Rochester Labor Leisure:

Rochester Donovan A. Shilling, 2002 Contemporary illustrations of Rochester N Y chiefly from about 1880 to about 1950 picturing the city's industries and their products and how the workers spent some of their leisure time Rochester's Transportation Heritage Donovan A. Shilling, 2003 A city's rich transportation history comes alive in Rochester's Transportation Heritage Here the evolution of transportation in Rochester is documented in vintage images from the 1890s through the 1950s Included are photographs of Charles Lindbergh's visit to Rochester images of the earliest locomotives and grand railroad stations a picture of a trotting mare racing a lady bicyclist at the old Driving Park racetrack views of boats on the Erie Canal and shots of the city's first airplanes Rochester's Transportation Heritage revives the horse drawn trolley car days and the lost subway era Rare images of the Regas auto and the cars that were destroyed by Rochester's 1932 tornado complete the story Rochester's Leaders and Their Legacies Donovan A. Shilling, 2005 Rochester owes much to those who made it the exceptional and unique city it has become Many of the civic commercial industrial and entertainment leaders who brought fame and prosperity to the city are saluted in Rochester Leaders and Their Legacies A gallery of rare photographs reveals the images of the founders and their legacies McCurdy's McFarlin's Edwards and Sibley's department stores important businesses and products and entertainment venues and memories Here are glimpses of the nursery industry Erie Canal trolley days downtown nightspots theater performers and recollections of unusual events from fires and floods to the huge Elks Street Fair of 1899 Recreation ,1910 Playground and Recreation ,1921 Annual Conference of Teachers in Workers' Education ,1925 How Boston Played Stephen Hardy, 2003 Whether consciously molding the city through the construction of public spaces or developing social ties through organizations such as athletic clubs Bostonians of all classes participated in recreation based community building often at cross purposes Elite Bostonians for instance promoted the establishment of parks as a healthy alternative to unsavory activities such as drinking and gambling that they associated with the city's vast new pool of immigrants They were soon forced to compromise however with citizens who were less interested in the rhetoric of moral uplift than in using the parks for competitive athletics and commercial amusements BOOK JACKET American Recreation Journal ,1961 The American Year Book ,1916 Present Tense Susan Kismaric, JoAnn Verburg, 2007 Through such formal devices as series and multipanel works JoAnn Verburg invigorates some of photography's common themes the portrait the landscape the domestic view Some of her work catches viewers off guard leaving them unsure where they stand in relationship to the scene being shown others play with the passage of time offering narratives that play out in either space or time or both or neither The intimate spaces of personal life are another of her ongoing themes as shown in a series featuring her husband the poet Jim Moore reading newspapers or books or sleeping The unguarded intimacy of the image strikes one note here the tension and reality of the current events featured on that day's newspaper strikes another reaching out of the work into the world expanding photography's space even further Whether taking pictures of artists swimmers trees or pyramids constructed from sand Verburg deftly pushes at the boundaries of the representation of time and space Eight Hours for What We Will Roy Rosenzweig,1983 Focusing on the city of Worcester Massachusetts the author takes the reader to the saloons the amusement parks and the movie houses where American industrial workers spent their leisure hours to explore the nature of working class culture and class relations during this era The Leisure of a People Eugene Theodore Lies,Council of social agencies, Indianapolis,1929 The Garment Worker ,1914 The Playground ,1926 Comprehensive Dissertation Index: Business & economics, L-Z ,1984 The Survey ,1915 Yearbook, Park and Recreation Progress ,1938 America's Forgotten Holiday Donna T. Haverty-Stacke,2009 Though now a largely forgotten holiday in the United States May Day was founded here in 1886 by an energized labor movement as a part of its struggle for the eight hour day In ensuing years May Day took on new meaning and by the early 1900s had become an annual rallying point for anarchists socialists and communists around the world Yet American workers and radicals also used May Day to advance alternative definitions of what it meant to be an American and what America should be as a nation Mining contemporary newspapers party and union records oral histories photographs and rare film footage America s Forgotten Holiday explains how May Days celebrants through their colorful parades and mass meetings both contributed to the construction of their own radical American identities and publicized alternative social and political models for the nation This fascinating story of May Day in America reveals how many contours of American nationalism developed in dialogue with political radicals and workers and uncovers the cultural history of those who considered themselves both patriotic and dissenting Americans Singing ,1926 Recreation Today Richard G. Kraus,1977
