Sappho Was A Right On Woman:

Sappho was a Right-on Woman Sidney Abbott, Barbara Love, 1972 This is the first account written by women by Lesbians about themselves and their struggle For Lesbians as for most women today the present is experience as a collision between the past and future The first part of Sappho Was a Right on Woman What It Was Like deals with the past the guilt the shame the duplicity that are part of living in a society that condemns Lesbians when it cannot ignore them Temporary sanctuaries bars gay ghettos vacation spots and bizarre behavior are part of the past for some Lesbians and still very much part of the present for many The second part of the book Living the Future reflects profound change taking place within society the women s movement and most important within Lesbians themselves change that make it possible for them to stop making unnecessary apologies and start function as whole people Defying the present is still not easy the authors say but it is infinitely preferable to the self degradation society has gone to such pains to teach the Lesbian Sappho Was a Right on Woman speaks clearly honestly openly to those women and men homosexual and heterosexual oppressing and oppressed who are still living in the past It invites them to come out Out of their closets out of their unexamined prejudice and unresolved confusion and live into the future with an appreciation of both the differences and the common humanity necessary for constructive change Publisher s description on book jacket

Lesbian Potentiality and Feminist Media in the 1970s Jed Samer, 2022-02-04 In Lesbian Potentiality and Feminist Media in the 1970s Jed Samer explores how 1970s feminists took up the figure of the lesbian in broad attempts to reimagine gender and sexuality Samer turns to feminist film video and science fiction literature offering a historiographical concept called lesbian potentiality a way of thinking beyond what the lesbian was in favor of how the lesbian signified what could have come to be Samer shows how the labor of feminist media workers and fans put lesbian potentiality into movement They see lesbian potentiality in feminist prison documentaries that theorize the prison industrial complex s racialized and gendered violence and give image to Black feminist love politics and freedom dreaming Lesbian potentiality also circulates through the alternative spaces created by feminist science fiction and fantasy fanzines like The Witch and the Chameleon and Janus It was here that author James Tiptree Jr Alice B Sheldon felt free to do gender differently and inspired many others to do so in turn Throughout Samer embraces the perpetual reimagination of lesbian and the lesbian s former futures for the sake of continued radical world building

Feeling Women's Liberation Victoria Hesford, 2013-06-05 The term women s liberation remains charged and divisive decades after it first entered political and cultural discourse around 1970 In Feeling Women s Liberation Victoria Hesford mines the archive of that highly contested era to reassess how it has been represented and remembered Hesford refocuses debates about the movement s history and influence Rather than interpreting women s liberation in terms of success or failure she approaches the movement as a range of rhetorical strategies that were used to persuade and enact a new political constituency and ultimately to bring a new world into being Hesford focuses on rhetoric tracking the production and deployment of particular phrases and figures in both the mainstream press and movement writings including the work of Kate Millett She charts the emergence of the feminist as lesbian as a persistent image memory of women's liberation and she demonstrates how the trope has obscured the complexity of the women's movement and its lasting impact on feminism

Feminist Critiques of Popular Culture E. Wartella, P.A. Treichler, 2022-11-30 First Published in 1986 This is Volume nine of the Communication Journal of 1986 which provides a forum for new and challenging discussions about communication in general and media studies in particular Focusing on Feminist critiques of popular culture it includes articles on feminist approaches to popular culture the situation of lesbianism as Feminism's magical sign in the US identifying ideological seams and interventions in feminist theory and communication studies Out For Good Dudley Clendinen, Adam

Nagourney, 2013-07-30 The definitive account of the gay rights movement Dudley Clendinen and Adam Nagourney's Out for Good is comprehensive authoritative and excellently written This is the definitive account of the last great struggle for equal rights in the twentieth century From the birth of the modern gay rights movement in 1969 at the Stonewall riots in New York through 1988 when the gay rights movement was eclipsed by the more urgent demands of AIDS activists this is the remarkable and until now untold story of how a largely invisible population of men and women banded together to create their place in America's culture and government Told through the voices of gay activists and their opponents filled with dozens of colorful characters Out for Good traces the emergence of gay rights movements in cities across the country and their transformation into a national force that changed the face of America forever Out for Good is the unforgettable chronicle of an important and nearly lost chapter in American history All in the Family Robert O. Self, 2012-09-18 This text is a synthetic history of the last half of the American century Self shows how movements on the liberal left that demanded equal rights and greater government protection inadvertently elicited conservative activism that sought to restore the nuclear family under the rubric of family values Voices of the Women's Health Movement, Volume 1 Barbara Seaman, Laura Eldridge, 2012-02-14 An unprecedented and definitive collection of rabble rousing writings on women's health Voices of the Women's Health Movement explores a range of provocative topics from reproductive rights to sexuality to motherhood Trail blazing advocate Barbara Seaman and health activist Laura Eldridge bring the revolutionary ideas of several generations together in this powerful new book celebrating women's bodies and women's voices The more than two hundred contributors include Jennifer Baumgardner Susan Brownmiller Phyllis Chesler Angela Y Davis Barbara Ehrenreich Germaine Greer Shulamith Firestone Charlotte Perkins Gilman Erica Jong Molly Haskell Shere Hite Susie Orbach Judith Rossner Alix Kates Shulman Gloria Steinem Sojourner Truth Rebecca Walker Naomi Wolf and many others With Voices of the Women's Health Movement for the first time every woman and girl can experience in one place the powerful history of stirring words and strong female perspectives that have inspired countless women to take control of their health and their lives Volume One highlights include influential writings on birth control menstruation pregnancy and birthing motherhood

Morris, 2017-06-12 Each month for a full year the holiday parties and theme nights at Sappho s Bar Grill spin lonely Hannah Stern into the past when she least expects it Through her sexy encounters with foremothers ranging from Lilith to Sappho through Radclyffe Hall to the All American Girls Baseball League Hannah learns much about herself and women s survival across time Queer Fictions of the Past Scott Bravmann, 1995 Transcending the New Woman Charlotte J. Rich, 2009 The dawn of the twentieth century saw the birth of the New Woman a cultural and literary ideal that replaced Victorian expectations of domesticity with visions of social political and economic autonomy Although such writers as Edith Wharton and Kate Chopin treated these ideals in well known literature of that era marginalized women also explored changing gender roles in works that deserve more attention today This book is the first study to focus solely on multiethnic women writers responses to the ideal of the New Woman in America opening up a world of literary texts that provide new insight into the phenomenon Charlotte Rich reveals how these authors uniquely articulated the contradictions of the American New Woman and how social class race or ethnicity impacted women s experiences of both public and private life in the Progressive era Rich focuses on the work of writers representing five distinct ethnicities Native Americans S Alice Callahan and Mourning Dove African American Pauline Hopkins Chinese American Sui Sin Far Mexican American Mar a Cristina Mena and Jewish American Anzia Yezierska She shows that some of their works contain both affirmative and critical portraits of white New Women in other cases while these authors align their multiethnic heroines with the new ideals those ideals are sometimes subordinated to more urgent dialogues about inequality and racial violence Here are views of women not usually encountered in fiction of this era Callahan s and Mourning Dove s novels allude to women s rights but ultimately privilege critiques of violence against Native Americans Hopkins s novels trace an increasingly pessimistic trajectory drawing cynical conclusions about black women s ability to thrive in a prejudiced society Mena s magazine portraits of Mexican life present complex critiques of this independent ideal of womanhood Yezierska s stories question the philanthropy of socially privileged Progressive female reformers with whom immigrant women interact These writers works sometimes affirm emerging ideals but in other cases illuminate the iconic New Woman s blindness to her own racial and economic privilege Through her insightful analysis Rich presents alternative versions of female autonomy with characters living outside the mainstream or moving between cultures Transcending the New Woman offers multiple ways of transcending an ideal that was problematic in its exclusivity as well as an entrance to forgotten works It shows how the concept of the New Woman can be seen in newly complex ways when viewed through the writings of authors whose lives often embody the New Woman s emancipatory goals and whose fictions both affirm and complicate her aspirations Mothering

the Race Allison Berg, 2002 Maternal metaphors articulating gender race and nation at the turn of the century Reconstructing motherhood Pauline Hopkins s Contending forces and the rhetoric of racial uplift The romance plot reproducing silence reinscribing race in The awakening and Summer Hard labor Edith Summers Kelley s Weeds and the language of eugenics Fatal contractions Nella Larsen s Quicksand and the new Negro mother Epilogue representing motherhood at century s end Discourses of Desire Linda Kauffman, 2019-06-30 In Discourses of Desire Linda S Kauffman looks at a neglected genre the love letters written by literary heroines Tracing the development of the genre from Ovid to the twentieth century novel Kauffman explores through provocative and incisive readings the important implications of these amatory discourses for an understanding of fictive representation in general Among the texts Kauffman treats are Ovid s Heroides Heloise s letters to Abelard The Letters of a Portuguese Nun Clarissa Jane Eyre The Turn of the Screw Absalom Absalom and The Three Marias New Portuguese Letters Drawing on the work of such theorists as Todorov Genette

Barthes Bakhtin Lacan and Derrida Kauffman demonstrates how the codes of love shape intertextual dialogues among these works in which each innovation in the genre is simultaneously a response to and a departure from the one preceding it Throughout she pays particular attention to the unsettling questions that the genre s shared thematic preoccupations and formal characteristics pose for concepts of gender authorship genre and mimesis Drawing on poststructuralism and psychoanalytic criticism to extend the boundaries of feminist theory Kauffman makes a significant contribution to contemporary critical discussions of writing and gender mimesis and narrative discourse and poetics and politics Her book broad in its scope and far reaching in its implications will be valuable reading for anyone interested in feminist criticism literary theory and literary history
