The New Documentary in Action Alan Rosenthal,1971 A New History of Documentary Film Betsy A.

McLane,2013-03-28 A New History of Documentary Film Second Edition offers a much needed resource considering the very rapid changes taking place within documentary media Building upon the best selling 2005 edition Betsy McLane keeps the same chronological examination factual reliability ease of use and accessible prose style as before while also weaving three new threads Experimental Documentary Visual Anthropology and Environmental Nature Films into the discussion She provides emphasis on archival and preservation history present practices and future needs for documentaries Along with preservation information specific problems of copyright and fair use as they relate to documentary are considered Finally A History of Documentary Film retains and updates the recommended readings and important films and the end of each chapter from the first edition including the bibliography and appendices Impossible to talk learnedly about documentary film without an audio visual component a companion website will increase its depth of information and overall usefulness to students teachers and film enthusiasts A New History of Documentary Film Jack C. Ellis,Betsy A. McLane,2005-08-01

This history of documentary film concentrates mainly on the output of the film industries in the US the UK and Canada The authors outline the origins of the form and trace its development over the next several decades Each chapter concludes with a list of the key documentaries in that time period or genre Salesman J.M. Tyree,2019-07-25 Selected by the Library of Congress as one of the most significant American films ever made Salesman 1966 9 is a landmark in non fiction cinema equivalent in its impact and influence to Truman Capote s non fiction novel In Cold Blood The film follows a team of travelling Bible salesmen on the road in Massachusetts Chicago and Florida where the American dream of self reliant entrepreneurship goes badly wrong for protagonist Paul Brennan Long acknowledged as a high water mark of the direct cinema movement this ruefully comic and quietly devastating film was the first masterpiece of Albert Maysles David Maysles and Charlotte Zwerin the trio who would go on to produce The Rolling Stones documentary Gimme Shelter 1970 Based on the premise that films drawn from ordinary life could compete with Hollywood extravaganzas Salesman was critical in shaping the documentary feature A novel cinema going experience for its time the film was independently produced designed for theatrical release and presented without voiceover narration interviews or talking heads Working with innovative handheld equipment and experimenting with eclectic methods and a collaborative ethos the Maysles brothers and Zwerin produced a carefully orchestrated narrative drama fashioned from unexpected episodes J M Tyree suggests that Salesman can be understood as a case study of non fiction cinema raising perennial questions about reality and performance His analysis provides an historical and cultural context for the film considering its place in world cinema and its critical representations of dearly held national myths The style of Salesman still makes other documentaries look static and immobile while the film s allegiances to everyday subjects and working people indelibly marked the cinema Tyree s insightful study also includes an exclusive exchange with Albert Maysles about the film

Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken, 2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation
