Social Work and the Grand Challenge to Eliminate Racism Martell L. Teasley, Michael S. Spencer, Melissa Bartholomew, 2023

In the current era, the ongoing challenge of race and ethnic relations and growing white supremacy reminds us that the centrality of racism needs considerable attention and has us profoundly questioning the structure and functioning of institutional practices. In Social Work and the Grand Challenge of Ending Racism, the authors argue that racism has been somewhat short-shifted as an avenue of inquiry to help explain social problems and social welfare outcomes within the social work profession and within the greater society. This book promotes innovative ways of preventing or interrupting racism and to stress the development and proliferation of antiracism practices as a method of reducing racialized outcomes in society.
