Psychoanalysis and Gender Rosalind Minsky, 2014-04-23 What is object relations theory and what does it have to do with literary studies How can Freud's phallogocentric theories be applied by feminist critics In Psychoanalysis and Gender An Introductory Reader Rosalind Minsky answers these questions and more offering students a clear straightforward overview without ever losing them in jargon In the first section Minsky outlines the fundamentals of the theory introducing the key thinkers and providing clear commentary In the second section the theory is demonstrated by an anthology of seminal essays which includes Femininity by Sigmund Freud Envy and Gratitude by Melanie Klein An extract from Transitional Objects and Transitional Phenomena by Donald Winnicott The Meaning of the Phallus by Jacques Lacan An extract from Women's Time by Julia Kristeva An extract from Speculum of the Other Woman by Luce Irigaray

Love, Hate and Reparation ... New Impression Melanie Klein, 1953

Psychology and the Natural Law of Reparation C. Fred Alford, 2006-05-15 Are there universal values of right and wrong good and bad shared by virtually every human The tradition of natural law argues that there is Drawing on the work of psychoanalyst Melanie Klein whose analyses have touched upon issues related to original sin trespass guilt and salvation through reparation in this 2006 book C Fred Alford adds an extra dimension to this argument we know natural law to be true because we have hated before we have loved and have wished to destroy before we have wanted to create Natural law is built upon the desire to make reparation for the goodness we have destroyed or have longed to destroy Through reparation we earn salvation from the most hateful part of ourselves that which would destroy what we know to be good

Sincerity and Other Works Donald Meltzer, 2018-05-30 The author formulates here the existence of an anxiety apparatus whose functioning is a part of the ego and the personality structure and illustrates how in attacking this apparatus the ego is attacking itself An example is given of the workings of the death instinct and a differentiation is made between the ego's defence mechanisms and other pathological character devices

The Democratic Arts of Mourning Alexander Keller Hirsch, David W. McIvor, 2019-01-21 The Democratic Arts of Mourning reflects on the variety of ways in which mourning affects political and social life In recent decades political theorists have increasingly examined and explored the themes of loss grief and mourning With an introduction that contextualizes the turn to mourning in previous scholarship on the politics of tragedy this book includes twelve chapters that clarify the intertwinement between politics and mourning The chapters are organized into five thematic sections that each shed light on how democratic societies relate to loss grief suffering and death Collectively the chapters explore the concept of mourning and its relationship to civic rituals memorials taboos social movements and popular music Chapters examine how social groups defend their members against experiences of grief or mourning or how poetic expressions such as ancient Greek tragedy can address the catastrophes of human life Other chapters explore the politics of symbols and bodies and how they can become fraught objects that stand in for a society's undigested unmourned losses and absences The book concludes with an interview with Bonnie Honig whose own work on mourning has been deeply influential in contemporary political theory

Islamic Terror Avner Falk, 2008-07-30 Independent scholar Falk analyzes the genesis of Islamic terror from many standpoints including religious cultural historical political social economic and above all psychological Drawing on his training as a clinical psychologist Falk's writings specialize in psychohistory and political psychology Here he examines topics including infantile experience and adult terrorism the meaning of terror terrorists and their mothers narcissistic rage and Islamic terror and whether terrorists are normal people as some scholars claim He also describes the infantile development of terrorist pathology non psychoanalytic theories of terrorism globalization's effect on terrorism and the notion of the clash of civilizations Other topics addressed in this reader friendly analysis include history's first Islamic terrorists and three important cases two recent deadly terrorists and a primary figure in our current war on terror Independent scholar Falk analyzes the genesis of Islamic terror from many standpoints including religious cultural historical political social economic and above all psychological Drawing on his training as a clinical psychologist Falk's writings specialize in psychohistory and political psychology Here he examines topics including infantile experience and adult terrorism the meaning of terror terrorists and their mothers narcissistic rage and Islamic terror and whether terrorists are normal people as some scholars claim He also describes the infantile development of terrorist pathology non psychoanalytic theories of terrorism globalization's effect on terrorism and the notion of the clash of civilizations Examining the emotional structure of traditional Muslim families Falk shows us the Muslim child's ambivalence toward his or her parents ways in which Muslims abuse women and children and the roots of Muslim rage and why all of that plays into the development of future terrorism Other topics addressed in this reader friendly analysis include history's first Islamic terrorists and three important cases two recent deadly terrorists and a primary figure in our current war on terror The central idea throughout the book is that a person's attitude toward terror and terrorism as well as whether he or she becomes a murderous terrorist or even who wages a global war on terror has much to do with that person's own terrifying experiences in infancy and childhood Such terror usually experienced first in the earliest interactions with the mother is symbolically expressed as Falk shows in fairy tales and myths about terrifying witches and female monsters Further terror may be experienced in the relationship with the father and also in various other traumatic ways It is these early terrors when extreme and uncontrollable that most often produce terrorists and wars on terror Falk argues Thus his book focuses on the conscious but also on the irrational and unconscious causes of terrorism

The Criminal Law's Person Claes Lernestedt, Matt Matravers, 2022-02-10 The state's use of the threat and imposition of punishments to regulate conduct is thought or at least said by many to be legitimised by the idea that the criminal law's burdens only fall on those who are blameworthy for their conduct. However, the formal concept of blameworthiness needs to be made substantive. This puts various ideas regarding the criminal law's person at the heart of debates about blame, guilt, and responsibility. How is the criminal law's person constructed by whom and with what disciplinary norms? How is it threatened by new knowledge and how do those threats play out amongst the various stakeholders who claim the criminal law's person as theirs? To address these and cognate questions, this volume brings together an international group of academics to engage with the criminal law's person from a range of disciplinary perspectives.

Shelley's Ambivalence Christine Gallant, 1989-11-02 A study of Shelley's poetry approaching it from the viewpoint of contemporary Jungian analytical psychology that incorporates the theories of Melanie Klein and D. W. Winnicott. Material that relates to the earliest stages of the ego's development to the pre-Oedipal situation are used.

Ads, Fads, and Consumer Culture Arthur Asa Berger, 2007 Now in its third edition, the popular Ads, Fads, and Consumer Culture is an engaging cultural studies critique of contemporary advertising and its impacts on American society. Arthur Asa Berger looks at marketing strategies, sex and advertising, consumer culture, political advertising, and communication theory and process to give an accessible overview of advertising in America. The new edition features up-to-date examples and new theoretical material, including expanded discussions on critical analysis methods, sexuality in advertising, global advertising, and neuromarketing, and comes complete with updated ads and Berger's signature drawings. Whether new to Berger's lively style of teaching and writing or loyal adopters, advertising and media professors will want to check out the latest edition of this text.

Setting the Moral Compass : Essays by Women Philosophers Cheshire Calhoun, Professor of Philosophy, Colby College, 2003-11-28 Setting the Moral Compass brings together the largely unpublished work of nineteen women moral philosophers whose powerful and innovative work has contributed to the re-setting of the compass of moral philosophy over the past two decades. The contributors, who include many of the top names in this field, tackle several wide-ranging projects: they develop an ethics for ordinary life and vulnerable persons; they examine the question of what we ought to do for each other; they highlight the moral significance of inhabiting a shared social world; they reveal the complexities of moral negotiations; and finally, they show us the place of emotion in moral life.

Setting the Moral Compass Cheshire Calhoun, 2004 Setting the Moral Compass brings together the largely unpublished writings of 19 women moral philosophers whose work has contributed to the re-setting of the compass of moral philosophy since the 1980s.

The Klein-Winnicott Dialectic Susan Kavalier-Adler, 2018-05-01 The Klein-Winnicott Dialectic Transformative New Metapsychology and Interactive Clinical Theory brings together the theories of Melanie Klein and Donald W. Winnicott, two giants and geniuses of the British school of object relations, clinical and developmental theory, and psychoanalytic technique. In this book, the author attempts to integrate the theories of Klein and Winnicott rather than polarising them as has been done often in the past. This book takes the best of Klein and Winnicott for use by clinicians on an everyday basis without having the disputes between their followers interfere with the full and rich platter of theoretical offerings they each of them provided In addition this book looks at the biographies of Klein and Winnicott to show how their theories were inspired by their contrasting lives and contrasting parenting and developmental dynamics By examining their theories in relation to their biographies one can see why their dialectical theoretical focuses emerged highly contrasted in their major emphasis and yet highly complementary when applied together to clinical work

From the Couch to the Circle John Schlapobersky, 2016-02-05 Recipient of the 2017 Anne Alonso Award for Excellence in Psychodynamic Group Therapy conferred by the Group Foundation for Advancing Mental Health part of the American Group Psychotherapy Association From the Couch to the Circle Group Analytic Psychotherapy in Practice is a handbook of group therapy and a guide to the group analytic model the prevailing form of group therapy in Europe The book draws on both John Schlapobersky's engagement as a practitioner and the words and experience of people in groups as they face psychotherapy's key challenges understanding and change This book provides a manual of practice for therapists use that includes detailed descriptions of groups at work accounts of therapists own experience and the issues they face in themselves and in their groups The book is devoted to the Group Analytic model but the other principally psychodynamic models of group therapy the Tavistock Interpersonal Psychodynamic Modern Analytic and Structural Systemic models are brought into a comparative discussion and drawn upon to create an integrated and coherent approach The book is divided into three sections Foundations aimed at practitioners using groups of any kind and working at every level including those providing supportive psychotherapy and providing groups for psychosis trauma the elderly people at risk the elderly and children The Group Analytic Model defines the group analytic model at a basic and advanced level The Dynamics of Change aimed at group analysts psychotherapists and psychologists providing short term psychotherapy and long term group analysis The book is illustrated with clinical vignettes including incisive instructive commentaries to explain the concepts in use It is intended for those seeking psychotherapy whether to resolve personal problems or to find new sources of meaning in their lives It is also intended for policy makers in mental health students of different models of psychotherapy and the psychosocial field The comparative discussion running through the text about methods and models of practice will likely be of interest to the wider mental health and psychotherapy fields The author draws together the inherited wisdom of group analysis since Foulkes time and makes his own lasting contribution From the Couch to the Circle will be an invaluable accessible resource for psychotherapists psychoanalysts psychologists family therapists academics psychologists mental health practitioners academics and teachers in psychotherapy

Rethinking Gendered Regulations and Resistances in Education Jessica Ringrose, 2014-06-11 Rethinking Gendered Regulations and Resistances in Education highlights key debates on the theme of regulation and resistance focusing on some of the most pressing contemporary issues in the field of gender and education today It underlines the need for educational research to attend to historical and psychosocial specificity chart local complexity and global disparity de colonise our Euro western centered gender analysis and consistently engage with the economic and policy domains of education as researchers and practitioners if we are to effectively tackle the diversity and complexity of gender equality issues in education Chapters in this collection showcase some of the varied and wide ranging theoretical approaches at play in current gender and education scholarship and raise questions about the types of research methods that can open up new ways of documenting processes of social and subjective struggle and transformation in education It stimulates important thinking about what has been what is and what can be as we face the future of gender and educational engagement struggle and debate This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education

Worldmaking Dorinne Kondo, 2018-12-06 In this bold innovative work Dorinne Kondo theorizes the racialized structures of inequality that pervade theater and the arts Grounded in twenty years of fieldwork as dramaturg and playwright Kondo mobilizes critical race studies affect theory psychoanalysis and dramatic writing to trenchantly analyze theater's work of creativity as theory acting writing dramaturgy Race making occurs backstage in the creative process and through economic forces institutional hierarchies hiring practices ideologies of artistic transcendence and aesthetic form For audiences the arts produce racial affect structurally over determined ways affect can enhance or diminish life Upending genre through scholarly interpretation vivid vignettes and Kondo's original play Worldmaking journeys from an initial romance with theater that is shattered by encounters with racism toward what Kondo calls reparative creativity in the work of minoritarian artists Anna Deavere Smith David Henry Hwang and the author herself Worldmaking performs the potential for the arts to remake worlds from theater worlds to psychic worlds to worldmaking visions for social transformation

Soldier Heroes Graham Dawson, 2013-05-13 Soldier Heroes explores the imagining of masculinities within adventure stories Drawing on literary theory cultural materialism and Kleinian psychoanalysis it analyses modern British adventure heroes as historical forms of masculinity originating in the era of nineteenth century popular imperialism traces their subsequent transformations and examines the way these identities are internalized and lived by men and boys
