Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1980 Servanthood of Song Stanley R. McDaniel, 2024-05-23 Servanthood of Song is a history of American church music from the colonial era to the present Its focus is on the institutional and societal pressures that have shaped church song and have led us directly to where we are today The gulf which separates advocates of traditional and contemporary worship Black and White Protestant and Catholic is not new History repeatedly shows us that ministry to be effective must meet the needs of the entire worshiping community not just one segment age group or class Servanthood of Song provides a historical context for trends in contemporary worship in the United States and suggests that the current polemical divisions between advocates of contemporary and traditional classically oriented church music are both unnecessary and counterproductive It also draws from history to show that to be the powerful component of worship it can be music whatever the genre must be viewed as a ministry with training appropriate to that Servanthood of Song provides a critical resource for anyone considering a career in either musical or pastoral ministries in the American church as well as all who care passionately about vital and authentic worship for the church of today Branch Library Book News ... New York Public Library,1948 Adult Catalog: Authors Los Angeles County Public Library,1970 Schirmer's Guide to Books on Music and Musicians Robert Donaldson Darrell,1951 Guide to Reprints ,2004 Symphony no. 2 in D Minor, op. 24 ("Jullien") George Frederick Bristow,2011-01-01 URL <https://www.areditions.com/rrrra/a072.html> George Frederick Bristow 1825-98 American composer conductor teacher and performer was a pillar of the New York musical community for the second half of the nineteenth century His participation in an important mid century battle of words between William Henry Fry and the journalist Richard Storrs Willis and concerning a lack of support for American composers by the Philharmonic Society has unfortunately overshadowed his accomplishments as a composer which were significant Bristow is remembered today primarily for his opera Rip van Winkle 1855 and oratorio Daniel 1866 but he was also a skillful and productive composer of orchestral music one of only a handful of American orchestral composers active at mid century Bristow wrote his Symphony no. 2 Jullien in 1853 It is a substantial work in four movements scored for the standard orchestra of the early nineteenth century and strongly influenced by the personal styles of Beethoven and Mendelssohn whose works were performed regularly by the Philharmonic Society The symphony is skillfully crafted melodious and an intrinsically worthy work of musical artistry It was named to honor the French conductor Louis Jullien who visited the United States in 1853-54 with an unparalleled orchestra While in the United States Jullien both commissioned and performed American works including this symphony his support served as the catalyst for the Fry Willis battle The introductory essay to this symphony examines Bristow's career the composition of orchestral music in America at mid century and Jullien's role in the musical battle the edition makes available for the first time an important work that has been undeservedly forgotten for over 150 years Guide to Reprints Albert James Diaz,2001 Catholic World ,1948
