Kelly, 2023-09-20 This volume contains a detailed study of the applicable international law relevant to peace operations in the context of collapsed states in the establishment of safe havens or in a general enforcement role It discusses the interaction and the often complex legal relationships between non government humanitarian actors relevant UN agencies the warring parties and international peace forces under international law and practice In particular the book deals with issues concerning the implications of contemporary peace operations for military forces in terms of force structure operating procedures and training The book focuses on the often overlooked but critical issues of the interim administration of law and order in complex operations and on the reconstruction of a local capability in this regard Many contemporary operational challenges are analysed including the Balkans and the Middle East In particular the book includes a detailed case study of Somalia based on the author's personal knowledge, experience and access to information on the ground in his capacity as military legal adviser to the Australian Defence Force Contingent in Somalia

The Small Wars of the United States, 1899-2009 Benjamin R. Beede, 2012-08-06 The Small Wars of the United States 1899-2009 is the complete bibliography of works on US military intervention and irregular warfare around the world as well as efforts to quell insurgencies on behalf of American allies. The text covers conflicts from 1898 to present with detailed annotations of selected sources. In this second edition, Benjamin R. Beede revises his seminal work, bringing it completely up to date, including entries on the current conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan. An invaluable research tool, The Small Wars of the United States 1899-2009 is a critical resource for students and scholars studying US military history.

Beyond the Battlefield Sam C. Sarkesian, 2013-10-22 Beyond the Battlefield: The New Military Professionalism presents the nature and character of military professionalism. This book describes the increasing tendency for the military to view professionalism mainly in terms of military skills. Organized into five parts encompassing 13 chapters, this book begins with an overview of the various concepts and definitions of military professionalism. This text then reexamines military professionalism in the post-Vietnam era with regard to perspectives on value, convergence, and empathy between military and society. Other chapters consider the changes in the international security environment and the complexity of national security policy. This book discusses as well the demands on the profession as a result of the changed security environment. The final chapter deals with the essential factors that establish the military mindset and world view as well as determine the quality of civil-military relations. This book is a valuable resource for military professionals and sociologists.

War Against the Poor Jack Nelson-Pallmeyer, 2017-01-09 The strategy of low-intensity conflict or LIC is a little-known yet sophisticated and deadly form of US intervention in the Third World. Drawing heavily on his own experience of living and working in Central America, Nelson-Pallmeyer shows how LIC victimizes the poor through various techniques: disinformation, manipulation of elections, economic exploitation, even as with the contras in Nicaragua, outright terrorism. Low-intensity conflict does more than disable the poor; it also threatens US democracy and undermines Christian faith. By integrating economic, psychological, diplomatic, and military aspects of war into a unified package designed to manage or block social change in the Third World, US special interests use LIC to protect their elite positions and profits. So cynical in outline and so damaging in practice, Nelson-Pallmeyer argues, LIC presents Christians in the United States with a situation similar to that faced by the Confessing Churches in Nazi Germany.

United States-Third World Relations in the New World Order Abbas P. Grammy, C.
