Blair, Labour, and Palestine Toby Greene,2013-07-18 Many of Tony Blair s policy decisions in the Israeli Palestinian arena were controversial and politically costly Blair Labour and Palestine argues that gaps between him and much of his party were rooted in different world views A positive attitude towards Israel came to be seen as a defining mark of New Labour loyalists However contrasting views among left leaning strands in the party reflected a broader set of ideological rifts Such differences became increasingly significant in the wake of 9 11 as British policymakers sought to understand and respond to Islamic anger against the West Based on interviews conducted by the author and on previously unseen documents this unique case study shows how the distinctive world view of a political leader defined foreign policy by shaping Britain s response to Islamist violence and its interconnected approach to the Israeli Palestinian conflict Author Toby Greene also examines the extent to which ministers and officials considered shifting foreign policy in response to fears of Islamist radicalisation in the UK and Blair s role in stopping this trend especially after the 7 7 bombings

Israeli Historical Revisionism Derek J. Penslar,Anita Shapira,2013-10-31 The essays in this volume by leading scholars from within and outside Israel shed new light on the Israeli historians controversy of the creation of the State of Israel the 1948 War and its aftermath Israel s attitude towards Holocaust survivors the melting pot absorption policy and similar subjects The attack on Zionist historiography which initially came from what is dubbed the post Zionist radical left has recently broadened to include a critique from the right These essays cover diverse aspects of the critique exploring its historiographical political sociological and educational ramifications

Political Conflict and Exclusion in Jerusalem Rawan Nuseibeh,2015-10-08 The political conflict over the city of Jerusalem has resulted in the breach of Palestinian Jerusalemites civil political and social rights While Israel claims sovereignty over East Jerusalem it neglects to provide adequate services to the Palestinian residents of the city The Israeli Jerusalem Municipality provides insufficient and highly politicised educational services to the Palestinians residents of the city at the same time discriminating against the other Palestinian systems that provide educational services Political Conflict and Exclusion in Jerusalem offers a detailed description of the structure of the education sector in East Jerusalem with its four main providers the Palestinian Authority through Awqaf schools the Israeli Authority through municipal schools the United Nations Relief and Works Agency and private schools Its study reveals that there is no single body that oversees the provision of educational services in the city to ensure that the services provided are sufficient and of quality Employing a qualitative research strategy with semi structured interviews and focus groups in Palestinian and Israeli schools this book offers a comprehensive and revealing comparison of the educational services provided to both their students It explores how Palestinian and Israeli students routinely receive vastly different learning opportunities in terms of school funding qualified staff school facilities and school programmes which as a result disempowers Palestinians and ensures an Israeli Jewish hegemony over the city One of the few academic books on a highly pertinent topic this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East Studies and a key resource for those studying the social impacts of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Cultures in Conflict--The Arab-Israeli
