Project of Crisis Marco Biraghi, 2013-08-30 An examination of the influential Italian architectural historian Manfredo Tafuri's historical construction of contemporary architecture The influential Italian architectural historian Manfredo Tafuri 1935 1994 invoked the productive possibilities of crisis writing that history is a project of crisis progetto di crisi In this entry in the Writing Architecture series Marco Biraghi explores Tafuri s multifaceted and often knotty oeuvre using the historian s concept of a project of crisis as a lens through which to examine his historical construction of contemporary architecture Mindful of Tafuri s statement that there is no such thing as criticism only history Biraghi carefully maps the influences on Tafuri s writing Walter Benjamin Karl Krauss Massimo Cacciari and the architect Ludovico Quaroni among others in order to create a portrait of one of the most complex minds in twentieth century architecture and architectural history Tracing an arc from Tafuri s first articles in the magazine Contropiano to the idea of contradiction at the center of the project of crisis Biraghi cites Tafuri s writing on some of his contemporaries including Louis Kahn Le Corbusier Robert Venturi Aldo Rossi and the Five Architects Peter Eisenman Michael Graves Charles Gwathmey John Hejduk and Richard Meier Tafuri s historical construction of the contemporary Biraghi explains is based on the idea that the past is open providing the present with ever changing and indeterminate form There is no contradiction between Tafuri the historian and Tafuri the contemporary critic only the greatest possible integration The importance of Tafuri s interpretation of architecture goes beyond mere academic or historiographic interest Biraghi argues Tafuri s notion of the project of crisis is fundamentally important in understanding our present day architectural condition Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R.
