Makers Of 20th century Modern Architecture:

Makers of 20th-Century Modern Architecture Donald Leslie Johnson, Donald Langmead, 2013-05-13 Makers of 20th Century Modern Architecture is an indispensable reference book for the scholar student architect or layman interested in the architects who initiated developed or advanced modern architecture The book is amply illustrated and features the most prominent and influential people in 20th century modernist architecture including Wright Eisenman Mies van der Rohe and Kahn It describes the milieu in which they practiced their art and directs readers to information on the life and creative activities of these founding architects and their disciples The profiles of individual architects include critical analysis of their major buildings and projects Each profile is completed by a comprehensive bibliography Makers of 20th Century

Modern Architecture Donald L. Johnson, Donald Langmead, 1997 Biographical profiles of architects and engineers with proven influences on the course of a modern Western architecture Page xiii Icons of Architecture Sabine

Thiel-Siling, 2005 An overview of twentieth century architecture featuring short essays on innovations in design and profiles of architects Includes photos drawings and building plans Theory of Architecture Abdel-moniem El-Shorbagy, 2022-06-07

Theory of architecture can simply be perceived as explanations of architectural works or styles in a specific time and place It is also responsible of introducing a logical criticism on the different architectural tendencies and approaches to the architectural practice From a philosophical perspective theory of architecture introduces questions and explores new design thoughts that could be used as useful guiding principles to the architectural practice This book is written in an easy and clear language that can be comprehended by students and a wide variety of audiences who would like to experience architecture

Contemporary Architecture Marta Tobolczyk, 2021-07-05 This book offers an exciting journey into the most recent architectural achievements seen in their complexity and plurality and described in the most objective and truthful way The development of contemporary architecture is presented as it commenced more than a century ago as it tried to reconcile democratic ideals with the forces of the Industrial Era In contrast to many books on the modern day art of building the development of architecture is not described chronologically here but rather independently for each selective architectural trend This allows a better explanation of some evolutionary processes and the continuity of each trend Thanks to such an approach this book will serve as a convenient tutorial for courses on history of contemporary architecture in all art and architectural schools Building Children's Worlds Torsten Schmiedeknecht, Jill Rudd, Emma Hayward, 2023-03-28

Children are the future architects clients and users of our buildings The kinds of architectural worlds they are exposed to in picturebooks during their formative years may be assumed to influence how they regard such architecture as adults Contemporary urban environments the world over represent the various stages of modernism in architecture This book reads that history through picturebooks and considers the kinds of national identities and histories they construct Twelve specialist essays from international scholars address questions such as Is modern architecture used to construct specific narratives of childhood Is it taken to support negative narratives of alienation on the one hand and positive narratives of happiness on the other Do images of modern architecture support ideas of community Reinforce family values If so what kinds of architecture community and family How is modern architecture placed vis vis the promotion of diversity ethnic religious gender etc How might the use of architecture in comic strips or the presence of specific kinds of building in fiction aimed at younger adults be related to the groundwork laid in picturebooks for younger readers This book reveals what stories are told about modern architecture and shows how those stories affect future attitudes towards and expectations of the built environment
