Swords and Cinema Jeremiah McCall, 2015-01-14 A dive into the authenticity of battle scenes in epic films set in the Greco Roman world from Stanley Kubrick's Spartacus to Ridley Scott's Gladiator The battles and sieges of the Classical world have been a rich source of inspiration to film makers since the beginning of cinema and the sixties and seventies saw the golden age of the swords and sandals epic with films such as Spartacus Ridley Scott's Gladiator led a modern revival that has continued with the release of films like 300 The Eagle and Centurion and HBO's mini series Rome While Hollywood interpretations of Classical battle continue to spark interest in ancient warfare to casual viewers and serious enthusiasts alike they also spark a host of questions about authenticity What does Hollywood get right and wrong about weapons organization tactics and the experience of combat Did the Spartans really fight clad only in their underpants and did the Persians have mysterious silver masked assassins in their armies This original book discusses the merits of battle scenes in selected movies and along the way gives the reader an interesting overview of ancient battle It should appeal to the serious student of ancient warfare movie buffs and everyone in between Jeremiah McCall impresses us with detail on the motion pictures relevant to ancient history an honest and informative style UNRV.com The author has managed to produce a readable informative and credible perspective His work is entertaining and his conclusions have an authoritative feel to them Enjoy FIRE Project

Problematics of Military Power Michael S. Drake, 2013-10-18 This book traces the relations between the organization of violence and social and political order from ancient Rome to early modern Europe Following the work of Michel Foucault the author studies the ways authority obedience and forms of self conduct were produced by the micro techniques used to govern the bodies of violence deployed in different forms of warfare The Making Of The British Army Allan Mallinson, 2009-11-10 Edgehill 1642 Surveying the disastrous scene in the aftermath of the first battle of the English Civil War Oliver Cromwell realized that war could no longer be waged in the old feudal way there had to be system and discipline and therefore eventually a standing professional army From the New Model Army of Cromwell's distant vision former soldier Allan Mallinson shows us the people and events that have shaped the British army we know today How Marlborough's momentous victory at Blenheim is linked to Wellington's at Waterloo how the desperate fight at Rorke's Drift in 1879 underpinned the heroism of the airborne forces at Arnhem in 1944 and why Montgomery's momentous victory at El Alamein mattered long after the Second World War was over From the British Army's origins at the battle of Edgehill to the recent conflict in Afghanistan The Making of the British Army is history at its most relevant and most dramatic Her Master's Tools? Caroline Vander Stichele, Todd C. Penner, 2005 This collection of essays originating in the SBL International Meetings in Berlin 2002 and Cambridge 2003 explores the current reception of historical criticism in feminist biblical studies pushing the boundaries of past study and opening new vistas for future research By framing the discussion in the context of the current reevaluation of both historical criticism and feminist exegesis the contributors highlight the ongoing need to engage methodological issues In addition a strong postcolonial emphasis throughout the volume challenges the hegemony of Western biblical interpretation promoting a format of dialogue and engagement The collection brings together diverse cultural and geographical perspectives on biblical criticism with over ten countries represented Consisting of Western and non Western perspectives female and male scholars junior and senior voices in the field and a range of feminist scholars situated alongside postcolonial and gender critics this collection reveals not only the multiplicity of perspectives but also the various transitions in scholarship that have taken place over the past thirty years Volume contributors include Roland Boer Athalya Brenner Ann Graham Brock Kristin De Troyer Esther Fuchs Archie Chi Chung Lee Joseph Marchal John Marshall Hjamil Mart nez V zquez Madipoane Masenya ngwana Mphahlele Judith McKinlay Priscilla Geisterfer Nyvlt Jorunn kland Todd Penner Vernon Robbins Susanne Scholz Hanna Stenstr m and Caroline Vander Stichele Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org The Making of Byzantium, 600-1025 Mark Whittow, 1996 An excellent book Its originality lies in its broad geographical perspective the extensive treatment of neighboring countries and the emphasis on archaeological evidence Cyril Mango Exeter College Oxford The Cambridge Illustrated History of Warfare Geoffrey Parker, 2021-08-05 The new edition of The Cambridge Illustrated History of Warfare written and updated by a team of nine distinguished military historians examines how war was waged by Western powers across a sweeping timeframe beginning with classical Greece and Rome moving through the Middle Ages and the early modern period down to the wars of the twenty first century in Afghanistan Iraq and Syria The book stresses five essential aspects of the Western way of war a combination of technology discipline and an aggressive military tradition with an extraordinary capacity to respond rapidly to challenges and to use capital rather than manpower to win Although the focus remains on the West and on the role of violence in its rise each chapter also examines the military effectiveness of its adversaries and the regions in which the West's military edge has been and continues to be challenged
