Makers And Markets The Wright Collection Of Twentieth Century Native American Art:

Makers and Markets Patricia Capone, 1998 This well illustrated book studies pieces from the Peabody Museum's Wright collection of twentieth century Pueblo pottery Navajo and Hopi textiles and baskets from a range of southwestern and other Native American peoples The book also discusses the market influenced environment of modern Native American art ranging from what some might consider the low end of tourist art multiples to the high end of unique signed fine art objects Makers and Markets describes the changing Indian art collecting environment from the late 1950s to the early 1990s exploring the world of the modern Indian artist illustrating concurrent approaches to community and art market ideas and trends in design and marketing

Navajo Weaving in the Late Twentieth Century Ann Lane Hedlund, 2022-05-03 According to the Navajos the holy people Spider Man and Spider Woman first brought the tools for weaving to the People Over the centuries Navajo artists have used those tools to weave a web of beauty a rich tradition that continues to the present day In testimony to this living art form this book presents 74 dazzling color plates of Navajo rugs and wall hangings woven between 1971 and 1996 Drawn from a private southwestern collection they represent the work of sixty of the finest native weavers in the American Southwest The creations depicted here reflect a number of styles revival sandpainting pictorial miniature sampler and a number of major regional variations from Ganado to Teec Nos Pos Textile authority Ann Hedlund provides an introductory narrative about the development of Navajo textile collecting including the shift of attention from artifacts to art and a brief review of the history of Navajo weaving She then comments on the shaping of the particular collection represented in the book offering a rich source of knowledge and insight for other collectors Explaining themes in Navajo weaving over the quarter century represented by the Santa Fe Collection Hedlund focuses on the development of modern rug designs and the influence on weavers of family community artistic identity and the marketplace She also introduces each section of plates with a description of the representative style its significance and the weavers who perpetuate and deviate from it In addition to the textile plates Hedlund's color photographs show the families landscapes livestock hogans and looms that surround today's Navajo weavers Navajo Weaving in the Late Twentieth Century explores many of the important connections that exist today among weavers through their families and neighbors and the significant role that collectors play in perpetuating this dynamic art form For all who appreciate American Indian art and culture this book provides invaluable guidance to the fine points of collecting and a rich visual feast

Art of the Cherokee Susan C. Power, 2007-01-01 In addition to tracing the development of Cherokee art Power reveals the wide range of geographical locales from which Cherokee art has originated These places include the Cherokee's tribal homeland in the southeast the tribe's areas of resettlement in the West and abodes in the United States and beyond to which individuals subsequently moved Intimately connected to the time and place of its creation Cherokee art changed along with Cherokee social political and economic circumstances The entry of European explorers into the Southeast the Trail of Tears the American Civil War and the signing of treaties with the U S government are among the transforming events in Cherokee art history that Power discusses

The Social Life of Pots Judith A. Habicht-Mauche, Suzanne L. Eckert, Deborah L. Huntley, 2022-09-06 The demographic upheavals that altered the social landscape of the Southwest from the thirteenth through the seventeenth centuries forced peoples from diverse backgrounds to literally remake their worlds transformations in community identity and power that are only beginning to be understood through innovations in decorated ceramics In addition to aesthetic changes that included new color schemes new painting techniques alterations in design and a greater emphasis on iconographic imagery some of the wares reflect a new production efficiency resulting from more specialized household and community based industries Also they were traded over longer distances and were used more often in public ceremonies than earlier ceramic types Through the study of glaze painted pottery archaeologists are beginning to understand that pots had social lives in this changing world and that careful reconstruction of the social lives of pots can help us understand the social lives of Puebloan peoples In this book fifteen contributors apply a wide range of technological and stylistic analysis techniques to pottery of the Rio Grande and Western Pueblo areas to show what it reveals about inter and intra community dynamics work groups migration trade and ideology in the precontact and early postcontact Puebloan world The contributors report on research conducted throughout the glaze producing areas of the Southwest and cover the full historical range of glaze ware production Utilizing a variety of techniques continued typological analyses optical petrography instrumental neutron activation analysis X ray microprobe analysis and inductively coupled plasma mass spectroscopy they develop broader frameworks for examining the changing role of these ceramics in social dynamics By tracing the circulation and exchange of specialized knowledge raw materials and the pots themselves via social networks of varying size they show how glaze ware technology production exchange and reflected a variety of dynamic historical and social processes Through this material evidence the contributors reveal that technological and aesthetic innovations were deliberately manipulated and disseminated to actively construct communities of practice that cut across language and settlement groups The Social Life of Pots offers a wealth of new data from this crucial period of prehistory and is an important baseline for future work in this area Contributors Patricia Capone Linda S Cordell Suzanne L Eckert Thomas R Fenn Judith A Habicht Mauche Cynthia L Herhahn Maren Hopkins Deborah L Huntley Toni S Laumbach Kathryn Leonard Barbara J Mills Kit Nelson Gregson Schachner Miriam T Stark Scott Van Keuren
