Introduction to African Oral Literature and Performance Bayo

Ogunjimi, Abdul Rasheed Na'allah, Abdul Rasheed Na'allah, 2005 Rev ed of Introduction to African oral literature c1991

The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 Simon Gikandi, Evan Mwangi, 2007 The Columbia Guide to East African Literature in English Since 1945 challenges the conventional belief that the English language literary traditions of East Africa are restricted to the former British colonies of Kenya Uganda and Tanzania Instead these traditions stretch far into such neighboring countries as Somalia and Ethiopia Simon Gikandi and Evan Mwangi assemble a truly inclusive list of major writers and trends They begin with a chronology of key historical events and an overview of the emergence and transformation of literary culture in the region Then they provide an alphabetical list of major writers and brief descriptions of their concerns and achievements Some of the writers discussed include the Kenyan novelists Grace Ogot and Ngugi wa Thiong'o Ugandan poet and essayist Taban Lo Liyong Ethiopian playwright and poet Tsegaye Gabre Medhin Tanzanian novelist and diplomat Peter Palangyo Ethiopian novelist Berhane Mariam Sahle Sellassie and the novelist M G Vassanji who portrays the Indian diaspora in Africa Europe and North America Separate entries within this list describe thematic concerns such as colonialism decolonization the black aesthetic and the language question the growth of genres like autobiography and popular literature important movements like cultural nationalism and feminism and the impact of major forces such as AIDS HIV Christian missions and urbanization Comprehensive and richly detailed this guide offers a fresh perspective on the role of East Africa in the development of African and world literature in English and a new understanding of the historical cultural and geopolitical boundaries of the region African Oral Literature Isidore Okpewho, 1992-09-22 its pages come alive with wonderful illustrative material coupled with sensitive and insightful commentary. Reviews in Anthropology the scope, breadth, and lucidity of this excellent study confirm that Okpewho is undoubtedly the most important authority writing on African oral literature right now. Research in African Literatures Truly a tour de force of individual scholarship. World Literature Today excellent African Affairs a thorough synthesis of the main issues of oral literature criticism as well as a grounding in experienced fieldwork, a wide-ranging theoretical base, and a clarity of argument rare among academics. Multicultural Review This is a breathtakingly ambitious project. Harold Scheub a definitive accounting of the evidence of living oral traditions in Africa today. Professor Okpewho's authority as an expert in this important new field is unrivaled. Gregory Nagy Isidore Okpewho's African Oral Literature is a marvelous piece of scholarship and wide-ranging research. It presents the most comprehensive survey of the field of oral literature in Africa. Emmanuel Obiechina a tour de force of scholarship in which Okpewho casts his net across the African continent searching for its verbal forms through voluminous recent writings and presents African oral literature in a new voice proclaiming the literariness of African folklore. Dan Ben Amos This is an outstanding book by a scholar whose work has already influenced how African literature should be conceived. Professor Okpewho is a scholar with a special talent to nurture scholarship in others. After this work African literature will never be the same. Mazisi Kunene Isidore Okpewho for many years Professor of English at the University of Ibadan is one of the handful of African scholars who has facilitated the growth of African oral literature to its status today as a literary enterprise concerned with the artistic foundations of human culture. This comprehensive critical work firmly establishes oral literature as a landmark of high artistic achievement and situates it within the broader framework of contemporary African culture. An Annotated Bibliography of the Visual Arts of East Africa Eugene C. Burt, 1980 a landmark in the academic study of African art a remarkably useful bibliography warmly recommended. African Arts this workmanlike compilation is admirable. Choice African Languages, Literatures, and Postcolonial Modernity Samba Camara, Mohamed Mwamzandi, 2024-01-26 This book offers a fresh look into the languages of postcolonial modernity in Africa and to a lesser degree its diaspora. It foregrounds the notion of postcolonial modernity in reference to modernization as experienced in the postcolony and its contemporary legacies and investigates how African languages and literatures both as means of communication and as instruments of cultural agency have embodied and mediated modernity. Each chapter grapples with the literary or linguistic dimensions of postcolonial modernity as portrayed in African novels, film, poetry, or popular music, or as embodied in African and Afro-diasporic languages and dialects. The chapters also reveal how literature and language respectively document and embody discourses, phenomena, histories, ideologies, and beliefs that resulted from the legacies of colonialism. Old Age, Gender, Social Security in Africa and Europe LIT Verlag, 2023-07-01 In the Decade of Healthy Ageing UN WHO this collection of essays contains interdisciplinary contributions by authors from African and European cultures who address questions about the situation of old people in the past and present, comparing the situation of men and women and focussing on their protection and care within society While at first glance it appears that the phenomena in the young African countries are completely different from those in European countries there is a certain convergence between the continents The challenges of migration globalisation and the climate crisis are triggering social transformation processes that are weakening older traditions The focus is on the dissolution of the extended family and the associated loss of the stabilising function within the framework of the so called intergenerational contract This development triggers crises However new models for organising old age are also developing Old people are finding new ways to organise their lives

Oral Literary Performance in Africa Nduka Otiono, Chiji Akoma, 2021-05-31 This book delivers an admirably comprehensive and rigorous analysis of African oral literatures and performance Gathering insights from distinguished scholars in the field the book provides a range of contemporary interdisciplinary perspectives in the study of oral literature and its transformations in everyday life fiction poetry popular culture and postcolonial politics Topics discussed include folklore and folklife oral performance and masculinities intermediated orality modern transformations and globalisation orality and mass media spoken word and imaginative writing The book also addresses research methodologies and the thematic and theoretical trajectories of scholars of African oral literatures looking back to the trailblazing legacies of Ruth Finnegan Harold Scheub and Isidore Okpewho Ambitious in scope and incisive in its analysis this book will be of interest to students and scholars of African literatures and oral performance as well as to general readers interested in the dynamics of cultural production

A Comparative Reading of Pan-Africanism and Afropolitanism Andrew Nyongesa, John Mugubi, 2024-10-07 This book is response to the recent surge of formidable voices that consistently demean and attempt to reverse the gains of pan Africanism Besides questioning its relevance these voices supplant essential tenets of pan Africanism Blackness the narrative of Return sanctity of the ancestral homeland exposition of evils of colonialism and African Literature with new postulations These new suppositions deny race accentuate onward migration and diminish the ancestral homeland to any ordinary city to globetrot These voices liken any reminiscence of colonial evils to Afro pessimism pronounce African Literature dead on arrival and proceed to substitute pan Africanism through studies which neglect pioneer and contemporary literary works cultural productions folklore conversations on social media blogs Facebook WhatsApp and questionnaires to gauge their influence among Black peoples themselves This study adopts a design that interrogates literary works data from questionnaires and social media to determine the relevance and influence of pan Africanism and the new paradigm

African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa s literature is different from West Africa s which is quite different from South Africa s which has different influences on it than North Africa s Africa s literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature
