Hutton,Tom Hutton,2005-04 During the second half of the twentieth century development in the Asia Pacific region has been dominated by industrialization However at the beginning of the twenty first century services in particular finance information and creative services have become deeply embedded in the processes of urban growth In Asia Pacific the rise of service industries has led to national modernization programmes and globalization strategies. Services are also driving change in the internal form of city regions and are being actively deployed as instruments of metropolitan reconfiguration and land use changes. These changes have created problems such as social polarization and the displacement of traditional industries and residential districts. Also, there are tensions between local and global processes in the development of service industries and between the imperatives of competitive advantage and sustainable development.

Service Industries and Asia Pacific Cities brings together a multi-disciplinary team of experts to explore and illustrate the theoretical, conceptual and practical issues arising from the transformation of Asia Pacific cities by service industries.

BULLS IN THE CHINA SHOP Randall E. Stross, 2012-09-19 Bulls in the China Shop is an engagingly anecdotal lucidly written account of the tragicomic cultural and political misadventures that have plagued American commercial ventures over the past two decades in the People s Republic of China When diplomatic tensions between the two countries were eased in the 1970s American businesses rushed to China lured by the world s largest national market As they tried to introduce capitalism to China s socialist society they soon discovered that the rules of business as they understood them did not apply Chinese buyers placed huge orders for which they had no money to pay Chinese marketing bore no relation to capitalist exigencies playing cards were named Maxipuke pu ke poker designer men s underwear Pansy million dollar projects already underway were cancelled without warning The Chinese in turn were astonished by the indiscretion of the Americans who prized directness above all in negotiations and were at once brash and guileless in exposing weaknesses in their own bargaining positions Like Mark Twain s innocents Americans were woefully ignorant of Chinese etiquette and prone to embarrassing gaffes And more the Chinese found the American insistence on lengthy detailed contracts fatuous if not insulting Bulls in the China Shop is a fascinating look at the uneasy commerce between American and China between capitalism and socialism and at the cultural political and historical significance of trade between the two nations
