Debra Grodin, Thomas R. Lindlof

Saturated Self Dilemmas Of Identity In Contemporary Life:

The Saturated Self Kenneth J. Gergen, 2000 Social Identity Richard Jenkins, 2008 Developing the argument that identity is both individual and collective the author explores the work of major social theorists such as Mead Goffman and Barth to explain the experience of identity in everyday life The saturated self Kenneth J. Gergen, 1991 Self and Identity : Fundamental Issues Richard D. Ashmore Professor of Psychology Rutgers University, Lee Jussim Associate Professor of Psychology Rutgers University, 1997-04-17 Self and identity have been important yet volatile notions in psychology since its formative years as a scientific discipline Recently psychologists and other social scientists have begun to develop and refine the conceptual and empirical tools for studying the complex nature of self This volume presents a critical analysis of fundamental issues in the scientific study of self and identity These chapters go much farther than merely taking stock of recent scientific progress World class social scientists from psychology sociology and anthropology present new and contrasting perspectives on these fundamental issues Topics include the personal versus social nature of self and identity multiplicity of selves versus unity of identity and the societal cultural and historical formation and expression of selves These creative contributions provide new insights into the major issues involved in understanding self and identity As the first volume in the Rutgers Series on Self and Social Identity the book sets the stage for a productive second century of scientific analysis and heightened understanding of self and identity Scholars and advanced students in the social sciences will find this highly informative and provocative reading Dr Richard D Ashmore is a professor and Dr Lee Jussim is an associate professor in the Department of Psychology at Rutgers University New Brunswick New Jersey Constructing the Self in a Mediated World Debra Grodin, Thomas R. Lindlof, 1996-01-18 In today s media saturated world identities are no longer built solely within the close knit communities of family neighborhood school and work Today media are part of our world and therefore play an important role in the formulations of our identities or constructions of self In a truly postmodern mode Constructing the Self in a Mediated World not only brings together the usually segregated areas of interpersonal and mass communication but also incorporates works from scholars in sociology psychology and women s studies as well Each essay examines our understanding of self in a different context of mediated culture within a specific framework of interpretive theories such as critical theory social constructionist theory and feminism This volume provides insights into issues of self and identity in contemporary mediated culture Designed for advanced students and experienced researchers in communication both media and interpersonal sociology psychology and women s studies Constructing the Self in a Mediated World raises important questions and contributes greatly to its field Autobiographical Memory and the Construction of A Narrative Self Robyn Fivush, Catherine A. Haden, 2003-05-14 Divided into three parts this volume discusses the development of autobiographical memory and self understanding cross cultural variation in narrative environments and self construal and the construction of gender and identity concepts in developmental and situational contexts Infoselves

Demetra Garbasevschi, 2021-02-09 Infoselves delivers a multifaceted analysis of the commodification of self identity online from both a domination and a liberation perspective Drawing on multiple resources the book places its discussion of online identity within the larger context of self identity evolution arguing for the recognition of online identity as a legitimate component of the self identity system Advertising executive turned academic Demetra Garba evschi offers readers the means to understand the way our online identities are formed and used to reflect on the future of self identity and to become more aware of the radical implications of our digital footprint Readers will discover what it means to be an infoself in a deep digital context from exploring the informational makeup of self identity to examining the various sources of identity information found online to exposing the uses of this information through both latent and assertive self commodification Considering the many sources of information contributing to our identity narrative online some beyond our direct control managing the self is presented as one the greatest challenges of our digital present The book includes illuminating discussions of a variety of topics within the subject of online identity such as Foundational concepts related to the idea of identity including references to the works of Erik Erikson symbolic interactionists and social dramaturgy The evolution of online identity with examinations of early and current viewpoints of the phenomenon Personal branding online as the epitome of self commodification with examples from online celebrity micro celebrity and nano celebrity Original research contributing to the larger discussion about how identities are constructed and performed through the line Perfect for graduate students in advertising branding and public relations Infoselves also belongs on the bookshelves of those studying fields involving digital media Working professionals in any of these areas will also benefit from this book s insightful analyses of a variety of viewpoints on online identity

Authenticity in Culture, Self, and Society J. Patrick Williams, 2016-12-05 Across sociology and cultural studies in particular the concept of authenticity has begun to occupy a central role yet in spite of its popularity as an ideal and philosophical value authenticity notably suffers from a certain vagueness with work in this area tending to borrow ideas from outside of sociology whilst failing to present empirical studies which centre on the concept itself Authenticity in Culture Self and Society addresses the problems surrounding this concept offering a sociological analysis of it for the first time in order to provide readers in the social and cultural sciences with a clear conceptualization of authenticity and with a survey of original empirical studies focused on its experience negotiation and social relevance at the levels of self culture and specific social settings

Reasons for Living Marisa Crawford, Graham Rossiter, 2006-11-01 Reasons for Living begins by exploring the development and psychological function of meaning identity and spirituality in the lives of young people This exploration can contribute significantly to the professional background of those engaged in the education and care of youth in various contexts The book then focuses on what it means to educate young people in meaning identity and spirituality Implications are considered for three school contexts the spiritual and moral dimension to the general curriculum in public and independent schools religious education in religious schools and state based Religion

Studies courses Reasons for Living makes a much needed contribution to the philosophy of education by discussing the links between education and young people's spiritual and moral development. It also provides new insights and approaches to values education and religious education. Areas of fundamental importance in Australian education have long been held back not only by the gap between theory and practice but also by the very complexities of young people's personal development in contemporary Western Culture. Reasons for Living offers a constructive and practical way forward.

Encyclopedia of Identity Ronald L. Jackson, Michael A. Hogg, 2010-06-29 Alphabetically arranged entries offer a comprehensive overview of the definitions, politics, manifestations, concepts and ideas related to identity.

The Oxford Handbook of Diversity and Work Quinetta M. Roberson, 2013-01-31 Greater workforce diversity and business trends make the management of such diversity an important challenge for organizational leaders. The Oxford Handbook of Diversity and Work offers a comprehensive review of current theory and research and stimulates thoughtful and provocative conversation about future study of diversity in the workplace.

Ritual Practices in Congregational Identity Formation Timothy D. Son, 2014-05-08 Ritual Practices in Congregational Identity Formation investigates the educational roles of ritual practices in the process of congregational identity formation. Son identifies and analyzes various kinds of Christian rituals with respect to how rituals influence the formational processes of a congregation's identity. Based on Victor Turner's ritual theory, this book also investigates the pedagogical and transformative efficacies of ritual practices within the dynamics of congregational education.

The Self and Memory Denise R. Beike, James M. Lampinen, Douglas A. Behrend, 2004-11 How we think of ourselves depends largely on what we remember from our lives and what we remember is biased in many ways by how we think of ourselves. The complex interplay of the self and memory is the topic of this volume.

The Oxford Handbook of Identity Development Kate C. McLean, Moin U. Syed, 2015 Identity is defined in many different ways in various disciplines in the social sciences and sub-disciplines within psychology. The developmental psychological approach to identity is characterized by a focus on developing a sense of the self that is temporally continuous and unified across the different life spaces that individuals inhabit. Erikson proposed that the task of adolescence and young adulthood was to define the self by answering the question 'Who Am I?' There have been many advances in theory and research on identity development since Erikson's writing over fifty years ago and the time has come to consolidate our knowledge and set an agenda for future research. The Oxford Handbook of Identity Development represents a turning point in the field of identity development research. Various and disparate groups of researchers are brought together to debate, extend and apply Erikson's theory to contemporary problems and empirical issues. The result is a comprehensive and state-of-the-art examination of identity development that pushes the field in provocative new directions. Scholars of identity development, adolescent and adult development and related fields as well as graduate students, advanced undergraduates and practitioners will find this to be an innovative, unique and exciting look at identity development.

Technologies of the Self-Portrait Gabriella Giannachi, 2022-07-29 This book demonstrates how artists have radically revisited the genre of the self portrait by using a range of technologies and media that mark different phases in what can be described as a history of self or selves production Gabriella Giannachi shows how artists constructed their presence subjectivity and personhood by using a range of technologies and media including mirrors photography sculpture video virtual reality and social media to produce an increasingly fluid multiple and social representation of their self This interdisciplinary book draws from art history performance studies visual culture new media theory philosophy computer science and neuroscience to offer a radical new reading of the genre

Leadership as Identity J. Ford,N. Harding,M. Learmonth,2008-09-12 Management has failed its successor is leadership Can leadership fulfil the promises that are made in its name This book is written for those charged with being leaders and uses poststructuralist theory to provide a language for the confusions and uncertainties that leadership can often bring

The AIDS Crisis and the Modern Self S. Rinken,2013-04-17 In industrialized countries HIV AIDS is now increasingly perceived as a chronic condition Yet initially before combination therapy became available this pandemic was widely associated with premature or even imminent death Receiving the diagnosis typically led to a dramatic biographical disruption This highly original book turns this basic feature of life with HIV into the vantage point for a fascinating analysis of Western subjectivity Combining a host of empirical observations with the debate on the modern self the author argues that the self construction of people with HIV highlights the precarious yet indispensable status of the self in contemporary Western society Constructing one s biography in terms of self actualization is in fact a manifestation of nihilism it evokes a standard of certainty which on closer examination cannot be sustained Written in a lucid style this unique book will appeal to scholars and students in the fields of sociology social psychology social anthropology social theory and philosophy as well as anybody interested in the relationship between the self and society or the experience of living with HIV AIDS

Identity and Community Irving Massey,1994 In this book the author a Jewish Canadian from Montreal who has been an American academic for most of his career re examines his cultural roots and connections The problem of Canada and Canadian identity lies at the heart of the book covering the personal the communal and political Interaction and Identity Harmut B. Mokros,2018-01-16 Scholarly interest in issues of self identity has exploded across disciplines within the humanities and social sciences in recent years Common to these concerns are the assumptions that self identity is not an a priori not given or fixed but created in the process of communication This also assumes that social institutions and values are produced and reproduced by individuals in interaction To capture the essential characteristics of a person requires analysis of how the social and psychological intersect in moments of communication Interaction and Identity contributes theoretically and empirically to contemporary scholarly interest in issues of identity Chapters and contributors to this stand alone volume include Part Whole Discovery Stages of Inquiry by Thomas Scheff Communication by Gregory Bateson Internal Muzak An Examination of Intrapersonal Relationships by Linda Lederman The Constitution of Identity as Gendered in Psychoanalytic Therapy Ideology and Interaction by Margaret Carr and The Reconstruction and Negotiation of Cultural Identities in the Age of Globalization by Getinet Belay The multiple disciplines of social research with contemporary interest in identity are ably reflected in Interaction and Identity The authors are drawn from eight disciplines anthropology communication information science linguistics philosophy psychoanalysis psychology and sociology This book will be invaluable to scholars in all these areas above all in communication research as such

Identity Troubles Anthony Elliott, 2015-10-29 In our turbulent world of global flows and digital transformations pervasive identity crises and self reinvention have become increasingly central to everyday life In this fascinating book Anthony Elliott shows how global transformations the new electronic economy digital worlds biotechnologies and artificial intelligence generates a metamorphosis across the force field of identities today Identity Troubles documents various contemporary mutations of identity from robotics to biomedicine from cosmetic surgery to digital lives and considers their broader social cultural and political consequences Elliott offers a synthesis of the key conceptual innovations in identity studies in the context of recent social theory He critically examines accounts of individualization reflexivity liquidization and new maladies of the soul situating these in wider social and historical contexts and drawing out critical themes He follows with a series of chapters looking at how what is truly new in contemporary life is having profound consequences for identities both private and public This book will be essential reading for undergraduate students in sociology cultural studies political science and human geography It offers the first comprehensive overview of identity studies in the interdisciplinary field of social theory
