New Direction Bible Reading Guide Volume 1:

Past, Present and Promise David Mainse, David Manuel, 1986 New Directions for Holy Questions Claire Brown, Anita Peebles, 2022-01-18 Rooted in the teachings of progressive Christianity for today's kids and parents With accessible language Bible stories and connections to daily life this book guides children and the adults who love them through the core teachings of Christianity Kids have big questions about God and faith and while many of those questions don't have one clear answer Christians throughout the ages have given us helpful ways to think and talk about what we believe Each chapter includes simple spiritual practices and questions for reflection either in solitary reading or through conversation between children and caregivers or ministers It is oriented towards anti racism gender equality economic justice care of the environment affirmation of LGBTQ folks trauma informed practice and global citizenship New Directions in Theology and Science Peter Harrison, Paul Tyson, 2022-01-31 This book sets out a new agenda for science theology interactions and offers examples of what that agenda might look like when implemented It explores in innovative ways what follows for science theology discussions from recent developments in the history of science The contributions take seriously the historically conditioned nature of the categories science and religion and consider the ways in which these categories are reinforced in the public sphere Reflecting on the balance of power between theology and the sciences the authors demonstrate a commitment to moving beyond traditional models of one sided dialogue and seek to give theology a more active role in determining the interdisciplinary agenda The New Cambridge History of the Bible: Volume 1, From the Beginnings to 600 James Carleton Paget, Joachim Schaper, 2013-05-09 Recent years have witnessed significant discoveries of texts and artefacts relevant to the study of the Old and New Testaments and remarkable shifts in scholarly methods of study The present volume mirrors the increasing specialization of Old Testament studies including the Hebrew and Greek Bibles and reflects rich research activity that has unfolded over the last four decades in Pentateuch theory Septuagint scholarship Qumran studies and early Jewish exegesis of biblical texts The second half of the volume discusses the period running from the New Testament to 600 including chapters on the Coptic Syriac and Latin bibles the Gnostic use of the scriptures pagan engagement with the Bible the use of the Bible in Christian councils and in popular and non literary culture A fascinating in depth account of the reception of the Bible in the earliest period of its history Resolviendo Cristina García-Alfonso, 2010 The story of Rahab Joshua 2 has traditionally been interpreted as the account of a foreign woman and prostitute who changes the course of her life when she converts to Yahweh In return for her faithful act of saving the spies sent by Joshua to search the land of Canaan Rahab and her family obtain salvation once her city of Jericho is destroyed The story of Jael Judges 4 17 23 has commonly been read as Jael's violent act of killing Sisera King Jabin's commander in chief with a tent peg to his temple while he was asleep Jael is perceived as someone who fails to fulfill the hospitality codes of her society The story of Jephthah and his unnamed daughter Judges 10 6 12 7 describes the tragic event in which Jephthah makes a foolish and horrible vow offering his innocent daughter in sacrifice to God Typically this text is read as Jephthah being immensely irresponsible and his daughter being the poor victim who pays for her father's oath Cristina Garc a Alfonso proposes that the stories of Rahab Jael and Jephthah can be particularly enriched and give hope to contemporary contexts of hardship when they are read through the Cuban notion of resolviendo survival Using narrative criticism along with different contemporary approaches to the texts including feminist and post colonial approaches Garc a Alfonso's readings of the biblical narratives from a perspective of resolviendo offer insights in the struggle for survival many Cubans face today Also explored are the implications that a reading through the notion of resolviendo or survival can have for other contexts in contemporary societies where survival is at stake

Judaism and Christianity Alan Jeffery Avery-Peck, Jacob Neusner, 2009 This volume treats the interrelationship between Judaism and Christianity from the first centuries and into modern times paying particular attention to these faiths' social cultural and theological interactions The issues covered range from the formation of Jewish and Christian ideology in the context of Roman paganism to the ways in which Christian culture and theology of the medieval and modern periods form a backdrop to the creation of Jewish identity While the historical periods and issues discussed are diverse the result is to suggest the importance of our recognizing the close development of Judaism and Christianity Written by top scholars in Judaic and Christian studies these essays reflect on how the two faiths related to and were shaped by each other as they evolved in shared historical and cultural contexts even as each maintained its own distinctive ideologies and beliefs
