Rodchenko The Complete Work:

Rodchenko Selim Omarovich Khan-Magomedov, 1987 The Russian Constructivist Aleksandr Rodchenko 1891 1936 cannot be categorized by any one of his remarkable activities His prodigious career in photography graphic design industrial design painting stage set and theater design fashion and costume design and architecture is at last given its full recognition in this splendidly illustrated and exhaustive study of the complete range of his work Rodchenko's artistic production is considered against the complex background of the political social personal and artistic circumstances of the period from the beginning of his studies at the Art School of Kazan to his encounter with Mayakovsky and the Futurists from the famous Moscow Exhibitions where Rodchenko took part in the founding phase of abstract art to the arguments with Kandinsky over cultural supremacy with the Institute of Artistic Culture INCHUK and the definitive embracing of Constructivism Among the book's unusual contributions is the serious consideration given to Rodchenko's architectural projects and its generous treatment of unknown documents newspaper reports commentaries debates articles letters of the time These give a lively sense of what was actually happening in Moscow art circles during the crucial formative years of the avant garde movement The visual material is particularly stunning Five hundred illustrations many in full color are taken from Russian archives or from Rodchenko's private archive now owned by his nephew The author Selim Omarovich Khan Magomedov is a Soviet architectural historian and critic who has achieved an enviable record of championing the rehabilitation of modern Soviet architecture from the 1920s He almost single handedly launched the bold campaign in 1962 to revive the historical legacy of Soviet modernism Magomedov's studies of modern Soviet architecture institutions and personalities represent an impressive body of work in the face of formidable odds and official resistance and they are highly regarded in the West

The Soviet Photograph, 1924-1937 Margarita Tupitsyn, 1996-01-01 Tupitsyn challenges the view that the Soviet avant garde peaked in the 1920s and was subsequently forced to conform with Bolshevik politics Instead she asserts that photography during this period represented the last great experiment in the search for the most effective ways to connect art radical politics and the masses Investigating the means by which the new visual tools for disseminating revolutionary messages were adapted to the needs of Stalinist propaganda Tupitsyn relates major examples of single frame photography and photomontage to such events as the implementation of the New Economic Policy Lenin's death and Stalin's first and second Five Year Plans and to mounting censorship of the arts She also establishes a link between the writings of critics and the development of photography and photomontage at this time The book presents previously unpublished material from Klutis's letters Rodchenko's public lectures Lissitzky's late writings on the mass media and Kulagina's personal diaries as well as many previously unknown photographs

Varvara Stepanova, the Complete Work Aleksandr Nikolaevich Lavrent'ev, Varvara Fedorovna Stepanova, 1988 In this first extensive study of her life and work Varvara Stepanova 1894 1958 emerges as a remarkable artist whose versatility energy and contribution to the Russian avant garde matched and in some cases exceeded that of her husband Alexander Rodchenko The book is written and designed by Aleksander Lavrentiev who is the grandson of Rodchenko and Stepanova and the curator of their archive Lavrentiev's text is accompanied by excerpts from Stepanova's own diary with its fresh insights and lively commentary on Soviet art and a memoir by her daughter But the real discovery is the 370 illustrations 45 in color nearly all of which are published here for the first time which reveal an artist startling in her accomplishments Like Rodchenko Stepanova was among the founders of Constructivism a contributor to the famous Moscow 5 x 5 25 exhibition held in 1921 and significant in shaping Russian's visual culture during the turbulent years following the revolution Lavrentiev covers every aspect of Stepanova's production against the complex background of the period The comments in the little oilskin notebook that she kept almost continuously during the 1920s keenly revive the events of the time the illustrations allow us to discover and enjoy the wide range of Stepanova's talents as expressed in paintings and geometric constructions sets and costumes fashion designs posters and typography John Bowlton who has edited the text and written a critical introduction to the book is a leading authority and well known writer on Russian art and culture He is Director of the Institute of Modern Russian Culture at the University of Southern California

Gan's Constructivism Kristin Romberg, 2019-01-08 This compelling new account of Russian constructivism repositions the agitator Aleksei Gan as the movement's chief protagonist and theorist Primarily a political organizer during the revolution and early Soviet period Gan brought to the constructivist project an intimate acquaintance with the nuts and bolts of making revolution Writing slogans organizing amateur performances and producing mass media objects define an alternative conception of the work of art no longer an autonomous object but a labor process through which solidarities are built In an expansive analysis touching on aesthetic and architectural theory the history of science and design sociology and feminist and political theory Kristin Romberg invites us to consider a version of modernism organized around the radical flattening of hierarchies a broad distribution of authorship and the negotiation of constraints and dependencies Moving beyond Cold War abstractions Gan's Constructivism offers a fine grained understanding of what it means for an aesthetics to be political

Architectural Theory, Volume 2 Harry Francis Mallgrave, Christina Contandriopoulos, 2008-08-11 This second volume of the landmark Architectural Theory anthology surveys the development of architectural theory from the Franco Prussian war of 1871 until the end of the twentieth century The entire two volume anthology follows the full range of architectural literature from classical times to present transformations An ambitious anthology bringing together over 300 classic and contemporary essays that survey the key developments and trends in architecture Spans the period from 1871 to 2005 from John Ruskin and the arts and crafts movement in Great Britain through to the development of Lingang New City and the creation of a metropolis in the East China sea Organized thematically featuring general and section introductions and headnotes to each essay written by a renowned expert on architectural theory Places the work of architects like Koolhaas Eisenman and Lynn alongside the work of prominent architectural critics offering a balanced perspective on current debates Includes many hard to find texts and works never previously translated into English Alongside Volume I An Anthology from Vitruvius to 1870 creates a stunning overview of architectural theory from early antiquity to the twenty first century Landscapes of Memory and Experience Jan Birksted,2012-12-06 It has been argued that the history of landscape and of gardens has been marginalized from the mainstream of art history and visual studies because of a lack of engagement with the theories methods and concepts of these disciplines This book explores possible ways out of this impasse in such a way that landscape studies would become pivotal through its theoretical advances since landscape studies would challenge the underlying assumptions of traditional phenomenological theory Thus the history and theory of twentieth century landscape might not only once again share concepts and methods with contemporary art and design history but might in turn influence them A complementary sequel to Relating Architecture to Landscape this volume of essays explores further areas of interest and discussion in the landscape architecture debate and offers contributions from a team of well known researchers teachers and writers The choice of topics is wide ranging and features case studies of modern and contemporary schemes from the USA Far East and Australasia

Theatrical Costume, Masks, Make-Up and Wigs Sidney Jackson Jowers,2013-10-15 This is the first bibliography in its field based on first hand collations of the actual articles International in scope it includes publications found in public theatre libraries and archives of Barcelona Berlin Brussels Budapest Florence London Milan New York and Paris amongst others Over 3500 detailed entries on separately published sources such as books sales and exhibition catalogues and pamphlets provide an indispensable guide for theatre students practitioners and historians Indices cover designers productions actors and performers The iconography provides an indexed record of over 6000 printed plates of performers in role illustrating performance costume from the 18th to 20th century A Dictionary of the Avant-Gardes ,2013-05-13 A Dictionary of the Avant Gardes recognizes that change is a driving force in all the arts It covers major trends in music dance theater film visual art sculpture and performance art as well as architecture science and culture Blueprints and Blood Hugh D. Hudson, Jr.,2015-03-08 Analyzing totalitarianism from below in a crucial area of Soviet culture Hugh Hudson shows how Stalinist forces within the architectural community destroyed an avant garde movement of urban planners and architects who attempted to create a more humane built environment for the Soviet people Through a study of the ideas and constructions of these visionary reformers Hudson explores their efforts to build new forms of housing and settlements designed to free the residents especially women from drudgery allowing them to participate in creative work and to enjoy the songs of larks Resolving to obliterate this movement of human liberation Stalinists in the field of architecture unleashed a little terror from below prior to Stalin s Great Terror Using formerly secret Party archives made available by perestroika Hudson finds in the rediscovered theoretical work of the avant garde architects a new understanding of their aims He shows for instance how they saw the necessity of bringing elite desires for a transformed world into harmony with the people s wish to preserve national culture Such goals brought their often divided movement into conflict with the Stalinists especially on the subject of collectivization Hudson's provocative work offers evidence that in spite of the ultimate success of the Stalinists the Bolshevik Revolution was not monolithic at one time it offered real architectural and human alternatives to the Terror Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Pioneers of Modern Typography Herbert Spencer, 2004 A revised edition of the standard guide to the avant garde origins of modern graphic design and typography illustrated with many iconic examples

Revoliutsiia! Demonstratsiia! Matthew S. Witkovsky, Devin Fore, 2017-01-01 Groundbreaking new insight into a rich spectrum of early Soviet art and its spaces of display Published on the centenary of the Russian Revolution this landmark book gathers information from the forefront of current research in early Soviet art providing a new understanding of where art was presented who saw it and how the images incorporated and conveyed Soviet values More than 350 works are grouped into areas of critical importance for the production reception and circulation of early Soviet art battlegrounds schools the press theaters homes and storefronts factories festivals and exhibitions Paintings by El Lissitzky and Liubov Popova are joined by sculptures costumes and textiles decorative arts architectural models books magazines films and more Also included are rare and important artifacts among them a selection of illustrated children's notes by Joseph Stalin's daughter Svetlana Allilueva as well as reproductions of key exhibition spaces such as the legendary Obmokhu Constructivist exhibition in 1921 Aleksandr Rodchenko's Workers Club in 1925 and a Radio Orator kiosk for live projected and printed propaganda designed by Gustav Klutss in 1922 Bountifully illustrated this book offers an unprecedented cross disciplinary analysis of two momentous decades of Soviet visual culture

Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 1997 Expanded to twice as many entries as the 1985 edition and updated with new publications new editions of previous entries titles missed the first time around more of the artists own writings and monographs that deal with significant aspects or portions of an artist's work though not all of it The listing is alphabetical by artist and the index by author The works cited include analytical and critical biographical and enumerative their formats range from books and catalogues raisonnées to exhibition and auction sale catalogues A selection of biographical dictionaries containing information on artists is arranged by country Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
