Writing as a Learning Tool Päivi Tynjälä, L. Mason, K. Lonka, 2012-12-06 In a brief summary the debate concerning the nature of writing processes is about whether the essential characteristic of expertise in writing is a matter of mastering problem solving strategies In this respect the role of social and interactive factors such as writers familiarity with the particular genre in which they are writing and their relationship with the discourse community in which they are participating have been pointed out e g Nystrand 1989 According to the socio interactive approach which refers to Vygotsky s theory the composition process is a dialogue between the writer and the reader made possible by socially shared knowledge The meaning of a text is a social construct that is negotiated between the reader and the writer through the medium of the text The importance of motivational aspects has also been highlighted by two main lines of research studies of the relationship between writing and self efficacy e g Pajares Benton Corkill Sharp Downey Khramtsova 1995 Hidi McLaren 1990 1991 Self efficacy in this context individuals beliefs about their ability to produce certain types of texts have been found to be predictive of writing skills strategy use and writing performance

Literacy Goes to School Jo Weinberger, 1996-02-28 Very accessible not too technical or jargon ridden The practical suggestions were useful too if professionals feel inspired to promote change in their practice and policy it is helpful to have suggestions on where to start and what to do Management in Education Few primary teachers have a chance to find out in detail what children have already learnt and continue to learn about literacy at home with their parents This book gives a clear demonstration of literacy learning that takes place at home and how it differs from as well as relates to literacy at school It will help teachers to increase their understanding of this process and to build on their relationship with parents
