Osborn R. E.,2016-02-02 I Corps Republic of South Vietnam bloody 1968 Live the harrowing highs and traumatic lows of one marine youth who finds his seven month in country war weary self carrying a field radio burden for a suspect glory minded forward observer artillery officer who d yet to learn the undeclared war was a government sham a political ruse that would one tragic day force the FO team s command structured relationship to a who s responsible head over a short round of friendly artillery which put their field commander permanently out of action The resolve testing war with the North Vietnamese Army the near immobilizing ever sweltering jungle mountains and sandy flatlands the thought friendly villages the two of our people executed the four enemy prisoners executed in turn as well as President Johnson's bombing halts and retaking enemy positions are the nerve pickling building blocks shackled themselves together like a confrontation packed novel about combat weary vets not taught to run from a political fight either Experience the combative days literally sweat the chancy nights devour the popular songs when lucky enough to hear such haunting sounds as Get Off My Cloud by the Rolling Stones For one can't simply throw their rifle down and quit The corps will toss said shameless in the brig for untold years though a panicked one can steal away into the masking jungle and surrender yet hard core enemy will put a bullet through a deserter's enlisted head like a pesky bunker rat unless one's a commissioned officer then the VC might keep said alive as a peace bargaining chip One may understand the historic reason why many the combat marine during such oh so questioning times likened themselves to the politically used if not correct title of Uncle Sam's misguided children know what it's truly like to stalk and be stalked kill or be killed fear and be feared

American Puppetry

Education and Schooling in Japan since 1945 Edward R. Beauchamp, 2014-09-19 The best scholarship on the development of contemporary Japan This collection presents well over 100 scholarly articles on modern Japanese society written by leading scholars in the field These selections have been drawn from the most distinguished scholarly journals as well as from journals that are less well known among specialists and the articles represent the best and most important scholarship on their particular topic An understanding of the present through the lens of the past The field of modern Japan studies has grown steadily as Westerners have recognized the importance of Japan as a leading world economic force and an emerging regional power The post 1945 economic success of the Japanese has however been achieved in the context of that nation's history social structure educational enterprise and political environment It is impossible to understand the postwar economic miracle without an appreciation of these elements Japan's economic emergence has brought about and in some cases exacerbated already existing tensions and these tensions have in turn had a significant impact on Japanese economic life The series is designed to give readers a basic understanding of modern Japan its institutions and its people as we stand on the threshold of a new century often referred to as the Pacific Century Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
