"Jean Cras, Polymath of Music and Letters " Paul-André Bempéchat, 2017-07-05 Jean Cras 1879 1932 was a remarkable man by anyone's measure Twice a decorated hero of the Great War this Rear Admiral of the French navy scientist inventor and moral philosopher was also a highly esteemed composer during his lifetime enjoying the same stature and celebrity as Fauré Debussy and Ravel Since his death however both Cras and his music have been almost completely overlooked In this the first critical biography of Cras Paul André Bempéchat situates Henri Duparc's protégé as a missing link between the French post Romantic generation of composers and the Impressionists The book explores both historically and analytically the methodology by which Cras evolved his eclectic brand of Impressionism striking the delicate balance between Celtic folk idioms and exoticisms inspired by his travels Cras' creative legacy extends beyond the world of music to the world of science His five patented inventions include the navigational gyrocompass which bears his name still in use to this day by the French navy coast guard and boating aficionados Bempéchat draws special attention to the humanist Jean Cras and his distinguished military career he is credited with saving the Serbian army from extinction drawing on primary source material such as family correspondence and wartime diaries to reaffirm this composer as a true Renaissance man of the twentieth century Routledge Library Editions: Comparative Education Various, 2021-06-23 Reissuing works originally published between 1962 and 1995 this collection is made up of volumes that examine insights and data from the practices and situation in one country or area when considering educational practice elsewhere Many important educational questions are examined from this international and comparative perspective in these volumes Countries represented here include Russia the Caribbean Latin America Australia and New Zealand China France Japan Israel Italy Germany the United Kingdom and the United States Many of the volumes look at the whole area of comparative education and its methods and theories while one looks at the Unesco literacy program The Oxford Handbook of Modern French Philosophy , 2024-06-25 French philosophy is an internationally celebrated national philosophical tradition and this Oxford Handbook offers a comprehensive approach to its history since 1800 The Handbook features essays written by renowned international specialists illuminating key movements and positions themes and thinkers in nineteenth twentieth and even twenty first century French philosophy The volume takes into account developments in recent historical scholarship by broadening the notion of Modern French Philosophy in two ways Whereas recent approaches in the field have often ignored early nineteenth century developments this volume offers comprehensive treatment of French thought of this period in order to grasp better later developments Moreover the volume extends the canon at the other end of the period of Modern French Philosophy by including work on philosophers who have come to prominence only in the last ten or twenty years The volume takes French philosophy in a broad sense to include all philosophy carried out in France over the last 200 years and it illuminates the institutional and cultural background of this national philosophical tradition in such a way as to provide a fuller and more comprehensive understanding of its unity and of its more famous moments in the twentieth century Public Intellectuals and Nation Building in the Iberian Peninsula, 1900-1925 Thomas S. Harrington, 2014-12-11 This book provides a detailed analysis of the core concepts of national identity articulated by Iberian writers during the period between 1900 and 1925 It is centered on four pedagogical essays written in these decades previous to the onset of authoritarian dictatorships in Spain and Portugal works that are absolutely central to understanding the discursive architecture of collective identity in these same places today They are as follows Enric Prat de la Riba's La Nacionalitat Catalana 1906 Teixeira de Pascoaes Arte de Ser Português 1915 Vicente Risco's Teoría del Nacionalismo Galego 1920 and José Ortega y Gasset's España invertebrada 1921 The study consists of a discussion of some of the more important theoretical issues connected to social articulation of cultural identities four chapter long analyses of the textual manifestations of national identity within the major Romance language communities of the Iberian peninsula and a conclusion which underscores the key function played by these public intellectuals in establishing the parameters of the Imagined Communities with which they felt primarily identified On the most basic level the study of these catechistic visions of national individuality provides a heightened sense of both the differences and commonalities inherent in the cultural traditions of these core nationality groups of the Iberian Peninsula On another level the study reminds us of the important pedagogical function of literature understood here in the broadest possible sense in the formation and maintenance of nationality identities then as well as now

Identities in International Relations Jill Krause, Neil Renwick, 2016-07-27 By focusing on issues of identity this study offers a radically new approach to the understanding and explanation of international relations The text critiques dominant approaches to identity in international relations and highlights the complexity of forms of identification and allegiance in the contemporary world The text raises issues and concerns common to many areas of the social sciences Student involvement throughout the book's production has ensured that the book is written in an accessible style It will therefore appeal to a wide readership Fourth Estate, 1926

World Perspectives in Education Edmund J. King, 2018-05-08 Originally published in 1962 In this book the main problems of contemporary education are illustrated with fresh material from many countries and assessed in a context of rapid change in technology society and politics Familiar educational concerns are carefully considered but the altered status of schools teachers and homes in relation to competing influences receives particular attention Recent reforms in the Soviet Union and the development of education in Asia and Africa are assessed vis à vis topical questions and proposals in Great Britain the United States and several Western European countries The book is therefore useful both for problem studies in comparative education and for an up to date review of principles and practices in a critically formative period It is also intended to present a study of education that will be widely educative and contribute to world understanding
