Making Of Le Voyage:

Asia in the Making of Europe Donald F. Lach, 1993 Jacques Offenbach and the Making of Modern Culture Laurence Senelick, 2017-09-21 Provides a fresh and global perspective on the works and influence of a nineteenth century musical and theatrical phenomenon The Making of Feudal Agricultures? Miquel Barceló, François Sigaut, 2004-02-01 Was there a discernible set of changes in the techniques of arable farming animal husbandry and their associated technologies at the end of antiquity which marked a clear break with an established ancient world economy and ushered in the new agricultures of the early middle ages Were such changes not already visible in antiquity And what was the impact of political economic social and environmental change in these processes The 6 papers in this volume reject simple evolutionary models charting progress from protohistory to the Roman period to the Dark Ages to the Middle Ages and insisted rather on the notion of inheritance so that the farming economy laid down in protohistoric times continued to exist during the early Middle Ages The collapse of a capitalistic commercial economy of the later Roman Empire though accompanied by political and military crises did not entail a regression of the farming economy The growth in farming in the 8th 9th C resting on a demographic increase combined with intensive land clearance episodes owed much to the preceding centuries the change resides more in an intensification than in the introduction of new features With contributions by Pascal Reigniez Catherine Rommelaere Georges Raepsaet G Comet Aline Durand and Philippe Leveau The Making of a New Rural Order in South China Joseph P. McDermott, 2020-07-02 In examining the key merchant group in late imperial China this book provides a framework for understanding China's path to modernity Asia in the Making of Europe, Volume III: A Century of Advance. Book 1 Donald F. Lach, Edwin J. Van Kley, 2022-07-01 This monumental series acclaimed as a masterpiece of comprehensive scholarship in the New York Times Book Review reveals the impact of Asia's high civilizations on the development of modern Western society The authors examine the ways in which European encounters with Asia have altered the development of Western society art literature science and religion since the Renaissance In Volume III A Century of Advance the authors have researched seventeenth century European writings on Asia in an effort to understand how contemporaries saw Asian societies and peoples Making and Remaking Mosques in Senegal Cleo Cantone, 2012-04-03 This book constitutes a seminal contribution to the fields of Islamic architectural history and gender studies It is the first major empirical study of the history and current state of mosque building in Senegal and the first study of mosque space from a gender perspective The Making of a New Rural Order in South China: Volume 2, Merchants, Markets, and Lineages, 1500-1700 Joseph P. McDermott, 2020-07-02 This volume is written for anyone who has wondered about the growth of Chinese businesses and their relation to Chinese family and government institutions Making full use of its partner volume's findings on village institutions in the southern prefecture of Huizhou this volume explains how late imperial China's key regional group of merchants emerged from this prefecture's village lineages It identifies the strategies they deployed to overcome the serious obstacles to their domination of major financial transactions and commodity markets throughout much of China from 1500 to 1700 At the same time it describes how the commercial success enjoyed by these house firms undermined their lineages social stability making them vulnerable to competition from popular religious cults back home In recounting how rural and urban institutions interacted through state and economic development McDermott provides a powerful new framework for understanding late imperial China s distinctive trajectory to social and economic transformation

Making Money in Sixteenth-Century France Jotham Parsons,2015-02-06 Coinage and currency abstract and socially created units of value and power were basic to early modern society By controlling money the people sought to understand and control their complex expanding and interdependent world In Making Money in Sixteenth Century France Jotham Parsons investigates the creation and circulation of currency in France The royal Cour des Monnaies centralized monetary administration expanding its role in the emerging modern state during the sixteenth century and assuming new powers as an often controversial repository of theoretical and administrative expertise The Cour des Monnaies Parsons shows played an important role in developing the contemporary understanding of money as a source of both danger and opportunity at the center of economic and political life More practically the Monnaies led generally successful responses to the endemic inflation of the era and the monetary chaos of a period of civil war Its work investigating and prosecuting counterfeiters shone light into a picaresque world of those who used the abstract and artificial nature of money for their own ends Parsons s broad multidimensional portrait of money in early modern France also encompasses the literature of the age in which money s arbitrary and dangerous power was a major theme
