Love Anthony Lisa Genova, 2012-09-25 From neuroscientist and New York Times bestselling author of Still Alice a beautifully written and poignant USA TODAY novel about autism friendship and unconditional love In an insightful deeply human story reminiscent of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time Daniel Isn't Talking and The Reason I Jump Lisa Genova offers a unique perspective in fiction the extraordinary voice of Anthony a nonverbal boy with autism Anthony reveals a neurologically plausible peek inside the mind of autism why he hates pronouns why he loves swinging and the number three how he experiences routine joy and love In this powerfully unforgettable story Anthony teaches two women about the power of friendship and helps them to discover the universal truths that connect us all A New Look at Love

Elaine Hatfield, G. William Walster, 1985 This fascinating review of what social psychologists know about love sex and intimacy puts to rest some tired clichés on the subject Begins by asking What is this thing called love and finds that people distinguish between two kinds of love passionate love and companionate love This study answers a variety of questions about love such as Where is the best place to find someone to love Do men and women want different things from love How can couples make love last Originally published by Addison Wesley in 1978 it won the American Psychological Foundation National Media Award in 1979

The London Stage 1890-1959 J. P. Wearing, 2014-10-30 Theatre in London has celebrated a rich and influential history and in 1976 the first volume of J P Wearing's reference series provided researchers with an indispensable resource of these productions In the decades since the original calendars were produced several research aids have become available notably various reference works and the digitization of important newspapers and relevant periodicals Spanning 1890 through the 1950s all seven volumes of The London Stage series have been revised corrected and expanded In addition approximately 20 percent of the material in particular information about adaptations and translations plot sources and comment information is new Although each volume contains indexes specific to that decade The London Stage 1890 1959 Accumulated Indexes combines all of the indexes into one comprehensive resource for more efficient research For example those wishing to locate all the references to a particular actor play or theatre whose history spanned more than one decade will find all of the entries listed in this set This set includes four key indexes general genre theatre and title The general index consists of numerous subject entries on such topics as acting audiences censorship costumes managers performers prompters staging and ticket prices With approximately 40 000 people listed this is the largest single source of theatrical personnel on the London stage during this period The genre index comprises all entries for production types including comedies dramas farces and tragedies as well as ballets operas adaptations foreign works pantomimes and translations The theatre index features every building to stage a production from the Adelphi to Wyndham's The title index cites 14 000 productions identifying every work produced on stage from Domestic Economy in January 1890 to When in Rome in December 1959 As a supplement to the individual volumes The London Stage 1890 1959 Accumulated Indexes will

Boyd,2017-03-02 This book brings together philosophical and theological perspectives on agapistic love The aim of the text is to illuminate the nature of unlimited love by distinct and integrative approaches to the intersection of the divine and the human Various scientific approaches to human forms of love seem to shed light on our nature as social beings But to what extent are the natural desires for affection sexual love and friendship augmented revised perfected or replaced by the gift of grace In other words we can ask how is it that agap modifies or shapes the natural loves Diverse theological and moral traditions address the question in quite startling contrast Thomists follow the dictum that Grace does not destroy nature but perfects it Lutherans draw a sharp contrast between law and Gospel while Wesleyans see charity as the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit Some feminist theorists see the idea of self giving love as contrary to genuine self fulfilment while the neo Kantians see love as a duty to others and some Kierkegaardians see the command to love as an unusual manifestation of divine command ethics These diverse approaches in light of contemporary research in the natural and social sciences can provide fertile ground for the exploration of the intersection of human and divine love To date there is no text available that brings scholars from various theological and philosophical backgrounds together to engage in interdisciplinary dialogue on this important and much neglected aspect of research into the human and divine loves This book offers a significant attempt to remedy the situation International Motion Picture Almanac ,1939 A Classical Response to Relational Theism Brian J. Orr,2022-02-17 The classical doctrine of God expresses that the God of the Bible is triune a se simple immutable impassible eternal and the sovereign Lord over his creation which he created from himself Modern streams of theology within the evangelical circle continue to promote a doctrine of God that sharply contrasts the classical view the traditional view of God in Christian theism Therefore a critical response to such a theology is needed This study is a comprehensive analysis and sustained critique of Thomas Jay Oord s open relational doctrine of God Oord s model substitutes process metaphysics for classical metaphysics while attempting to retain foundational Christian doctrines that were established within a classical metaphysical framework Love Stories Adam Sexton,2003 The love affair between the book world and the tennis world has become legendary For years great authors have lauded the storylike quality of this beloved sport Like a great novel tennis features a protagonist and antagonist a clear conflict and resolution and a beginning middle and an end Love Stories a literate and eloquent collection of short stories excerpts from novels and screenplays brings together some of the most evocative writing on tennis by the best of these masters Written by classic novelists like Vladimir Nabokov and John Updike as well as rising young stars many of these stories dramatize issues of class and status to this day competitors at Wimbledon are referred to as Ladies and Gentleman as well as exploring issues of race and love and sex These writings are arranged by topic with sections on men s and women s singles mixed doubles even a round robin of on court murders selected from tennis mysteries Love Stories will engage all tennis fans and fiction lovers with sparkling reflections from such superstar writers as Ellen Gilchrist from The Land of Dreamy Dreams on Country Club Competition Martin Amis from The Information on Gentleman s Singles Margaret Atwood The Man from Mars on Ladies Singles John Updike Separating on Match Point David Foster Wallace from Infinite Jest on Junior Tennis Anne Lamott from Crooked Little Heart on Cheating
