation or rabble rousing the works of Victorian investigative journalism collected here nonetheless brought unseen suffering into the light of day Even today their exposure has the power to shock As one investigator promised The Report of our Secret Commission will be read to day with a shuddering horror that will thrill throughout the world Secret Commissions brings together nineteen key documents of Victorian investigative journalism Their authors range from well known writers such as Charles Dickens Henry Mayhew and W T Stead to now forgotten names such as Hugh Shimmin Elizabeth Banks and Olive Malvery Collectively they show how unsparing descriptions of social injustice became regular features of English journalism long before the advent of American style muckraking The reports address topics as varied as child abuse animal cruelty juvenile prostitution sweat shops slums gypsies abortion infanticide and other controversial social issues The collection features detailed chapter introductions original illustrations a historical overview of investigative reporting in the nineteenth century press and suggestions for further reading

Ripper Notes Wolf Vanderlinden, John Hacker, 2004-06-15 Ripper Notes America Looks at Jack the Ripper is a collection of essays about the notorious Whitechapel serial killer and related topics It leads off with a newly discovered and never before republished 1892 interview with Assistant Commissioner Robert Anderson of Scotland Yard Anderson was a very important figure in the investigations and made statements later in life that the killer had been identified and put into an asylum This article is accompanied by a short analysis showing why that is unlikely Wolf Vanderlinden then gives an in depth look at the suspects in the 1891 death of prostitute Carrie Brown in

New York City a case long connected by many to the earlier string of Ripper killings in the East End of London This is followed by coverage of the 2004 U S Ripper Conference including essays by John Hacker Jack the Ripper and Technology Ripperology in the Twenty First Century and Stan Russo The Strange Case of Dr Hewitt which questions why some suspects are treated more seriously than they probably should be adapted from their presentations there A number of shorter pieces by various authors follows Ripper Notes is a nonfiction anthology series covering all aspects of the Jack the Ripper murder case
