

THE NEW INTERNATIONAL LESSON ANNUAL

September–August 2001–2002 Text in NRSV and NIV

Edited by NAN DUERLING

Take a look at The New International Lesson Annual.

The reader evaluations are in and the results are overwhelmingly positive. Teachers agree that The New International Lesson Annual gets highest marks for helping teachers in the classroom, making scripture understandable, relating scriptures to contemporary living, and challenging students to respond with positive actions. The New International Lesson Annual keeps the tradition of excellence alive.

- New easy-to-use design, with tint boxes, outlines, and locator icons
- The only lesson commentary with these two popular, easy-to-understand modern translations—NRSV and NIV. (By using the King James Bible or any other translation you have a three-version parallel.)
- Largest, easier-to-read type size than most other lesson commentaries
- Nine pages of helps, options, and ideas for each lesson—now you can prepare thoroughly without tedious work and study
- Source information is included for lectures or discussions and other activities
- Practical suggestions for action are in the section Helping Class Members Act; genuine, workable ideas that you can use in your everyday life
- Less expensive than comparable commentaries—no other lesson commentary offers as much for so little cost
- Edited by one of the nation's leading educators, Dr. Nan Duerling

NAN DUERLING is a faculty member of the Course of Study School at Wesley Theological Seminary in Washington, D.C. She has authored numerous magazine articles, and youth and adult curriculum resources. A former English teacher at secondary school and university levels with a master's degree in education, specializing in instruction and curriculum development, and a Ph.D. in literature, Dr. Duerling has led numerous church-related workshops. She enjoys teaching an adult Sunday school class and a midweek Bible study group at Linthicum Heights United Methodist Church where she and her husband, Craig, are active members.

New Public Management in Africa Benon C. Basheka,Lukamba-Muhiya. Tshombe,2017-08-25 The administrative sciences have been dominated by a turn to managerial perspectives in the late 20th and early 21st centuries and in the spirit of this turn New Public Management or NPM promises to produce efficient responsible and client oriented public services The reforms carried out in the pursuit of New Public Management are often accompanied by great optimism and rapid enthusiastic steps toward implementation Even in highly developed industrial countries however these fundamental reforms often overlook the political and cultural contexts of the implementing country New Public Management in Africa Emerging Issues and Lessons provides much needed theoretical foundations for NPM reforms in the African context and reflects on the success of existing reforms in the development of several African states The individual contributions in this timely volume provide important analyses of academic discourse practical policy achievements and desiderata The book as a whole however provides a valuable impetus for public administration research in and on African states sharing findings on the results of reforms to date and adjustments required for these reforms to succeed For public administration researchers outside of Africa this book offers a review of New Public Management case studies that are unavailable or difficult to find elsewhere contributing much to the exchange between African and Western administration science research and demonstrating that African administrative research is well prepared to help resolve global challenges

Sustaining Global Growth and Development Michele Fratianni, Paolo Savona, 2016-04-01 Sustaining Global Growth and Development focuses on the new challenges for sustaining growth in the twenty first century and the role of the G7 and IMF in meeting these challenges amidst the new processes of regionalism now emerging The volume has three central purposes to assess how and how well the G7 has addressed its core 2002 agenda of sustaining global growth reducing poverty in Africa and combating terrorism and its financing to examine how the IMF has approached these issues and related work of the G7 to explore how the G7 IMF and other international institutions are addressing global growth and development challenges in the context of the new processes of regionalism Pressures such as currency consolidation in Asia and economic union in Africa are studied This book builds on previous volumes in the series with a heavy focus on the World Bank the regional development banks and the many other international institutions that work in the field of development
