Rising To The Light A Portrait Of Bruno Bettelheim:

Rising to the Light Theron Raines, 2002 In 1983 after years of trying to persuade Bruno Bettelheim to write his autobiography Theron Raines his friend and literary agent himself undertook to tell the life of the renowned but often controversial child psychologist With no thought of writing a conventional biography Raines began a series of interviews in which Bettelheim reflected at length upon the major moments triumphs crises and tragedies of his extraordinary life Rising to the Light is the fascinating synthesis of these encounters and of Raines's interviews with counselors teachers and former students from the world famous Orthogenic School Here is Bettelheim's sudden passage from a life of wealth and luxury in Vienna to the appalling brutality of Dachau and Buchenwald where his intellect helped him survive the horrific conditions that often broke down a prisoner's personality His understanding of the parallels between the extreme situation of a concentration camp prisoner and the inner world of a disturbed child would shape him as a therapist Here is his voyage from the Old World to the New and his professional ascent in Chicago where he developed a total therapeutic milieu for children unable to survive emotionally at home or in any other school Though he had no specialized training he was uniquely qualified by his uncanny insights into children and his deep Freudian and post Freudian convictions about human nature and behavior Based on his success as a clinician and teacher he would go on to become a best selling author But toward the end of a long life Bettelheim would succumb to a stroke and to a devastating depression intensified by his feelings of uselessness when he was no longer able to do the work that had been his daily salvation for so many decades Raines who visited him twice in his last weeks also gives us the days just before the puzzling suicide of this man who had endured and built so much Despite his demonstrably tireless commitment to children Bettelheim's reputation was blemished after his death by attacks on his writings and his unorthodox clinical methods in particular his use of physical discipline in the psychotherapeutic setting Raines's conversations with Bettelheim have much to tell us about this bitterly disputed aspect of his legacy and they reveal a complex man who had to explore the boundary between compassion and brutality Rising to the Light is a portrait of a great teacher it gives us a more direct line of sight into the Bettelheim enigma than any other book is likely to provide

Bettelheim David James Fisher, 2008 Wallerstein M D Emeritus Professor and former Chair Department of Psychiatry University of California San Francisco School of Medicine These sparkling personal essays on Bettelheim a pathbreaker of modern ego psychology who has been savagely attacked and deprecated since his death seventeen years ago restore the man and his work in historical clinical and human context for the contemporary clinician and informed reader Fisher has done a splendid job of bringing this complex fascinating figure to life Peter J Loewenberg Ph D Professor of History and Political Psychology University of California at Los Angeles former Director of Education New Center for Psychoanalysis in Los Angeles David James Fisher has written a moving personal portrait of Bruno Bettelheim as thinker writer and friend Lives and Letters Robert Gottlieb, 2011-04-26 The product of a lifetime immersed in the literary performing arts and entertainment

worlds Robert Gottlieb's Lives and Letters spotlights the work careers intimate lives and lasting achievements of a vast array of celebrated writers and performers in film theater and dance and some of the more curious iconic public figures of our times From the world of literature Charles Dickens James Thurber Judith Krantz John Steinbeck and Rudyard Kipling the controversies surrounding Bruno Bettelheim and Elia Kazan and Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings and her editor Maxwell Perkins From dance and theater Isadora Duncan and Margot Fonteyn Serge Diaghilev and George Balanchine Sarah Bernhardt and Eleonora Duse In Hollywood Bing Crosby and Judy Garland Douglas Fairbanks and Lillian Gish Tallulah Bankhead and Katharine Hepburn Mae West and Anna May Wong In New York Diana Vreeland the Trumps and Gottlieb's own take on the contretemps that followed his replacing William Shawn at The New Yorker And so much more

Autism and Representation Mark Osteen, 2010-04-26 This volume the first scholarly book on autism and the humanities brings scholars from several different disciplines together with adults on the autism spectrum to investigate the diverse ways that autism has been represented in novels poems autobiographies films and clinical discourses and to explore the connections and demarcations between autistic and normal creative expression

Autism Spectrum Disorder in the Canadian Context Kimberly Maich, Sharon C. Penney, Kelly Alves, Carmen Hall, 2020-10-08 With a unique focus on Canada wide practices and research this text offers a comprehensive introduction to autism spectrum disorder ASD Covering the clinical educational and community perspectives of ASD the authors highlight how educators direct support professionals and communities at large can support people with ASD across their lifespan from early years to school years to adulthood Additionally the authors emphasize the emerging nature of the field and the importance of evidence based interventions The resource is divided into four thematic sections Section one gives an overview of ASD including prominent researchers in the field and changes in its diagnostic criteria Section two looks at evidence based interventions and the newer sensory theories and frameworks The third section examines ASD across the lifespan as well as the experiences of parents and families The final section looks at additional critical issues including media sexuality peer relationships and immigration Beyond being a vital asset for ASD programs and resource centres across the country Autism Spectrum Disorder in the Canadian Context has broad applications suitable for courses on ASD in behavioural science education and health studies programs

FEATURES Each chapter features figures definitions examples and questions designed to deepen understanding and elicit reflection Includes feature boxes with interesting perspectives provided by varied members of Canada's ASD community Unlike other textbooks on ASD this text focuses on ASD across the lifespan covering infancy early childhood and school years as well as adulthood in the Canadian context

Autism Spectrum Disorder in the Ontario Context Kimberly Maich, Carmen Hall, 2016-08-01 Autism Spectrum Disorder in the Ontario Context is the first book to offer a thorough introduction to Autism Spectrum Disorder ASD in Ontario Highlighting examples research and interventions specific to Ontario this manual provides an abundance of information in one central location making it an indispensable tool for any Ontario professional working with individuals with ASD This comprehensive text begins with a brief history of ASD and an overview of its contemporary understandings including current diagnostic criteria Covering a range of evidence based interventions that have been shown to be effective for individuals with ASD and supplemented with graphics checklists and hands on strategies for application this book provides essential information to inform practitioners The concluding section on ASD across the lifespan explores how these interventions are delivered within agencies throughout Ontario from preschool through to adulthood and addresses relevant issues and topics for each age group Featuring chapter summaries definitions of key terms lists of further resources and reflective questions this highly accessible and pedagogically rich text is vital reading not only for current and future practitioners but also for parents of children with ASD

Intelligent Love Marga Vicedo, 2021-03-23 Winner of the History of Science Society's 2022 Davis Prize How one mother challenged the medical establishment and misconceptions about autistic children and their parents In the early 1960s Massachusetts writer and homemaker Clara Park and her husband took their 3 year old daughter Jessy to a specialist after noticing that she avoided connection with others Following the conventional wisdom of the time the psychiatrist diagnosed Jessy with autism and blamed Clara for Jessy's isolation Experts claimed Clara was the prototypical refrigerator mother a cold intellectual parent who starved her children of the natural affection they needed to develop properly Refusing to accept this Clara decided to document her daughter's behaviors and the family's engagement with her In 1967 she published her groundbreaking memoir challenging the refrigerator mother theory and carefully documenting Jessy's development Clara's insights and advocacy encouraged other parents to seek education and support for their autistic children Meanwhile Jessy would work hard to expand her mother's world and ours Drawing on previously unexamined archival sources and firsthand interviews science historian Marga Vicedo illuminates the story of how Clara Park and other parents fought against medical and popular attitudes toward autism while presenting a rich account of major scientific developments in the history of autism in the US Intelligent Love is a fierce defense of a mother's right to love intelligently the value of parents' firsthand knowledge about their children and an individual's right to be valued by society

Twin Allen Shawn, 2010-12-30 A heartbreaking yet deeply hopeful memoir about life as a twin in the face of autism When Allen Shawn and his twin sister Mary were two Mary began exhibiting signs of what would be diagnosed many years later as autism Understanding Mary and making her life a happy one appeared to be impossible for the Shawns At the age of eight with almost no warning her parents sent Mary to a residential treatment center She never lived at home again Fifty years later as he probed the sources of his anxieties in Wish I Could Be There Shawn realized that his fate was inextricably linked to his sister's and that their natures were far from being different Twin highlights the difficulties American families coping with autism faced in the 1950s Shawn also examines the secrets and family dramas as his father William became editor of The New Yorker Twin reconstructs a parallel narrative for the two siblings who experienced such divergent fates yet shared talents and proclivities Wrenching honest understated and poetic

Twin is at heart about the mystery of being inextricably bonded to someone who can never be truly understood Autism in the Ontario Context, Second Edition Kimberly Maich, Brianna M. Anderson, Carmen Hall, 2024-08-29 Autism in the Ontario Context Second Edition provides a thoroughly updated perspective on the history of autism in the province of Ontario as well as the contemporary understandings strategies and best practices that influence effective intervention and support approaches Drawing on evidence based practices and interventions Kimberly Maich Brianna Anderson and Carmen Hall provide concrete examples of localized research and practice within clinical educational and community based settings that will enhance student comprehension of positive strategies This introductory text features detailed examinations of autism related experiences across the lifespan and incorporates an extensive range of pedagogical tools that encourage reflection and deepen understanding Important updates include expanded discussions on siblings and extended family members co morbid conditions support in childcare centres sensory needs and transition support Content has also been updated to reflect current government funded services diagnostic terminology and shifts in language and includes expanded discussion of programming changes and updated reports and statistics This fundamental second edition is accessible engaging and well suited to college and university programs in Ontario focusing on child and youth care social work and education Courses may focus on autism spectrum disorder developmental disabilities behavioural science and teaching exceptional learners In a Different Key John Donvan, Caren Zucker, 2016-01-19 PULITZER PRIZE FINALIST NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Sweeping in scope but with intimate personal stories this is a deeply moving book about the history science and human drama of autism Walter Isaacson 1 New York Times bestselling author of The Code Breaker Remarkable A riveting tale about how a seemingly rare childhood disorder became a salient fixture in our cultural landscape The Wall Street Journal Ten Best Nonfiction Books of the Year The inspiration for the PBS documentary In a Different Key In 1938 Donald Triplett of Forest Mississippi became the first child diagnosed with autism Beginning with his family s odyssey In a Different Key tells the extraordinary story of this often misunderstood condition from the civil rights battles waged by the families of those who have it to the fierce debates among scientists over how to define and treat it Unfolding over decades In a Different Key is a beautifully rendered history of people determined to secure a place in the world for those with autism by liberating children from dank institutions campaigning for their right to go to school challenging expert opinion on what it means to have autism and persuading society to accept those who are different This is also a story of fierce controversies from the question of whether there is truly an autism epidemic and whether vaccines played a part in it to scandals involving facilitated communication one of many unsuccessful treatments to stark disagreements about whether scientists should pursue a cure for autism to compelling evidence that Hans Asperger discoverer of the syndrome named after him participated in the Nazi program that consigned disabled children to death By turns intimate and panoramic In a Different Key takes us on a journey from an era when families were shamed and children were condemned to institutions to one in which a cadre of people with autism push not simply for inclusion but for a new understanding of autism as difference rather than disability
