Making A Difference Reflections On Life Leadership And Politics:

Politics, Policy and Public Administration in Theory and Practice Andrew Podger, Michael de Percy, Sam Vincent, 2021-06-15 This festschrift celebrates the extensive contribution John Wanna has made to the research and practice of politics policy and public administration It includes both personal acknowledgements of his work and substantial essays on the issues that he focused most closely upon during his academic career budgeting and financial management politics and public policy and administration The essays address contemporary developments in public sector financial management in Australia and overseas changing political processes in Queensland and the Commonwealth and public governance and administration reform trajectories in Australia and internationally including in China A common theme is the importance of linking research to practice reflecting John Wanna's own style and contribution Essays include exploration of the interface between academia and practice including from the perspective of practitioners The authors of the essays in this volume include eminent Australian and international scholars of public administration experienced public service practitioners and younger scholars influenced by John Wanna

The Ayes Have It John Wanna, Tracey Arklay, 2010-07-01 The Ayes Have It is a fascinating account of the Queensland Parliament during three decades of high drama politics It examines in detail the Queensland Parliament from the days of the Labor split in the 1950s through the conservative governments of Frank Nicklin John Bjelke Petersen and Mike Ahern to the fall of the Nationals government led briefly by Russell Cooper in December 1989 The volume traces the rough and tumble of parliamentary politics in the frontier state The authors focus on parliament as a political forum on the representatives and personalities that made up the institution over this period on the priorities and political agendas that were pursued and the increasingly contentious practices used to control parliamentary proceedings Throughout the entire history are woven other controversies that repeatedly recur controversies over state economic development the provision of government services industrial disputation and government reactions electoral zoning and disputes over malapportionment the impost of taxation in the low tax state encroachments on civil liberties and political protests the perennial topic of censorship as well as the emerging issues of integrity concerns about conflicts of interest and the slide towards corruption There are fights with the federal government especially with the Whitlam government and internal fights within the governing coalition which eventually leads to its collapse in 1983 after which the Nationals manage to govern alone for two very tumultuous terms On the non government side the bitterness of the 1950s split was reflected in the early parliaments of this period and while the Australian Labor Party eventually saw off its rivalrous offshoot the QLP DLP it then began to implode through waves of internal factional discord reduction the social economy labour aging Aboriginal public administration and climate change The authors provide an analysis and description of the current policies of the Wall government and also look back to explore what the Romanow and Calvert governments did in these areas The overarching theme of the book is that despite the province's robust economic growth significant public policy challenges remain for the Saskatchewan provincial government The lesson is that economic growth does not magically solve entrenched societal problems and that economic prosperity will dissipate if worrisome social trends are left unchecked While many scholarly books shy away from prescription the authors of this book include sections in their chapters that set out new directions for policy development As such the book not only contains solid analysis of the present policy situation but also offers concrete ideas for future policy makers

Women and American Politics Susan J. Carroll, 2003 Women and American Politics brings together leading scholars in the field of women and politics to provide an account of recent developments and the challenges that the future brings for the study of gender and American Politics The book examines women's participation in the electoral arena and the emerging scholarship on the relationship between the media and women in politics the participation of women of colour and women's activism outside the electoral arena This volume demonstrates both the wealth of knowledge about women and American politics by the current generation of scholars and the vast number and range of important research questions which pose a challenge for the next generation

Nurses in the Political Arena Harriet R. Feldman, PhD, RN, FAAN, Sandra B. Lewenson, EdD, RN, 2000-07-17 This book was written to encourage nurses to become involved in the political process by running for office seeking appointments or becoming active on some level in local government The authors interviewed 46 nurses who hold or have run for public office from Members of Congress to local aldermen These nurses share their experiences on everything from getting informed on the issues getting involved in a political party presenting the right image to fundraising A chapter on nurses who have made use of the public arena in the past includes figures such as Lillian Wald Lavinia Dock and Margaret Sanger Nurses have inside knowledge of health issues and the trust of the public Here is a handbook that can help nurses realize their leadership potential

Rethinking Strategic Learning Russ Vince, 2004-04-22 Russ Vince examines learning as both a social and a strategic process invariably linked to emotions and politics that are mobilized by attempts at learning and organizing He makes a substantial contribution to theories of organizational learning and develops new ideas about critical reflection and collective leadership The author outlines a critical perspective on HRD arguing that staff responsible for learning and change in organizations have put too much effort into the development of individuals and not enough into understanding and engaging with organizational dynamics that limit and shape individuals' opportunities and abilities to learn and change HRD is explained as an intervention within a political system and practice of management and leadership with all the difficulties and contradictions that attempting to manage and to lead are likely to contain and reveal This means that the focus of HRD is on action on developing the capacity to act on generating credibility through action and on influencing and working with others in situations loaded with emotion and politics
