Agrawal, 2001 Women in Jamaica, 1997 The first detailed bibliography of books unpublished reports theses and articles written on women in Jamaica up to 1994 There is no limitation in scope except that newspaper articles are excluded as is material published after 1994 Most of the works identified were written after 1970 as the bulk of the research on women in Jamaica really had its genesis with the declaration of International Women s Year in 1975 Prior to that research seems to have been concentrated on the twin subjects of family and fertility. Certain areas are yet to be tapped and recorded but the bibliography by identifying what already exists points to areas where material is lacking.

Introduction

Women in Jamaica is intended for the practitioner, the researcher and the tertiary level student and lecturer. It cites over 600 works under topical headings such as Arts and Literature, Biography, Education, Economic Conditions and Employment, Family and Fertility, Health, Legal Issues, Politics and Social Conditions. This volume includes short listings of bibliographies, periodicals and audiovisual material.

Women's Education in the Third World David H. Kelly, Gail P. Kelly, 2017-05-18

Originally published in 1989, this detailed bibliography focuses on women's education in the developing nations of Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean and the Middle East. It contains annotations for about 1200 published works in English, French, Spanish, Portuguese and German. The entries include extensive research, journal, monograph and book literature items including chapters hidden in books that don't have women or education as their main theme. The citations are organised thematically but with geographic divisions within each of the 15 sections and each entry has a decently detailed summary. It is prefaced by a useful article written by Gail Kelly on the directions in research at the time and the development of women centric approaches.

Women in the Third World Nelly P. Stromquist, 2014-04-04

Ideal for researching the status and activities of Third World women. For quick, reliable coverage of women's issues in developing countries, here is a concise reference work written by a team of more than 80 international experts. The Encyclopedia comprises 68 essays that cover the entire Third World from Africa to Asia, from the Near East to South and Central America, from the South Pacific to the Caribbean. The women authors are acknowledged experts from Harvard University, the World Bank, the United Nations Development Fund for Women, the University of Nairobi, the International Labor Organization and other institutions who summarize the most recent scholarship on a wide range of important subjects. Thoroughly indexed and cross referenced, the Encyclopedia is an ideal starting point for in depth research in such areas as recent developments in the prevention of violence against women, the conditions of women's lives across regions and countries, women's participation in government, science and technology, hidden curriculum issues in higher education, an overview of women's experiences as small scale entrepreneurs. A feminist viewpoint enhances the coverage. Informed throughout by a feminist perspective, the Encyclopedia focuses on traditional women's concerns such as political participation, human rights, nutrition, housework, the family, equality, health and more. But the coverage also extends to such issues as domestic and sexual violence, creation of women friendly cities, patriarchal ideologies as religious beliefs, the needs of older women, new jobs and exploitation in industrial production, AIDS, the gender consequences of ecological devastation, movements for change and other areas of increasing awareness. Geographical entries cover all the major regions and countries and discuss conditions and issues in each area. Spotlights the newest and best sources. The Encyclopedia brings together information that has been widely scattered in sources from many disciplines. An introduction by the editor illuminates the most important issues faced by Third World women today and analyzes the drastically changed global situation and how the changes impacted on the material presented in the Encyclopedia Reference aids make information retrieval easy An annotated bibliography of the latest and most important sources as well as a reference list at the end of each chapter provide quick access to current literature A thorough name and subject index makes it easy to pinpoint information Special Features Offers articles by recognized scholars and activists on gender and developmental issues Presents a variety of perspectives by women from both industrialized and developing countries Summarizes the literature of established disciplines bringing together important material scattered in many sources Identifies new areas for research affecting gender and development in emerging fields such as legal rights Outlines strategies for action in such critical areas as ecology and urban issues An annotated bibliography and list of references at end of each chapter make it easy to expand your research Connect ,1994 Eastern Africa Social Science Research Review ,1992 Science in Africa American Association for the Advancement of Science.
