Hear the Ancient Wisdom Charles R. Ringma, 2013-03-08 There is a hunger in the modern world for spirituality One vast resource of spiritual wisdom comes from the pre Reformation church from the martyrs of the first centuries of Christianity through the long tradition of monasticism to the medieval Christian mystics These are the deep wells of Christian reflection from persons such as John Chrysostom Augustine Benedict Francis of Assisi Bonaventure Bernard of Clairvaux Meister Eckhart Hildegard of Bingen and Julian of Norwich to mention just a few

The spiritual insights of over seventy men and women of pre Reformation Christianity are found in these pages From these figures we can learn more about the practices of prayer and contemplation a life of following Christ the relevance of community the challenge of asceticism the movement of withdrawal and engagement the love of God for God s own sake living the gospel sacrificing for the kingdom of God the longing for union with God the practices of justice and a life of prophetic witness For us so embedded and shaped by the modern world this ancient wisdom will come as refreshing water and as a breath of fresh air with the wings of the Spirit and whispers of angels

Deep Classics Shane Butler,2016-05-05 Fragmented buried and largely lost the classical past presents formidable obstacles to anyone who would seek to know it Deep Classics is the study of these obstacles and in particular of the way in which the contemplation of the classical past resembles and has even provided a model for other kinds of human endeavor This volume offers a new way to understand the modalities and aims of Classics itself through the ages Its individual chapters draw fruitful connections between the reception of the classical and current concerns in philosophy of mind cognitive theory epistemology media studies sense studies aesthetics queer theory and eco criticism What does the study of the ancient past teach us about our encounters with our own more recent but still elusive memories What do our always partial reconstructions of ancient sites tell us about the limits of our ability to know our own world or to imagine our future What does the reader of the lacunose and corrupted literatures of antiquity learn thereby about literature and language themselves What does a shattered statue reveal about art matter sensation experience life Does the way in which these vestiges of the past are encountered sitting in a library standing in a gallery moving through a ruin condition our responses to them and alter their significance And finally how has the contemplation of antiquity helped to shape seemingly unrelated disciplines including not only other humanistic and scientific epistemologies but also non
