New Euro Mediterranean Cultural Identity:

A New Euro-Mediterranean Cultural Identity Stefania Panebianco, 2003 The Euro Mediterranean Partnership was formed in 1995 in Barcelona Currently its main aim is to foster economic cooperation Another part of its remit is to mediate Arab Israeli tensions and advance the process of encouraging good governance across the whole region A New

Euro-Mediterranean Cultural Identity Stefania Panebianco, 2004-08-02 The Euro Mediterranean Partnership was formed in 1995 in Barcelona In this volume concepts of democracy civil society human rights and dialogue among civilizations in the Mediterranean region are addressed in the context of the new Euro Mediterranean Partnership Conceptualizing Cultural and Social Dialogue in the Euro-Mediterranean Area Michelle Pace, Tobias Schumacher, 2007-02-08 Previously published as a special issue of Mediterranean Politics this collection critically analyzes the dynamics and complexities of the wider Euro Mediterranean area on the basis of individual theory informed designs and conceptual frameworks Since the predominant focus has been on the first political and security partnership and the second b The Challenge of Differentiation in

Euro-Mediterranean Relations Esther Barbé, Anna Herranz-Surrallés, 2013-09-13 The tension between the aim of creating sustainable multilateral region building dynamics and the need to find more differentiated and flexible forms of cooperation has been ever present in Euro Mediterranean relations The proliferation of different and partially overlapping initiatives in recent years the Euro Mediterranean Partnership the European Neighbourhood Policy and the Union for the Mediterranean is a plain expression of this tension The 2011 episodes of regime change in the Arab world have once again placed the debate about differentiation in EU s relations with Southern and Eastern Mediterranean Countries at the top of the Union s foreign policy agenda This book contributes to theoretical and practical debates on whether differentiation processes can aid or hinder policy convergence processes and region building efforts more widely The contributions to this collection assess the actual significance and consequences of differentiation in Euro Mediterranean relations through sector specific in depth analyses covering issue areas as varied as environmental policy migration foreign and defence policy trade energy civil protection and democracy promotion The particular angle and comprehensive analysis of this book will make it of great interest for both scholars and policy makers alike in a moment when Euro Mediterranean are in need of a thorough rethink This book was based on a special issue of Mediterranean Politics

Twenty Years of Euro-Mediterranean Relations

Richard Youngs, 2017-10-02 The creation of the Euro Mediterranean Partnership in 1995 was seen at the time as a forward thinking foreign policy which would strengthen ties between Europe and the Mediterranean Arab states Since that time however almost none of this initial ambition has been translated into positive successful policy Twenty years on from the creation of the Euro Mediterranean Partnership now the Union for the Mediterranean this book collects some of the most influential articles published in the Mediterranean Politics journal since 1995 and suggests what these articles tell us about the state of relations between Europe and the Middle East The selection of articles gives a sense of the way in which analytical debate has changed in the journal's lifetime a lifetime which has seen the journal at the forefront of academic study on a variety of issues in the Mediterranean region. As such the selection is naturally a reflection of the different periods from which the articles are taken and taken together they paint a picture of how the Euro Mediterranean partnership has been reshaped over time. New Pathways in International Development Maurizio Carbone, Marjorie Lister, 2017-11-30

Gender considerations and civil society are both major issues in the current debate about the implementation of EU development policy. This volume provides a new perspective and focus on the increasingly important issues of gender equality, democracy and participation to explain how they impact on policy. This book will appeal to those interested in the European Union, in EU external relations, gender issues, civil society and development. The Oxford Handbook of Postwar

European History Dan Stone, 2012-05-17 The postwar period is no longer current affairs but is becoming the recent past. As such it is increasingly attracting the attentions of historians. Whilst the Cold War has long been a mainstay of political science and contemporary history, recent research approaches postwar Europe in many different ways, all of which are represented in the 35 chapters of this book. As well as diplomatic, political, institutional, economic and social history, the The Oxford Handbook of Postwar European History contains chapters which approach the past through the lenses of gender, espionage, art and architecture, technology, agriculture, heritage, postcolonialism, memory and generational change, and shows how the history of postwar Europe can be enriched by looking to disciplines such as anthropology and philosophy. The Handbook covers all of Europe with a notable focus on Eastern Europe. Including subjects as diverse as the meaning of Europe and European identity, southern Europe after dictatorship, the cultural meanings of the bomb, the 1968 student uprisings, immigration, Americanization, welfare, leisure, decolonization, the Wars of Yugoslav Succession and coming to terms with the Nazi past, the thirty-five essays in this Handbook offer an unparalleled coverage of postwar European history that offers far more than the standard Cold War framework. Readers will find self-contained state-of-the-art analyses of major subjects, each written by acknowledged experts, as well as stimulating and novel approaches to newer topics. Combining empirical rigour and adventurous conceptual analysis, this Handbook offers in one substantial volume a guide to the numerous ways in which historians are now rewriting the history of postwar Europe. Young Minds Rethinking the Mediterranean, 2011

Throughout history much has been written on why wars and crises occur and why human beings kill each other or are often so ready to do so. While some blame human nature, state structures or the anarchic order within the international system, others hold prejudices and the othering or dehumanizing of those different from us as being responsible. The region in which we live has particularly suffered a great deal from these violent processes. Nationalist ideologies, most of which were defined in opposition to one another, alienated others, abstracted them from their humanity and made them subject to various kinds of tyranny. Turks, Bulgarians, Greeks and many others had their share in this process of mutual alienation. Across the Euro Mediterranean region throughout history, immigrations have been imposed, publics extorted, crises fomented and interventions and wars suffered through The study in your hands sheds light on the processes of othering and alienation in large part responsible for this troubled history It serves as a tool through which the past and the future can be understood And it examines prejudice the largest obstacle facing Turkey on its path to EU membership while touching on various issues such as minority rights the notion of culture the role of symbols and other visual images in politics the narration of culture within the capitalist order and its political outcomes and finally the EU s Mediterranean politics

Euro-Mediterranean Relations After September 11 Annette Junemann, 2004-06 A comprehensive study of the nexus between democratization and security in the Mediterranean which are seen as essentially complementary yet threatened by political trends witnessed since the September 2001 attacks Contributors from a variety of European and Mediterranean countries address the impact of a restructured security system Europe s effort to establish an autonomous security and defence policy and attempts among the Mediterranean Partner Countries MPCs to build regional security regimes

Law, Culture and Identity in Central and Eastern Europe Cosmin Cercel, Alexandra Mercescu, Mirosław Michał Sadowski, 2023-12-01 Combining insights from comparative legal theory jurisprudence and legal history this collection examines the legal and constitutional identity of Central and Eastern Europe Although the various countries of Central and Eastern Europe have often compared themselves to the West the failure of these countries to engage with one another has resulted in a whole spectrum of legal identities remaining hidden This book takes up a comparison of such identities within the region of Central and Eastern Europe and following from the prima facie similarity between the region s countries given the experience of communism and legal transfers The book thereby illuminates through comparisons the distinct legal identities of the 16 Central and Eastern European states whilst at the same time arguing for a shared Central and Eastern European legal identity This book will appeal to scholars and students in the area of comparative law as well as lawyers political scientists sociologists and historians with particular interests in Central and Eastern Europe
