Freelan, 2010-06-21 In the busyness of the Christmas season you may wonder is there something more to Advent than candles readings and chocolate countdown calendars Advent is about an arrival about His presence When Jesus was born 2 000 years ago He changed the lives of those He met They weren't halo encircled characters in a play They were real people hurt and lonely anxious and hopeful confused and afraid ignorant and ostracized His arrival brought a gift of hope to those who accepted it We live with the same fear the same frustrations and the same faith And Jesus awaits the invitation to arrive in our hearts and to meet our needs and desires to meet us Take a few moments each day of this Advent season to peek into the past to see those who knew Jesus in the flesh Learn from their encounters Welcome His arrival

National 4-H Club News , 1942 History of the Westminster Election J. Hartley, 1785 The Holy Days of God, the Holidays of Man Holly M. Snead, 2012-12-07 For two thousand years the Church Universal has celebrated the life of our Lord At Christmas we remember and celebrate his birth in a stable in Bethlehem We watch him grow to a young boy who sat at the feet of the Temple leaders and spoke wonders they could not understand We continue to watch him as he started his ministry and preached to his people of the promises of God to the people of Israel After his three years of ministry we prepare for his suffering and death and grieve at the foolishness of the people who could not believe We stand at his cross and watch as his disciples who followed him fled in fear for their lives but three days later we rejoice with the faithful women who went to the grave to grieve the loss of their Lord To their wonder and ours we rejoice in his resurrection and celebrate the life he has given us through his suffering death and resurrection We celebrate his ascension to Heaven with his promise that he would be with his disciples in the Presence of the Spirit to teach and prepare them for his return Ten days after his Ascension we witness and celebrate the Coming of the Spirit at Pentecost and rejoice in the birth of the Church We hear the words of Peter and sit in wonder of all the Spirit promised Then suddenly the Church stops its celebration There is silence for six months until in December we return to the stable in Bethlehem and start our celebration again What have we forgotten what do we neglect What are we missing Why has the celebration stopped at Pentecost Where is the mature Church the victorious Church Where is the promised Return of our Lord in His Father's Glory Where is the Bridegroom How much longer must the Bride wait Come with us as we learn the Rest of the Story and discover all we have missed because our celebrations stop at Pentecost God calls us to celebrate the entire story from beginning to end He promised his faithful remnant that he would return to them and they would dwell with him in His Presence He promised the rejoicing would have no end Come with us as we learn and celebrate the Rest of the Story A great tragedy of modern evangelical Christianity is the failure to either appreciate or to properly interpret the incredible significance of Israel's Feast Days The prophetic content of the feast days is normally given barely a summary acknowledgement and then forgotten Holly Snead has done the Christian community a great favor in bringing to the fore not only the typological significance of Israel's festal calendar but God's faithfulness in bringing all those feast days to final fulfillment in Christ's Parousia. What she brings to the reader is tremendous and exciting insight into how the NT writers applied Israel's feast days to the work of Christ. If you have never considered Israel's New Moons, feast days, and sabbaths as they relate to the End Times, you owe it to yourself to read this book. Whatever you do read the Appendices. These special studies are more than worth the price of the book all by themselves.
