Major Problems In African American History Vol 2 Documents And Essays:

The Columbia Guide to African American History Since 1939 Robert L. Harris, Rosalyn Terborg-Penn, 2006 This book is a multifaceted approach to understanding the central developments in African American history since 1939 It combines a historical overview of key personalities and movements with essays by leading scholars on specific facets of the African American experience a chronology of events and a guide to further study Marian Anderson's famous 1939 concert in front of the Lincoln Memorial was a watershed moment in the struggle for racial justice Beginning with this event the editors chart the historical efforts of African Americans to address racism and inequality They explore the rise of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements and the national and international contexts that shaped their ideologies and methods consider how changes in immigration patterns have complicated the conventional black white dichotomy in U S society discuss the often uneasy coexistence between a growing African American middle class and a persistent and sizable underclass and address the complexity of the contemporary African American experience Contributors consider specific issues in African American life including the effects of the postindustrial economy and the influence of music military service sports literature culture business and the politics of self designation e g Colored vs Negro Black vs African American While emphasizing political and social developments this volume also illuminates important economic military and cultural themes An invaluable resource The Columbia Guide to African American History Since 1939 provides a thorough understanding of a crucial historical period

Black Americans in Mourning Leonne M. Hudson, 2024-10-01 Centering Black grief in the aftermath of Lincoln's assassination On April 14 1865 John Wilkes Booth carried out the first presidential assassination in United States history The euphoria resulting from General Lee's surrender evaporated at the news of Abraham Lincoln's murder The nation excepting many white Southerners found itself consumed with grief and no group mourned Lincoln more deeply than people of color African Americans did not speak with a monolithic voice on social or political issues but even Lincoln's Black contemporaries who may not have approved of him while he was alive mourned his death understanding its implications for their future Beginning with the assassination itself and chronicling Lincoln's three week long national funeral historian Leonne M Hudson captures the profound sadness of Black Americans as they mourned the crafter of the Emancipation Proclamation and the man they thought of as their earthly Moses father friend and benefactor Hudson continues the narrative by detailing the postwar efforts of African Americans to gain citizenship and voting rights Black Americans in Mourning includes the tributes of prominent figures such as Frederick Douglass Martin R Delany and Elizabeth Keckley who raised their voices to honor Lincoln as well as formal expressions of grief by institutions and organizations such as the United States Colored Troops In a triumph of research Hudson also features the voices of lesser known Black people who mourned Lincoln across the country showing that the outpouring of individual and collective grief helped set the stage for his enduring glorification
