Aminah Mae Safi, 2022-03-01 Winner of the 2022 Middle East Book Award in Youth Literature In the Remixed Classics series authors from marginalized backgrounds reinterpret classic works through their own cultural lens to subvert the overwhelming cis het white and male canon This thrilling female led Robin Hood Remix reframes the legend's tales of the Third Crusade from a Muslim perspective rewriting its origin's male and overwhelmingly white Euro centric narrative Jerusalem 1192 The Third Crusade rages on Rahma al Hud loyally followed her elder sister Zeena into the war over the Holy Land but now that the Faranji invaders have gotten reinforcements from Richard the Lionheart all she wants to do is get herself and her sister home alive But Zeena a soldier of honor at heart refuses to give up the fight while Jerusalem remains in danger of falling back into the hands of the false Queen Isabella And so Rahma has no choice but to take on one final mission with her sister On their journey to Jerusalem Rahma and Zeena come across a motley collection of fellow travelers including a kind hearted Mongolian warrior an eccentric Andalusian scientist a frustratingly handsome spy with a connection to Rahma's childhood and an unfortunate English chaplain abandoned behind enemy lines The teens all find solace purpose and camaraderie as well as a healthy bit of mischief in each other's company But their travels soon bring them into the orbit of Queen Isabella herself whose plans to re seize power in Jerusalem would only guarantee further war and strife in the Holy Land for years to come And so it falls to the merry band of misfits to use every scrap of cunning and wit and not a small amount of thievery to foil the usurper queen and perhaps finally restore peace to the land Praise for Travelers Along the Way Rousing Wholly original in its cultural perspective and its centering of strong female characters By creating an almost all female cast Safi makes women the heart of her story at a time when they were seen as a bargaining chip Shelf Awareness starred review If you love heists found family and stealing from the rich and giving to the poor then put Aminah Mae Safi's heartfelt and humorous take on Robin Hood at the very top of your TBR Jodi Meadows New York Times bestselling co author of My Lady Jane The Remixed Classics Series A Clash of Steel A Treasure Island Remix by C B Lee So Many Beginnings A Little Women Remix by Bethany C Morrow Travelers Along the Way A Robin Hood Remix by Aminah Mae Safi What Souls Are Made Of A Wuthering Heights Remix by Tasha Suri Self Made Boys A Great Gatsby Remix by Anna Marie McLemore My Dear Henry A Jekyll Hyde Remix by Kalynn Bayron Teach the Torches to Burn A Romeo Juliet Remix by Caleb Roehrig Into the Bright Open A Secret Garden Remix by Cherie Dimaline Most Ardent A Pride Prejudice Remix by Gabe Cole Novoa essays in Home Words explore the complexity of the idea of home through various theoretical lenses and groupings of texts. One focus of this collection is the relation between the discourses of nation which often represent the nation as home and the discourses of home in children's literature which variously picture home as a dwelling family town or region psychological comfort and a place to start from and return to. These essays consider the myriad ways in which discourses of home underwrite both children's and national literatures. Home Words reconfigures the field of Canadian children's literature as it is usually represented by setting the study of English and French language texts side by side and by paying sustained attention to the diversity of work by Canadian writers for children including both Aboriginal peoples and racialized Canadians. It builds on the literary histories bibliographical essays and biographical criticism that have dominated the scholarship to date and sets out to determine and establish new directions for the study of Canadian children's literature.

Harnessing the Technicolor Rainbow Scott Higgins, 2009-02-17 Like Dorothy waking up over the rainbow in the Land of Oz, Hollywood discovered a vivid new world of color in the 1930s. The introduction of three color Technicolor technology in 1932 gave filmmakers a powerful tool with which to guide viewers' attention, punctuate turning points and express emotional subtext. Although many producers and filmmakers initially resisted the use of color, Technicolor designers led by the legendary Natalie Kalmus developed an aesthetic that complemented the classical Hollywood filmmaking style while still offering innovative novelty. By the end of the 1930s, color in film was thoroughly harnessed to narrative and it became elegantly expressive without threatening the coherence of the film's imaginary world. Harnessing the Technicolor Rainbow is the first scholarly history of Technicolor aesthetics and technology as well as a thoroughgoing analysis of how color works in film. Scott Higgins draws on extensive primary research and close analysis of well-known movies including Becky Sharp, A Star Is Born, Adventures of Robin Hood and Gone with the Wind to show how the Technicolor films of the 1930s forged enduring conventions for handling color in popular cinema. He argues that filmmakers and designers rapidly worked through a series of stylistic modes based on the demonstration, restraint and integration of color and shows how the color conventions developed in the 1930s have continued to influence filmmaking to the present day. Higgins also formulates a new vocabulary and a method of analysis for capturing the often elusive functions and effects of color that in turn open new avenues for the study of film form and lay a foundation for new work on color in cinema.
