Making Of Little Nemo:

Clothes Make the Character Lora Ann Sigler, 2021-02-26 Clothes make the man or woman This is especially true in early Hollywood silent films where a character's appearance could show an immense number of different things about them For example Theda Bara's role in A Fool There Was 1915 was known for her revealing clothing seductive appearance and being the first Vamp Wardrobe and costume design played a larger role in silent films than in modern movies The character's clothes told the audience who they were and what their role was in the movie In this in depth analysis the author provides examples and explanations about noteworthy characters who used their appearance to further their fame Vitagraph Andrew A. Erish, 2021-06-08 Winner of the 2022 Peter C Rollins Book Award and the 2022 Browne Best Edited Reference Primary Source Work in Popular and American Culture Award In Vitagraph America's First Great Motion Picture Studio Andrew A Erish provides a comprehensive examination and reassessment of the company most responsible for defining and popularizing the American movie This history challenges long accepted Hollywood mythology that Paramount and Fox invented the feature film that Universal created the star system and that these companies along with MGM and Warner Bros developed motion pictures into a multimillion dollar business In fact the truth about Vitagraph is far more interesting than the myths that later moguls propagated about themselves Established in 1897 by J Stuart Blackton and Albert E Smith Vitagraph was the leading producer of motion pictures for much of the silent era Vitagraph established America's studio system a division of labor utilizing specialized craftspeople and artists and developed fundamental aspects of American movies from framing lighting and performance style to emphasizing character driven comedy and drama in stories that respected and sometimes poked fun at every demographic of Vitagraph's vast audience For most of its existence America's most influential studio was headquartered in Brooklyn New York before relocating to Hollywood A historically rigorous and thorough account of the most influential producer of American motion pictures during the silent era Erish draws on valuable primary material long overlooked by other historians to introduce readers to the fascinating forgotten pioneers of Vitagraph

Silhouettes: A Fairplay Novel Featuring Private Investigator Adrienne Hargrove Karen Harmon, 2008-09-22 Private Investigator Adrienne Hargrove has seen every kind of human depravity but online predators grooming teenaged girls so they can abuse them seems the most depraved of all The fact that often the predators are people the young victims know only adds to the horror The world of Internet chat rooms seems like a world of science fiction to Adrienne until Detective Mike Morris asks her to assist him in the case of two missing girls Abigail Montgomery and Matilda Morning Abigail has been found dead in New Orleans and Matilda is still missing With warnings of Hurricane Katrina in every weather report Adrienne and Mike head to New Orleans where Voodoo Priestess Madam Helene Dupre sends a message that she believes she can help them find Matilda As Adrienne and Mike do all they can to find the girl they become aware of another kind of human depravity Evacuated to the Superdome in New Orleans following the hurricane they see firsthand the nightmare of poverty racial discrimination government failure and human hopelessness at its very worst Does Madam Dupre have the power to help or is she a hoax Will Mike and Adrienne find Matilda in time or is it already too late This case is one that will change them both forever The Natural History of Make-believe John Goldthwaite, 1996 The Man in the Moon has dropped down to earth for a visit Over the hedge a rabbit in trousers is having a pipe with his evening paper Elsewhere Alice is passing through a looking glass Dorothy riding a tornado to Oz and Jack climbing a beanstalk to heaven To enter the world of children s literature is to journey to a realm where the miraculous and the mundane exist side by side a world that is at once recognizable and real and enchanted Many books have probed the myths and meanings of children s stories but Goldthwaite s Natural History is the first exclusively to survey the magic that lies at the heart of the literature From the dish that ran away with the spoon to the antics of Brer Rabbit and Dr Seuss s Cat in the Hat Goldthwaite celebrates the craft the invention and the inspired silliness that fix these tales in our minds from childhood and leave us in a state of wondering to know how these things can be Covering the three centuries from the fairy tales of Charles Perrault to Maurice Sendak s Where the Wild Things Are he gathers together all the major imaginative works of America Britain and Europe to show how the nursery rhyme the fairy tale and the beast fable have evolved into modern nonsense verse and fantasy Throughout he sheds important new light on such stock characters as the fool and the fairy godmother and on the sources of authors as diverse as Carlo Collodi Lewis Carroll and Beatrix Potter His bold claims will inspire some readers and outrage others He hails Pinocchio for example as the greatest of all children s books but he views C S Lewis s The Chronicles of Narnia as a parable that is not only murderously misogynistic but deeply blasphemous as well Fresh incisive and utterly original this rich literary history will be required reading for anyone who cares about children s books and their enduring influence on how we come to see the world
