Love Always Frosted Frame:

Love and Need Adam Plunkett, 2025-02-18 Braiding together biography and criticism Adam Plunkett challenges our understanding of Robert Frost's life and poetic legacy in a pathbreaking new work. By the middle of the twentieth century Robert Frost was the best loved poet in America. He was our nation's bard, simple and sincere, accompanying us on wooded roads and articulating our hopes and fears. After Frost's death, these clichés gave way to equally broad though opposed portraits sketched by his biographers, chief among them Lawrence Thompson. When the critic Helen Vendler reviewed Thompson's biography, she asked whether anyone could avoid the conclusion that Frost was a monster. In Love and Need: The Life of Robert Frost's Poetry, Adam Plunkett blends biography and criticism to find the truth of Frost's life, one that lies between the two poles of perception. Plunkett reveals a new Frost through a careful look at the poems and people he knew best, showing how the stories of his most important relationships heretofore partly told mirror dominant themes of Frost's enduring poetry: withholding and disclosure, privacy and intimacy. Not least of these relationships is the fraught, intense friendship between Frost and Thompson, the major biographer whose record of Frost Plunkett seeks to set straight. Moving through Frost's most important work and closest relationships with the attention to detail necessary to see familiar things anew, Plunkett offers an original interpretation of Frost's poetry, tracing Frost's distinctive achievement to an engagement with poetic tradition far deeper and more extensive than he ever let on. Frost invited his readers into a conversation like the one he sustained with his literary forebears: intimate and profound, yet Frost kept his private self at a remove. Here Plunkett brings the two together, the poet and the poetry, and draws us back into conversation with America's poet. Must Love

Frosting (Must Love Diamonds - book 1) Stacey Joy Netzel, 2019-05-07 A wedding cake baker and a photographer walk into a bar. No, that's just silly. They meet at a wedding, of course. And since Asher Diamond only does weddings for the frosting on the cakes, it's a match made in heaven. Nope, scratch that too. Because Honor Hartman knows Happily Ever After isn't the fairy tale it's cracked up to be, no matter how much the sexy photographer makes her wish otherwise. Asher thinks she could be The One, and the fact she's the woman behind the butter cream frosting is icing on the cake. When his psychic best friend warns him, Honor doesn't believe in forever; he's willing to risk his heart to prove to her true love exists until a shocking family secret shakes the foundation of everything he believes in and reveals how wrong it can go if Honor is right. New series. New family. New drama. Must Love Frosting is the first book in Stacey Joy Netzel's brand new Must Love Diamonds series. The Diamonds are the First Family of Colorado.
