Roissy Express A Journey Through The Paris Suburbs

Mimi Sheller, John Urry

Roissy Express A Journey Through The Paris Suburbs:

Roissy Express François Maspero, 1994 Accompanied by photographer Anaik Frantz François Maspero embarked on a journey along the RER the express subway which leads through the Paris suburbs Getting off the train at each stop he and Frantz present a picture of daily life in France which tourists seldom see a world where names don't make sense where immigrants from Burkino Faso live in run down tower blocks called Debussy on the avenue Karl Marx their children dodging the police between the lycée Jules Valles and the Yuri Gagarin youth club a world where there are still memories of the Commune the Popular Front or the camp at Drancy from where French officials sent a hundred thousand Jews to Auschwitz a world where no one is a racist but National Front posters are everywhere Maspero's aim is to put this world back on the map

Keywords for Travel Writing Studies Charles Forsdick, Zoë Kinsley, Kathryn Walchester, 2019-04-22 Keywords for Travel Writing Studies draws on the notion of the keyword as initially elaborated by Raymond Williams in his seminal 1976 text Keywords A Vocabulary of Culture and Society to present 100 concepts central to the study of travel writing as a literary form Each entry in the volume is around 1 000 words the style more essayistic than encyclopaedic with contributors reflecting on their chosen keyword from a variety of disciplinary perspectives The emphasis on travelogues and other cultural representations of mobility drawn from a range of national and linguistic traditions ensures that the volume has a comparative dimension the aim is to give an overview of each term in its historical and theoretical complexity providing readers with a clear sense of how the selected words are essential to a critical understanding of travel writing Each entry is complemented by an annotated bibliography of five essential items suggesting further reading

Tourism Mobilities Mimi Sheller, John Urry, 2004 As places around the world are being interpreted and made fit for tourist consumption this fascinating book analyzes tourist performances and studies why and indeed how some places become global centres whilst others don't

City Worlds John Allen, Doreen Massey, Steve Pile, 2005-06-23 For the first time in history half of the world's population is living in mega cities Never before have we confronted such a geography of the world's people Analysing cities through spatial understanding City Worlds explores how different worlds within the city are brought into close proximity The authors outline

new ways to address the ambiguities of cities their promise and potential their problems and threats City Worlds Doreen B. Massey, John Allen, Steve Pile, 1999 Analysing cities through spatial understanding this book explores how different worlds within the city are brought into close proximity and outlines new ways to address some of the ambiguities of cities their promise potential and problems Airspaces David Pascoe, 2004-08-01 As mass air transport shrinks the world and requires airport complexes large enough to be regarded as self contained cities this book argues that airspace that transitional area stretching from terminal to terminal across time zones or between the check in desk and the baggage carousel must be regarded as a discrete destination on any map of our age At the hub of this exclusive enclave which rises from the runway to an altitude of several thousand feet and which calmly accommodates the dangers of take off and landing procedures lies the airport the concrete manifestation of airspace The airport is a locale of anxiety and chance where in order to expedite air traffic authority is absolute time is relative and liberties are always taken David Pascoe s wide ranging book blends personal observation with detailed discussions of social history air accidents landscape architecture politics aesthetics literature and film to provide a striking account of the airport as a unique space and singular form of modernity a place fundamental to any accurate sense of what we are now and where we are going eclectic and intelligent a thought provoking analysis Financial Times the scope of Mr Pascoe s rumination is impressive The Economist France Emile Chabal, 2020-10-06 France is the most visited country in the world It attracts millions of tourists most of whom come in search of beautiful architecture good food and fine art But appearances can be deceptive France is not only a place of culture and glamour it also carries the bitter memories of violence division and broken promises In this arresting book Emile Chabal a leading specialist of contemporary France tells the story of a paradoxical country From the calamitous defeat by Hitler s armies in 1940 to the spectacular gilets jaunes protests he explores the contradictions that have shaped French history over the last eighty years The picture that emerges is one of a nation struggling to reconcile its core political values with the realities of a diverse society Listen to the author talk about the book with Roxanne Panchasi on the New Books Network Podcast Post-Suburban Europe Nicholas A. Phelps, N. Parsons, Dimitris Ballas, Andrew Dowling, 2006-07-28 The term edge city describes the rapid growth of urban centres at the edge of established cities Widely discussed in the US very little has been written about European edge cities This book gives a comparative analysis of examples in Greece Spain Paris Finland and the UK with a theoretical analysis of edge cities and post suburban Europe The Routledge Companion to Travel Writing Carl Thompson, 2015-12-22 As many places around the world confront issues of globalization migration and postcoloniality travel writing has become a serious genre of study reflecting some of the greatest concerns of our time Encompassing forms as diverse as field journals investigative reports guidebooks memoirs comic sketches and lyrical reveries travel writing is now a crucial focus for discussion across many subjects within the humanities and social sciences An ideal starting point for beginners but also offering new perspectives for those familiar with the field The Routledge

Companion to Travel Writing examines Key debates within the field including postcolonial studies gender sexuality and visual culture Historical and cultural contexts tracing the evolution of travel writing across time and over cultures Different styles modes and themes of travel writing from pilgrimage to tourism Imagined geographies and the relationship between travel writing and the social ideological and occasionally fictional constructs through which we view the different regions of the world Covering all of the major topics and debates this is an essential overview of the field which will also encourage new and exciting directions for study Contributors Simon Bainbridge Anthony Bale Shobhana Bhattacharji D nlaith Bird Elizabeth A Bohls Wendy Bracewell Kylie Cardell Daniel Carey Janice Cavell Simon Cooke Matthew Day Kate Douglas Justin D Edwards David Farley Charles Forsdick Corinne Fowler Laura E Franey Rune Graulund Justine Greenwood James M Hargett Jennifer Hayward Eva Johanna Holmberg Graham Huggan William Hutton Robin Jarvis Tabish Khair Zo Kinsley Barbara Korte Julia Kuehn Scott Laderman Claire Lindsay Churnjeet Mahn Nabil Matar Steve Mentz Laura Nenzi Aed n N Loingsigh Manfred Pfister Susan L Roberson Paul Smethurst Carl Thompson C W Thompson Margaret Topping Richard White Gregory Woods

Thinking Space Mike Crang, Nigel Thrift, 2002-09-11 As theorists have begun using geographical concepts and metaphors to think about the complex and differentiated world it is important to reflect on their work and its impact on our thoughts on space This revealing book explores the work of a wide range of prolific social theorists Included contributions from an impressive range of renowned geographical writers each examine the work of one writer ranging from early this century to contemporary writers Among the writers discussed are Georg Simmel Mikhail Bakhtin Gilles Deleuze Helene Cixous Henri Lefebvre Jacques Lacan Pierre Bourdieu Michel Foucault and Franz Fanon Ideal for those interested in the spatial turn in social and cultural theory this fascinating book asks what role space plays in the work of such theorists what difference if any it makes to their concepts and what difference such an appreciation makes to the way we might think about space New Europe Donald McNeill, 2014-05-12 New Europe Imagined Spaces traces the radical transformation of European places and spaces over the last two decades Instead of the familiar schoolbook map of a Europe of nation states the book unpacks the differing imaginations of European identity in recent years Taking as its central problem the fluid nature of cultural and political identity it moves firmly away from and calls into question the perspective of the nation state as the primary source of imagined identity for Europeans The book contributes to key debates such as the emerging Europe of the Regions and the return of the city state examines the rebranding of the nation state and explores the impact of Europeanisation on existing place identity Emphasising mobility and movement the chapters explore borderlands and travel and also include a detailed discussion of the everyday life of Europeans Throughout iconic images of contemporary Europe are invoked Eurodisney the Reichstag Barcelona s Ramblas and the Bilbao Guggenheim and the way in which mundane artefacts and practices such as football walking cars food passports and the Euro help construct identity is considered New Europe Imagined Spaces adopts a multidisciplinary approach to studying Europe providing students with an exploration of contemporary European space and place identity Unsettling Cities John Allen, Doreen Massey, Michael Pryke, 2005-08-12 This text examines the global nature of cities whose openness has shaped their dynamism and character It explores cities as sites of movement migration and settlement where different peoples cultures and environments combine Unsettling Cities explores the mix of proximity and difference that exists in the rich and diverse texture of city life The contributors reveal the association between the changing fortunes of cities and the power and influence of global networks Paralyses John Culbert, 2011-01-01 Modernity has long been equated with motion travel and change from Marx's critical diagnoses of economic instability to the Futurists glorification of speed Likewise metaphors of travel serve widely in discussions of empire cultural contact translation and globalization from Deleuze's nomadology to James Clifford's traveling cultures John Culbert in contrast argues that the key texts of modernity and postmodernity may be approached through figures and narratives of paralysis motion is no more defining of modern travel than fixations resistance and impasse concepts and figures of travel he posits must be rethought in this more static light Focusing on the French and Francophone context in which paralyzed travel is a persistent motif Culbert also offers new insights into French critical theory and its often paradoxical figures of mobility from Blanchot's spas au delà and Barthes's derivato to Derrida's aporias and Glissant's diversions Here we see that paralysis is not merely the failure of transport but rather the condition in which travel by coming to a crisis calls into question both mobility and stasis in the language of desire and the order of knowledge Paralyses provides a close analysis of the rhetoric of empire and the economy of tourism precisely at their points of breakdown which in turn enables a deconstruction of master narratives of exploration conquest and exoticism A reassessment of key authors of French modernity from Nerval and Gautier to Fromentin Paulhan Beckett Leiris and Boudjedra Paralyses also constitutes a new theoretical intervention in debates on travel translation ethics and postcoloniality The New Imperial Histories Reader Stephen Howe, 2020-07-24 In recent years imperial history has experienced a newfound vigour dynamism and diversity There has been an explosion of new work in the field which has been driven into even greater prominence by contemporary world events However this resurgence has brought with it disputes between those who are labelled as exponents of a new imperial history and those who can by default be termed old imperial historians This collection not only gathers together some of the most important influential and controversial work which has come to be labelled new imperial history but also presents key examples of innovative recent writing across the broader fields of imperial and colonial studies This book is the perfect companion for any student interested in empires and global history Mobile Methods Monika Büscher, John Urry, Katian Witchger, 2010-09-13 In the twenty first century more than ever everything and everybody seems to be on the move Global flows of people goods food money information services and media images are forming an intensely mobile background to everyday life Social scientists too are on the move seeking new analytical purchase on these important aspects of the social world by trying to move with and to be moved by the fleeting distributed multiple non causal sensory emotional and kinaesthetic Mobile Methods addresses the challenges and opportunities of researching mobile phenomena Drawing on extensive interdisciplinary discussion the book brings together a collection of cutting edge methodological innovations and original research reports to examine some important implications of the mobilities turn for the processes of research and the realm of the empirical Through analysis that addresses questions such as how are social relationships and social institutions made in and through mobility and how do people experience mobility in twenty first century world cities the authors mobilize sociological analysis bringing new insights and opening up new opportunities for engagement with contemporary challenges This book is a key text for undergraduate and postgraduate students of disciplines including Human Geography Social Policy Sociology and Research Methods

Spatial Ecologies Verena Andermatt Conley, 2012-01-01 Spatial Ecologies asks why French cultural and critical theory since 1968 has turned from investigating questions of time to examining space Verena Conley ranges over the work of Henri Lefebvre Michel de Certeau Jean Baudrillard Marc Auge Paul Virilio Bruno Latour and Etienne Balibar to analyze how they reconsidered the experience of space in the midst of political and economic turmoil and to find out what writing about space can tell us about life in late capitalism Conley links this question to Heidegger's concept of habitability and shows how this concept of space informs much of French theory

Postcolonial minorities in Britain and France Shailja Sharma, 2016-11-26 This book compares the postcolonial populations of Britain and France examining the ways in which they are redefining citizenship Bearing in mind the different histories and political systems of each country it considers questions of national identity values the place of religion secularism and public spaces all integral to determining what makes a country a true nation Recent security threats have made the debate around minorities and assimilation all the more pressing and this book delves deep into the issues of feminism Islam and group identities It will be of interest to students and scholars of race religion and migration studies

Thomas Hirschhorn Lisa Lee, 2025-09-30 A groundbreaking study of the crossover relationship between art and graphic design in the work of widely acclaimed artist Thomas Hirschhorn b 1957 Drawing extensively from unknown or little known works and previously unpublished documents from the artist's archive Thomas Hirschhorn from Graphic Design to Art explores the formative decade of 1984 to 1994 It tells the story of Hirschhorn's initial commitment to the print medium with its basis in mass culture and distribution as a vehicle for his political energies Lisa Lee analyzes for the first time in Hirschhorn scholarship his works of self commissioned graphic design which combine rudimentary collage and diagrammatic languages to assert an essential publicness She describes Hirschhorn's growing disenchantment with the practical and political limitations of graphic design and simultaneously his realization that artmaking with its freedoms and attendant responsibilities was the only framework in which to realize his political ambitions Finally and crucially the book offers original interpretations of Hirschhorn's dedicated reinvention of composition exhibition and dissemination of artworks to better embody his utopian desire to intervene in the world Lee shows that nearly all the artistic strategies we associate with Hirschhorn were first articulated in this formative decade the use of quotidian materials

the appropriation of vernacular forms the processing of mass circulated images an embrace of quantity and an emphasis on urban peripheries

Migration in Comparative Perspective Margaret Byron, Stéphanie Condon, 2008-01-07 This book presents a comparative perspective on post war Caribbean migration to Britain and France Both migrations were responses to the link between former colonies and colonial powers However the movements of labor occurred within separately and differently evolving political contexts affecting the migration outcomes Today Caribbean communities in Europe display complex features of continuity and change Condon and Byron examine trends in migration patterns household and family structures social fields employment and housing trajectories in detail This systematic comparison with its innovative focus on gender and life course is an excellent addition to the existing literature on the Caribbean diaspora
