Lee Miller's Surrealist Eye Lynn Hilditch, 2022-11-14 American born artist Lee Miller 1907-1977 has been increasingly championed by scholars and curators for her Surrealism inspired photographs Her captivating images of Paris in the late 1920s and early 1930s her dreamlike portraits of desert landscapes and sexually suggestive architecture taken in Egypt in the mid 1930s and her witty yet often disturbing photographs of the Second World War and its aftermath have been widely discussed However while popular interest in Miller's colourful life and photographic work has been rapidly growing during the past forty years her true worth as a prominent Surrealist artist has been somewhat overlooked This new collection of essays addresses this issue revalidating Lee Miller's Surrealist position not simply as a muse friend and collaborator with the Surrealists but as one of the twentieth century's most important and influential female Surrealist artists
