Making Music in the Arab World A. J. Racy,Ali Jihad Racy,2004-05-20 A J Racy a scholar of ethnomusicology provides an intimate portrayal of the Arab musical experience in this

pioneering book Racy focuses on tarab a multifaceted concept that has no exact equivalent in English and refers to the indigenous music and the ecstasy associated with it His book examines aspects of musical craft including basic skills musician s inspiration love lyrics as tools of ecstasy and the relationship between performers and listeners Musical Instruments Meryl Doney,2004 Throughout history people in every part of the world have been making and playing musical instruments Some instruments are objects found in nature and some involve complex technology but every instrument has its own special sound and use Travel the world from Australia to Zimbabwe and beyond then try making and playing a Bolivian panpipe a Kenyan thumb piano an Indonesian xylophone or any of nine other fascinating instruments from many cultures Book jacket ARTS,CRAFTS AND TRADITIONAL INDUSTRIES DR. ASIM K. DASGUPTA,2014-01-31 In his second book of Arts and Crafts Dr Asim K Dasgupta takes us on another fascinating voyage of discovery exploring some of the most important achievements of human ingenuity across many centuries and many thousands of miles In these pages you can learn some of the secrets of bee keeping and thrill to the dangerous adventure of wild honey gatherers find out how to get salt from seawater and penetrate some of the secrets of the whisky distillers You can visit the little known worlds of the jute miller and the silk weaver and find out how an umbrella a comb a clock or a cork is made You can follow a hardwood tree from forest to wood work and a stone from quarry to carving This book tells us how hand made cards mosaic fine jewellery gemstones and many other crafts are created or produced In addition Dr Dasgupta provides an expert guide to the health risks attending each craft The book is illustrated throughout with superb photographs showing how the arts and crafts are practised in various parts of the world Teaching STEAM Through Hands-On Crafts Christine G. Schnittka,Amanda Haynes,2024-10-01 Help your students connect historic technologies with today s STEAM concepts through the lens of crafting This book written by a science education professor and a middle school STEM teacher provides guidance for turning classic crafts into transdisciplinary STEAM lessons for grades 3 8 Ready to use lessons outline the history science mathematics and engineering embedded within ten hands on crafts from around the world Each chapter outlines the history of a craft its social impact and the mathematics engineering and scientific concepts and skills embedded in the craft Content standards from art history English language arts technology mathematics and science are embedded within each unit Lessons are supplemented with ready to photocopy handouts guiding questions and logistical support such as shopping lists and safety procedures Activities have all been classroom tested to ensure appropriate leveling and applicability across STEAM disciplines Ideal for any STEM or STEAM classroom across upper elementary and middle schools this book helps make STEM concepts meaningful and tangible for your students Rather than just reading about science technology mathematics or engineering students will become makers and engage in STEAM directly just as original crafters have done for centuries Additional instructional materials are available at <https://steamcrafts.weebly.com> Any Sound You Can Imagine Paul Théberge,1997-06-23 Describes digital musical instruments industries that supply and promote them and the meanings they have for musicians Winner of the International Association for the Study of Popular Music IASPM Book Award 1997 Recent innovations in musical instrument design are not simply a response to the needs of musicians writes Paul Th berge they also have become a driving force with which musicians must contend He argues that digital synthesizers samplers and sequencers in studio production and in the home have caused musicians to rely increasingly on manufacturers for both the instruments themselves as well as the very sounds and musical patterns that they use to make music Musical practices have thus become allied with a new type of consumer practice that is altogether different from earlier relationships between musicians and their instruments as a means of production Th berge places these developments within a broad social and historical perspective that examines the development of the musical instrument industry particularly the piano industry the economic and cultural role of musicians magazines and computer networks and the fundamental relationships between musical concepts styles and technology
