Federation ,1903 Jane's World Railways, 1987-88 Geoffrey Freeman Allen, 1987-10 Algeria Martin Evans, John Phillips, 2008-01-14 After liberating itself from French colonial rule in one of the twentieth century s most brutal wars of independence Algeria became a standard bearer for the non aligned movement By the 1990s however its revolutionary political model had collapsed degenerating into a savage conflict between the military and Islamist guerillas that killed some 200 000 citizens In this lucid and gripping account Martin Evans and John Phillips explore Algeria s recent and very bloody history demonstrating how the high hopes of independence turned into anger as young Algerians grew increasingly alienated Unemployed frustrated by the corrupt military regime and excluded by the West the post independence generation needed new heroes and some found them in Osama bin Laden and the rising Islamist movement Evans and Phillips trace the complex roots of this alienation arguing that Algeria s predicament political instability pressing economic and social problems bad governance a disenfranchised youth is emblematic of an arc of insecurity stretching from Morocco to Indonesia Looking back at the pre colonial and colonial periods they place Algeria s complex present into historical context demonstrating how successive governments have manipulated the past for their own ends The result is a fractured society with a complicated and bitter relationship with the Western powers and an increasing tendency to export terrorism to France America and beyond

The Gypsies of Eastern Europe David Crowe, John Kolsti, Ian Hancock, 2016-07-22 In recent news coverage of the dramatic political events in Eastern Europe Gypsies have been a favourite sidebar topic Some of the stories have been truly horrifying others are written condescendingly and to amuse but what has become clear is how little we really know about this people In a concerted effort to uncover the modern history of the Rom in Eastern Europe the authors examine the Gypsy experience in Albania Czechoslovakia Hungary Romania and Yugoslavia with special attention to the Nazi Holocaust as well as to the record of the forced settlement and education programmes instituted by communist regimes Signal

Weber,2013-06-29 In August 1990 Project 233 of the International Geological Correlation Program hosted an international conference in Göttingen Giessen Germany Discussions were focused on the Tectonothermal and Stratigraphic Evolution of the Central European Orogens The meeting marked the first opportunity for completely open scientific exchange following the recent political reformations in central Europe This exciting new atmosphere of international cooperation resulted in presentation of a wealth of information which was new to scientists from both sides of former political boundaries It was apparent that a unique opportunity was available to prepare a systematic overview in a volume dealing with the geology of Central Europe The present book represents an outgrowth of this conference but is not merely a compilation of the papers presented in Göttingen Giessen Instead it represents a coordinated volume designed to present a balanced comprehensive view of our present understanding of the tectonothermal and stratigraphic evolution of the Central European orogens We gratefully acknowledge the help of the national funding agencies who have financed much of the research work summarized in this book and of the International Geological Correlation Programme IGCP project no 233 which provided and helped to finance the organisational framework We are indebted to Springer Verlag for thorough copy editing and production of this book and we sincerely appreciate the efforts of all the reviewers whose comments have greatly helped to improve the quality of this volume We also thank the various contributors for their diligence and perseverance in manuscript preparation
