M. Coetzee Olfa Belgacem,2018-10-26 Asserting that Coetzee s representation of the body as subject to dismemberment counters the colonial representation of the other s body as exotic and erotically charged this study inspects the ambivalence pertaining to Coetzee s embodied representation of the other and reveals the risks that come with such contrapuntal reiteration Through the study of the narrative identity of the colonial other and her his body s representation the book also unveils the author s own authorial identity exposed through the repetitive narrative patterns and characterization choices

Díaz,2022-09-13 Queer God de Amor explores the mystery of God and the relationship between divine and human persons It does so by turning to the sixteenth century writings of John of the Cross on mystical union with God and the metaphor of sexual relationship that he uses to describe this union Juan s mystical theology which highlights the notion of God as lover and God s erotic like relationship with human persons provides a fitting source for rethinking the Christian doctrine of God in John s own words as un no s qu an I know not what In critical conversations with contemporary queer theologies it retrieves from John a preferential option for human sexuality as an experience in daily life that is rich with possibilities for re sourcing and imagining the Christian doctrine of God Consistent with other liberating perspectives it outs God from heteronormative closets and restores human sexuality as a resource for theology This outing of divine queerness that is the ineffability of divine life helps to align reflections on the mystery of God with the faith experiences of queer Catholics By engaging Juan de la Cruz through queer Latinx eyes Miguel D az continues the objective of this series to disrupt the cartography of theology latinamente Shame Matters Orit Badouk Epstein,2021-09-29 Winner of the 2022 Grady Award for Best Edited Book Understanding shame as a relational problem Shame Matters explores how people with support can gradually move away from the relentless cycle of shame and find new and more satisfying ways of relating Orit Badouk Epstein brings together experts from across the world to explore different aspects of shame from an attachment perspective The impact of racism and socio economic factors on the development and experience of shame are discussed and illustrated with clinical narratives Drawing upon the experience of infant researchers trauma experts and therapists using somatic interventions Shame Matters explores and develops understanding of the shameful deflations encountered in the consulting room and describes how new and empowered ways of relating can be nurtured The book also details attachment informed research into the experience of shame and outlines how it can be applied to clinical practice Shame Matters will be an invaluable companion for psychotherapists clinical psychologists counsellors social workers nurses and others in the helping professions
