The Structure of Cuban History Louis A. Pérez Jr.,2013-09-16 In this expansive and contemplative history of Cuba Louis A. Pérez Jr. argues that the country's memory of the past served to transform its unfinished nineteenth century liberation project into a twentieth century revolutionary metaphysics. The ideal of national sovereignty that was anticipated as the outcome of Spain's defeat in 1898 was heavily compromised by the U.S. military intervention that immediately followed. To many Cubans it seemed almost as if the new nation had been overtaken by another country's history. Memory of thwarted independence and aggrievement of the promise of sovereignty ever receding into the future contributed to the development in the early republic of a political culture shaped by aspirations to fulfill the nineteenth century promise of liberation and it was central to the claim of the revolution of 1959 as the triumph of history. In this capstone book Pérez discerns in the Cuban past the promise that decisively shaped the character of Cuban nationality.

General History of the Caribbean Higman, B.W., UNESCO,1905-06-21 This volume looks at the ways historians have written the history of the region depending upon their methods of interpretation and differing styles of communicating their findings. The chapters discussing methodology are followed by studies of particular themes of historiography. The second half of the volume describes the writing of history in the individual territories taking into account changes in society, economy and political structure. The final section is a full and detailed bibliography serving not only as a guide to the volume but also as an invaluable reference for the General History of the Caribbean as a whole.

General History of the Caribbean UNESCO Volume 6 NA, NA,2019-06-12 Volume 6 looks at the ways historians have written the history of the region depending upon their methods of interpretation and differing styles of communicating their findings. The authors examine how the linguistic diversity of the region has affected the historian's ability to coalesce an historical account. The second half of the volume describes the writing of history in the individual territories taking into account changes in society, economy and political structure. This volume concludes with a detailed bibliography that is comprehensive of the entire series.
