Weiner, 1985 Developing Your Doll Collection for Enjoyment and Investment Loretta Holz, 1982 Discusses why and how to collect dolls the various categories and how to restore display store price and sell them Includes lists of resources Index to Handicraft Books, 1974-1984 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh. Science and Technology Department, 1986 Handicrafts and do it yourself projects have always been a library's most popular and heavily requested subject And for more than a decade a definitive index to handicraft books has not been published To fill this gap the Science and Technology Department at Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh has compiled the Index to Handicraft Books listing more than 900 books and over 12 400 subject entries covering books published from 1974 to 1984 The Index to Handicraft Books is an essential reference tool for librarians who want to help someone find instructions for a varied range of do it yourself projects providing quick access to craft projects in books more recent than previous handicraft index books have listed Each entry in the index consists of a subject heading the name of the project as listed in the book the author and title of the book and the page numbers on which the project can be found The author and title correspond to those in the List of Works Cited section which gives full bibliographic information in order to help librarians find the book on their shelves or obtain the book through inter library loan Because this index developed from a card file index of craft books acquired by Carnegie Library since 1974 the list concentrates mainly on medium priced books that most libraries buy Making To-Live-For Dolls Celia Desmond,2013-04 This book is a must read for anyone making a porcelain doll wanting to enter in a competition In the book you will find tips and information from notes taken at seminars and private lessons with the top doll makers in the world today There are two main categories of porcelain dolls modern and antique Modern dolls are those sculpted by modern artists Antique dolls are those that were first introduced and sold either more that fifty years ago or by some definitions more than one hundred years ago Actual antique dolls can be purchased for enjoyment and possibly to use as models for the making of reproductions Excellent reproductions of the antique dolls can be made by modern day artists Modern dolls are those sculpted by current day sculptors Modern dolls can be painted and dressed in any way the doll artisan prefers They can have painted eyes or the holes can be cut out from the porcelain before the bisque firing to allow the insertion of glass eyes Neither technique is easy Each has its own challenges and both look nice when done well These dolls can be dressed in any way the artist wishes as well Reproductions of antiques must be done so that the artist reproduces the original patterns and colors as they were initially done on the specific dolls This means reproducing the eyes with the same number of lashes that the artists painted on the antique dolls the same slant and the same spacing Dressing the antique reproductions poses another challenge as the dolls should be dressed in a period costume appropriate for that doll The fabrics should be natural fibers often actual vintage or antique fabrics Significant research is required to determine what styles fabrics and colors should be used for specific dolls This book has a wonderful collection of tips collected from the experts These are helpful for all doll makers especially people preparing for competitions This book contains a wealth of information for lovers and makers of both modern and reproduction antique dolls The information has been collected over the years from most of the most talented and experienced doll makers in the world It is shared here with those interested in preserving this art approaching each aspect of the doll in the best way possible Art Books ,1950 Including an international directory of museum permanent collection catalogs Creative Crafts and Miniatures ,1985 Art Books 1980-1984 R.R.
