Making And Breaking Of Affectional Bonds:

The Making and Breaking of Affectional Bonds John Bowlby, 2005 Helping both parents and psychologists to arrive at a better understanding of the inner emotional world of the infant this selection of key lectures by Bowlby includes the seminal one that gives the volume its title Informed by wide clinical experience and written with the author's well known humanity and lucidity the lectures provide an invaluable introduction to John Bowlby's thought and work as well as much practical guidance of use both to parents and to members of the mental health professions The Making & Breaking of

Affectional Bonds John Bowlby, 1989 A collection of key lectures by John Bowlby which provide an invaluable introduction to his thought and work In addition to the basic principles they contain much practical guidance for both parents and mental health professionals The Impact of Complex Trauma on Development Cheryl Arnold, Ralph Fisch, 2011-10-16

The Impact of Complex Trauma on Development describes what happens cognitively and emotionally behaviorally and relationally to people who are repeatedly traumatized in childhood Part One brings together trauma theory with a number of theories of human development It directly addresses and describes developmental pathology and its origins Through powerful examples it conveys to the reader the pain and destruction caused by ongoing trauma abuse and continuous stress Part Two written from the perspective of a clinician who has worked extensively with traumatized children and adults is primarily directed to mental health professionals and graduate students These chapters are devoted to describing how to recognize the pathological consequences of trauma and how to intervene and remediate these developmental deficits The overarching theory is psychoanalytically based and developmental but other treatment approaches are integrated into the therapy when they are developmentally and therapeutically appropriate The text raises important questions related to the development of the self its relationship to therapy and the diagnosis and treatment of complex trauma in children adolescents and adults

Handbook of Theory for Practice Teachers in Social Work Joyce Lishman, 1991-01-01 As part of the general move towards accreditation and greater professionalism practice teachers supervisors have to be accredited and undergo some training and practice teaching This handbook commissioned by the North of Scotland Consortium for Education and Training provides the theoretical base that practice teachers need It provides a summary of the theory underlying models of understanding human development and behaviour and of models of social work intervention Because of its combination of theory and practice it will be of equal use to social students and practitioners and practice teachers supervising students under the new Diploma in Social Work programme Racial Melancholia, Racial Dissociation David L. Eng, Shinhee Han, 2019-01-17

In Racial Melancholia Racial Dissociation critic David L Eng and psychotherapist Shinhee Han draw on case histories from the mid 1990s to the present to explore the social and psychic predicaments of Asian American young adults from Generation X to Generation Y Combining critical race theory with several strands of psychoanalytic thought they develop the concepts of racial melancholia and racial dissociation to investigate changing processes of loss associated with immigration displacement diaspora and assimilation These case studies of first and second generation Asian Americans deal with a range of difficulties from depression suicide and the politics of coming out to broader issues of the model minority stereotype transnational adoption parachute children colorblind discourses in the United States and the rise of Asia under globalization Throughout Eng and Han link psychoanalysis to larger structural and historical phenomena illuminating how the study of psychic processes of individuals can inform investigations of race sexuality and immigration while creating a more sustained conversation about the social lives of Asian Americans and Asians in the diaspora

Talking Over the Years Sandra Evans, Jane Garner (FRCPsych.), 2004 Talking Over the Years illuminates the psychodynamic theories of the 20th century turns its attentions to the thorny issues of ageing the complications of later life It provides detailed descriptions of psychoanalytic theory together with the use of psychodynamic concepts in clinical practice

Attachment in Adults Michael B. Sperling, William H. Berman, 1994-04-29 Reflecting the emerging understanding of the significance of attachment in adult life contributions in this volume cover recent research on the fundamentals of human life including courtship and marriage the determinants of resilience and of depression and the vulnerability of some to suicidal ideation and action Together these chapters illuminate the contribution of early and current attachment to psychopathology in adults the application of research findings to therapeutic interventions and the physiological substructure of attachment in adults and children This book will be of value to psychologists psychotherapists psychotherapy researchers and other mental health practitioners working with adult attachment issues

Sex Offenders and the Internet Dennis Howitt, Kerry Sheldon, 2009-09-28 Online the opportunity to commit a crime is never more than a few clicks away Sex Offenders and the Internet explores the nature of online sex offenders in order to help practitioners understand and treat this new category of client Kerry Sheldon and Dennis Howitt examine the research base by reviewing case studies and psychological profiles with a particular focus on paedophilic Internet sex offenders Issues covered include child pornography the often overlooked excuses for paedophilia and how we can move forward The result is a book that comprehensively details the nature of Internet sex offenders bringing together the relevant research into one essential volume

Interpersonal Psychotherapy 2E A Clinician's Guide Scott Stuart, Michael Robertson, 2012-08-31 This book provides a very useful and thought provoking account of a developing form of interpersonal psychotherapy and gives a clear guide for practising clinicians Psychological Medicine First published in 2003 this groundbreaking text firmly established itself as a touchstone for all therapists using interpersonal psychotherapy IPT Key features and benefits A wealth of clinically based descriptions and vignettes help bring the theory to life Numerous case studies highlight the key issues in IPT Reproducible diagrams and flowcharts for use by therapists and their patients Comprehensive coverage of key theoretical issues and an up to date critical appraisal of IPT research New for the second edition Extended coverage of the clinical adaptation of IPT to post traumatic mental health and other new applications of IPT More on depression and common problems encountered in IPT Coverage of training and dissemination How to manage joint sessions and integrate techniques from other approaches and models Interpersonal Psychotherapy a clinician s guide is the international standard for the clinical trainee seeking an introduction to IPT as well as for instructors of psychiatry residents psychology interns and graduate students as well as social work students It is an accessible reference for other mental health providers and primary care practitioners Instinct and Revelation Alondra Oubre,2013-10-11 Instinct and Revelation revolves around the hypothesis that ritual behavior and imaginative awareness in early hominids may have helped to spawn the evolution of the human brain and human consciousness Using an integral perspective comparable with systems theory the book carefully interweaves fact and theory from physical and cultural anthropology psychobiology and the brain sciences psychology and to a lesser degree eastern philosophy This book breaks from tradition by discussing from a primarily anthropological perspective the origin of human consciousness within a philosophical framework that embraces precepts from human evolution evolutionary psychology the neurosciences biocultural anthropology and cultural symbolic anthropology
