landscape by painters such as Thomas Cole Albert Bierstadt Frederic Edwin Church Asher B Durand Fitz Hugh Lane and Martin J Heade and writers such as Ralph Waldo Emerson Henry David Thoreau William Wordsworth Theodore Rousseau and Frederich Wilhelm Schelling Adding a new dimension to the discussion of nature s influence on the American mind she explains how religion philosophy science and literatrue served as the support system for the idea of God in Nature She shows that the idea of nature as a national vested interest was invaluable to a young expanding nation but ultimately this essentially monolithic view collapsed from within undermined by the Civil War Darwinism and a burgeoning technological landscape Taking American landscape painting in its golden era as a product of society she examines the cultural background of paintings as an index to their intrinsic meaning She explains for example how new discoveries in science were made consonant with Deity how religion itself permeated nature with the idea of Creation and how the landscape artists were given the task of providing the images of nature that became the national iconography She goes on to demonstrate how American landscapists handling rocks clouds plants and other natural elements paralleled and diverged from scientific developments and also how the landscapists who accompanied explorers on their westward expeditions related to their scientific colleagues With a new introduction this volume encompasses a vast cultural panorama It demonstrates how the influence of the nature served not only as a vehicle for artistic creation but as its ideal form Transcendence Richard Mayhew,2020-03-03
