Holdens remind us that you don't have to be an academic or a postgraduate in creative writing to be moved by verse. It's plain fun. The Wall Street Journal Grown men aren't supposed to cry. Yet in this fascinating anthology one hundred men distinguished in literature and film, science and architecture, theater and human rights, confess to being moved to tears by poems that continue to haunt them. Although the majority are public figures not prone to crying, here they admit to breaking down, often in words as powerful as the poems themselves. Their selections include classics by visionaries such as Walt Whitman, W. H. Auden, and Philip Larkin, as well as modern works by masters including Billy Collins, Seamus Heaney, Derek Walcott, and poets who span the globe from Pablo Neruda to Rabindranath Tagore. The poems chosen range from the sixteenth century to the twenty-first, with more than a dozen by women including Mary Oliver, Elizabeth Bishop, and Gwendolyn Brooks. Their themes range from love in its many guises through mortality and loss to the beauty and variety of nature. All are moved to tears by the exquisite way a poet captures in Alexander Pope's famous phrase what oft was thought but ne'er so well expressed. From J. J. Abrams to John le Carr, Salman Rushdie to Jonathan Franzen, Daniel Radcliffe to Nick Cave, to Stephen Fry, Stanley Tucci, to Colin Firth, to the late Christopher Hitchens, this collection delivers private insight into the souls of men whose writing, acting, and thinking are admired around the world. Everyone who reads this collection will be roused, disturbed by the pain, exalted in the zest for joy given by poets. Nadine Gordimer, winner of the Nobel Prize for literature.

All Hands on Deck Will Sofrin, 2023-04-18. A maritime adventure memoir that follows a crew of misfits hired by Hollywood to sail an 18th-century warship 5,000 miles for the making of a beloved blockbuster film. An unbelievable ride. Will Sofrin has lived the real experiences and survived to tell the tale. Dan Shotz, Emmy Award-winning producer of Black Sails. In the late 1990s, Patrick O'Brian's multimillion-copy-selling historical novel series, the Aubrey-Maturin series, which was set during the Napoleonic Wars, seemed destined for film. With Russell Crowe as Jack Aubrey and Paul Bettany as Stephen Maturin, the production only needed a ship that could stand in for Lucky Jack's HMS Surprise with historical accuracy paramount. The filmmakers found the Rose, a replica of an 18th-century ship that would work perfectly. Only there was one problem: the Rose was in Newport, Rhode Island, not in Southern California where they would be filming. Enter a ragtag crew of thirty oddballs who stepped up for the task, including Will Sofrin at the time a 21-year-old wooden boat builder and yacht racer who joined as the ship's carpenter. All Hands on Deck is Sofrin's memoir of the epic adventure delivering the Rose to Hollywood. It's a story of reinvention, of hard work on the high seas, of love and of survival. The Rose was an example of the most cutting edge technology of her era but in the 21st century barely anyone had experience sailing it The crew effectively went back in time brought to life the old ways of a forgotten world and barely lived to tell the tale Just a few days in a terrifying hurricane strength storm nearly sank the Rose and later a rogue wave caused a nearly fatal dismasting And the ups and downs weren't limited to the waves with the crew split into factions making peace between warring camps became necessary too as did avoiding pirates and braving the temptations of shore leave All Hands on Deck is a gripping story of an unforgettable journey and a must read for fans who adore O Brian's novels and the dramatic film adaptation of the Academy Award nominated Master and Commander
