

Making Our School More Effective; What Matters and What Effect

Nowadays, the governance of Malaysia education system emphasizes on high schools' achievement in many aspects not only in the field of academic but also in the sports. Hence, making the school more effective is vital to attain the highly expected goal. In this study, we will go through the matters on it and the effect of the School Effectiveness (SE) to our education.

1.0 THE DEFINITION OF SCHOOL EFFECTIVENESS

An effective school is "a school in which an optimum learning environment where cognitive, emotional, psychomotor, social and aesthetic developments of students are most properly provided is established" according to Klopf et al (Balo, 2007). Similarly, an effective school is related to results such as development in social, academic, emotional, moral, and aesthetic aspects, teachers' satisfaction, effective use of sources, accomplishing aims and environmental conformity (Şişman, 2011). In this sense, learning of and changes in behaviors of students occur by means of schools and other educational institutions. According to the definitions mentioned above, it is appropriate to include art, music and character in learning dimensions of students.

School Effectiveness refers to effectiveness enhancing conditions at school level (Scheerens, 2004). It includes all the contextual variables related with school such as teaching, learning, administration, students' motivation and community involvement. In the early studies on school effectiveness, the emphasis was on the enhancing conditions of schooling and output measures, mostly achievement of the student.

School Effectiveness also refers to the level of goal attainment of a school (Scheerens, 2013). Although average achievement scores in core subjects, established at the end of a fixed program are the most likely 'school effects', alternative criteria like the responsiveness
