Continuum Paul Spencer, 1998-01-29 Paul Spencer presents the definitive study of the ways of life of the cattle herding peoples of East Africa drawing on many years of research This region has offered a prime example of a traditional culture resisting the inevitability of change it provides the best known and most extensive instance both of cattle pastoralist society and of social organization based primarily on age Pastoral peoples were once dominant in the East African interior but development of the market economy has progressively polarized the region and forced them into the most marginal drought ridden areas in this ecological trap they have become a peripheral underclass The Pastoral Continuum examines the richness and resilience of their cultures and illuminates the role of indigenous practices and institutions in adaptation and survival The pastoralists systems of age organization in particular are notable for their resilience it is demonstrated that these are bound up with problems of growth and succession in family enterprises and that marriage is a critical link in the web of alliance that governs the problematic relations between old and young Spencer s exploration of the development of the pastoralist phenomenon yields a unique view of its place in the modern world and its prospects for the future This landmark work by a leading authority will be of lasting value to any reader interested in traditional social systems of this kind The Lesser Gods of the Sahara Jeremy Keenan,2004-08-02 The eight essays that comprise this collection cover various aspects of social change and contested terrain amongst the Tuareg people Algeria Warfare in Atlantic Africa, 1500-1800 John Kelly Thornton,1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Moving Through and Passing On Yaa P.A.
